Our schools now have visual aids, counseling, statistical measuring, recognition of individual differences, specialized vocational courses, extracurricular offerings, and 1957 rock-an'-roll students, but the blackboard (now a modern green in many rooms) is still one of the most-used devices of our schools. Taking the old slate from the days of readin,' ritin,' and 'rithmetic and bringing it up to 1957, the staff chose and created a modernistic style for a traditional item. On each art division page we have tried to depict the content of that particular section with titles and symbolic characters in not-too-serious a vein. We, the editors, workers, and sponsors, give to you the 1957 WESTERNER!

III. WHERE THEY SHOP

In Dedication . . .

. . . to a teacher, a friend, a West Texan, and a true Westerner. For 26 consecutive years students in Lubbock High School looked up to her great height, finding patience, kindness and understanding. This year we have missed her, but the traits and Westerner traditions that she helped to mold are with us to inspire and guide us. We, the staff, dedicate this 1957 WESTERNER to Mrs. Emmett Burford.

Because of a brain concussion received in an automobile accident last April, Mrs. Burford announced her resignation at her doctor's request. A collector of antiques, she is shown holding an item from her inherited set of Flo blue English bone china.

LUBBOCK
SENIOR HIGH

We Come

Through this front door Lubbock High School Westerners have walked since 1931. A familiar scene is a group of students having a last chat before the 8:30 bell rings and another day of school begins.

An aid in preparing school work, a source of information, or a means of entertainment, our school library, having a seating capacity of 72, accommodates many students. To keep up with the growing school and the changing interests, the library has added 198 new books since last May.

This painting of a forty-niner, displayed in our cafeteria, is an example of some of the beautiful art work throughout our school. The Senior Class Gift of 1949, it was painted by Harold Gore.

We Go

Being used for the first time this year is the Westerner Flag. It is displayed on the flagpole on the days when we have ball games and pep rallies. The words "Lubbock High School Westerners" and the bucking bronco and rider are in black on a gold background.

One of the things that has not been observed by very many students is this gargoyle. This salmon colored replica of a sea horse, among several others, decorate the arches in the foyer of the auditorium.

Out this back door Lubbock High School Westerners have dashed since 1931. A familiar scene is a group of students speedily departing as the 3:50 bell rings and one more school day is ended.

Crowned Black and Gold Sweetheart

She is shown in the upper picture as she rides around the field at Jones Stadium in a convertible. In the circle she is pictured with her escort, Mike Lundy, as they walk under the arch of batons before the crowning.

Women's Club Honors Nine Outstanding Senior Girls

The Business and Professional Women's Club honors one girl each month during the school year by selecting her from the senior class as Girl of the Month. After being selected, she attends one of the night meetings of the club at which time she introduces the Girl of the Month chosen from Monterey.

Moral and ethical standards, leadership, service, and character are the factors considered in choosing these girls. They must be good examples for their fellow students and be able to get along well with other students and teachers alike.

Heading the committee that selected these girls this year are Miss Laurene Bussey, Mrs. Everett Carver, Miss Glenys Honey, Mr. Gordon Downum, and Mrs. Ethel Terrell.

Nine Senior Boys Honored as Junior Rotarians Each Year

Honored as Junior Rotarian each month of the school year is an outstanding senior boy who has contributed much to the field in which he takes part. Among the characteristics considered are good citizenship, well-developed character, high scholastic rating, and the ability to get along with his fellow students and teachers in a friendly manner.

Being presented at the first meeting of the Rotary Club each month, he attends all the meetings during the month and gives a brief statement at the last meeting.

Serving on the selection committee this year are Mr. J. E. Gordon, Mr. E. J. Lowrey, Mr. Vernon Odom, Mr. Robert E. Knight, and Mrs. Ethel Terrel.

Since 1951 Mr. Nat Williams served as Superintendent of Lubbock Public Schools. As superintendent, he is head administrator of the schools' board of trustees.

Mr. Williams' many duties include the over-all planning of the schools, organizing the schools, budgeting school funds, okaying building or expansion plans, and the supervision of personnel hiring and placement.

Williams, Hill, Supervise

Other members of the administrative staff are Mr. A. W. Eckert, Miss Gertrude Watson, Mr. Ross Wimbish and Mr. A. F. Rasor.

Standing are Mr. W. H. Avenger, Mr. G. C. Clapp, Dr. G. G. Hammer, and Mr. Eck Curtis.

Assistant superintendent of the Lubbock Public Schools and director of personnel, Dr. Ishmael Hill is supervisor of the entire curriculum, a member of the textbook committee, and the interviewer of all candidates for teaching jobs.

These are not easy tasks, but Dr. Hill has succeeded in doing a fine job since 1951.

Lubbock School Activities

Members of the Board of Education are Mr. T. O. Murphey, secretary; Mr. W. H. Evans, president; Mr. Ruel C. Martin, vice president. Standing are Mr. Paul Pugh, Mr. John J. Christmann, Mr. Russell S. Wilkinson, and Mr. James H. Whiteside.

They Counsel, Direct Academics

Miss Grace Padley is director of guidance for the Lubbock schools, and her duties often bring her to LHS where she always lends a helping hand.

Miss Dorothy Lomax and Mr. Carl Bailey, director and assistant director of secondary education for Lubbock schools, are charged with supervision of classroom instruction, planning in-service teacher training, and determining instruction policies.

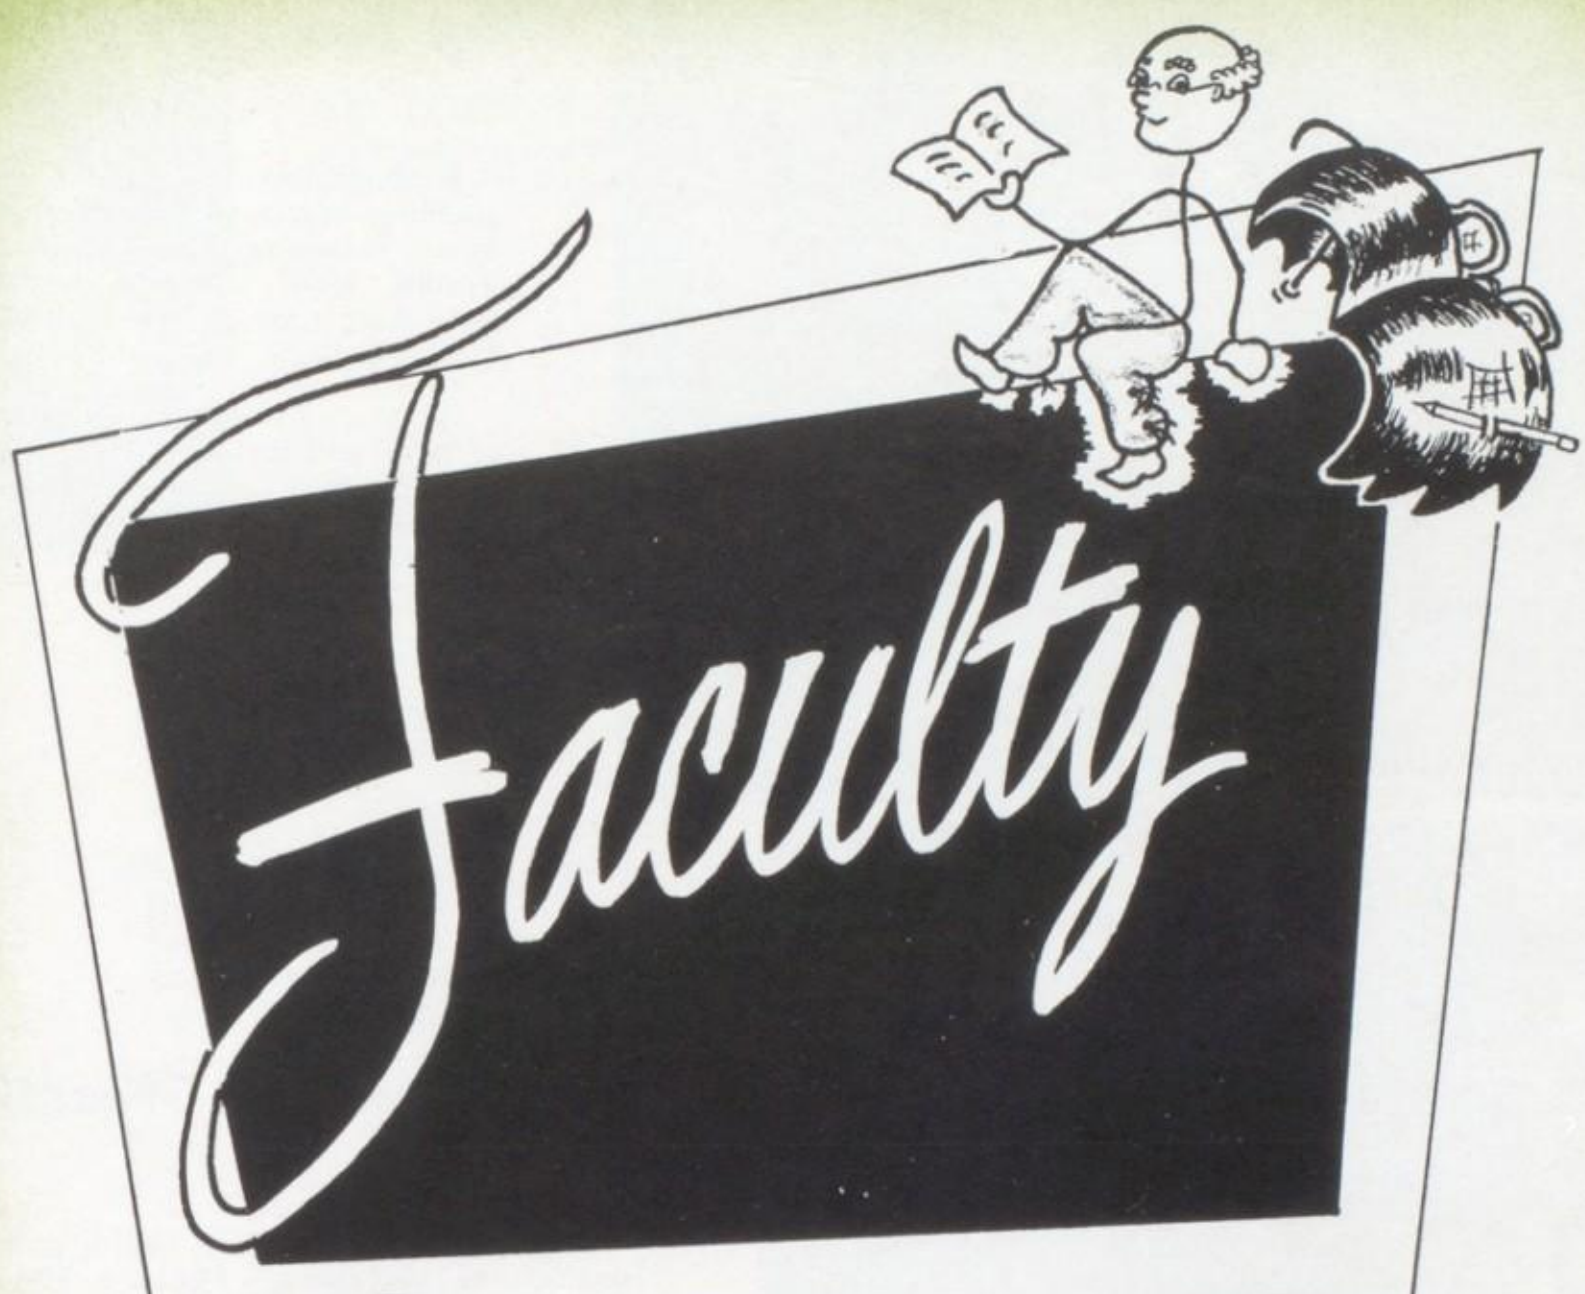
Gordon, Reed Lead Students, Faculty

In the two years that they have been at Lubbock High School, Mr. Jay E. Gordon, principal, and Mr. E. W. "Tebo" Reed, assistant principal, have worked hand in hand supervising our school.

These two men held similiar positions át J. T. Hutchinson prior to coming to Lubbock High.

Their many duties include directing the teachers, over-seeing all extracurricular activities, carrying out plans made by the school board, checking the enrollment and dropping of students, and looking after student activity funds.

Mr. Gordon and Mr. Reed have worked diligently with the faculty and students, and have proven themselves true Westerners in every way.



Faculty

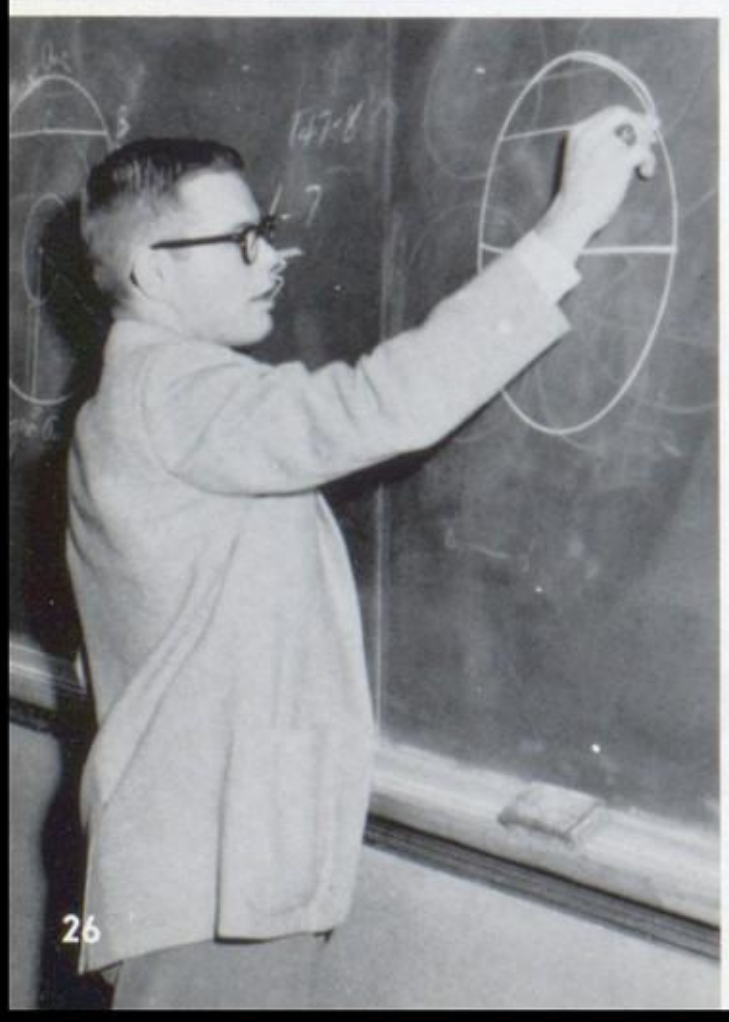
They Serve the Students

With pleasant smiles and understanding hearts, Mr. Vernon Odom, boys' counselor, and Mrs. Ethel Terrell, girls' counselor, willingly give their time to the students of Lubbock High.

In the two years they have served as boys' and girls' counselors, many students have come to them with their troubles and received sound, helpful advice.

Nurse Promotes Health

Keeping up-to-date on the health problems of the students of Lubbock High, Mrs. Era Ford, school nurse, is shown giving the Massachusetts Visual Test to Romona Pfingsten. This is only one of the means of determining the needs of the students.



New Faces Around LHS

A new face around Lubbock High is Mr. Bobby Ray Crawford. Coming here in January to take the place of Mr. Alton Cotton, he teaches plane geometry and is co-sponsor of Hi-Y.

WHO: Mr. Jay E. Gordon, principal of Lubbock High School.
WHAT: Proved that teachers are just people by donning a big false nose—complete with glasses and an oversized Stetson.
WHEN: On a Saturday morning.
WHERE: At school.
WHY: For a few minutes break from the routine to play a joke on the unsuspecting Mr. Reed, assistant principal, by asking where he could find the principal.

We Are Indebted to Our Special Employees . . .

Mrs. Ivey G. Warren, library assistant, and Mrs. Willie Clark, head of the book binding department are shown examining books for necessary repairs. Their efficient work has kept our library in top condition.

Efficiency and smoothness of office operations are objectives of the office workers.

They are Mrs. James H. Tolson, bookkeeper; Miss Eldora Whitlock, records clerk; Mrs. Carnie McWhorter, attendance clerk; and Mrs. Robert Knight, secretary to the principal.

Some of their many responsibilities include keeping the books, keeping the records up-to-date, checking the attendance of the school, and working in the principal's office.

No Help Wanted . . .

"Don't need any help, thank you." This seems to be the thought of Galal Mahon as he adjusts Santa's beard. Santa is part of the Christmas door decorations.

Looking on are: Mr. Elwin Barnby, Mrs. John B. Wilson, and Coach James Cobb.

Reed, Barton vs. Rasor, Bullock

The old saying, "All work and no play" does not pertain to these Lubbock High faculty members as they take time off for a game of forty-two at the all-school party held December 14.

They are: Mrs. G. K. Bullock, Mrs. A. F. Rasor, Mr. E. W. Reed, Mr. G. K. Bullock, and Mr. Jack Barton.

Teachers Willingly Offer Assistance

Teachers Share In

"Don't be cruel!" may well have been the plea of Mr. Robert Knight as Mrs. Knight readily helps him pay his consequence on the Journalism Assembly. The theme of the assembly, directed by Mr. Gordon Downum, publications sponsor, was Truth or Consequences.

With coats, scarves, gloves, and Westerner enthusiasm, Mrs. Alfred McWhorter and Miss Eldora Whitlock attempt to keep warm at the Westerner-Palo Duro game in Amarillo.

Shown behind the bars are members of the faculty "chain gang" at the faculty get-acquainted tea. Those enjoying the tea are: Mrs. G. K. Bullock, Mr. Russell Wimberly, Mr. William Bowie, Mr. E. J. Lowrey, Mrs. Woodrow Dorsey, Mrs. Euna B. Watkins, Mr. Gordon Downum, and Mrs. A. F. Rasor. Hostesses are: Carol Wheeler and Winn Sue Sherrill.

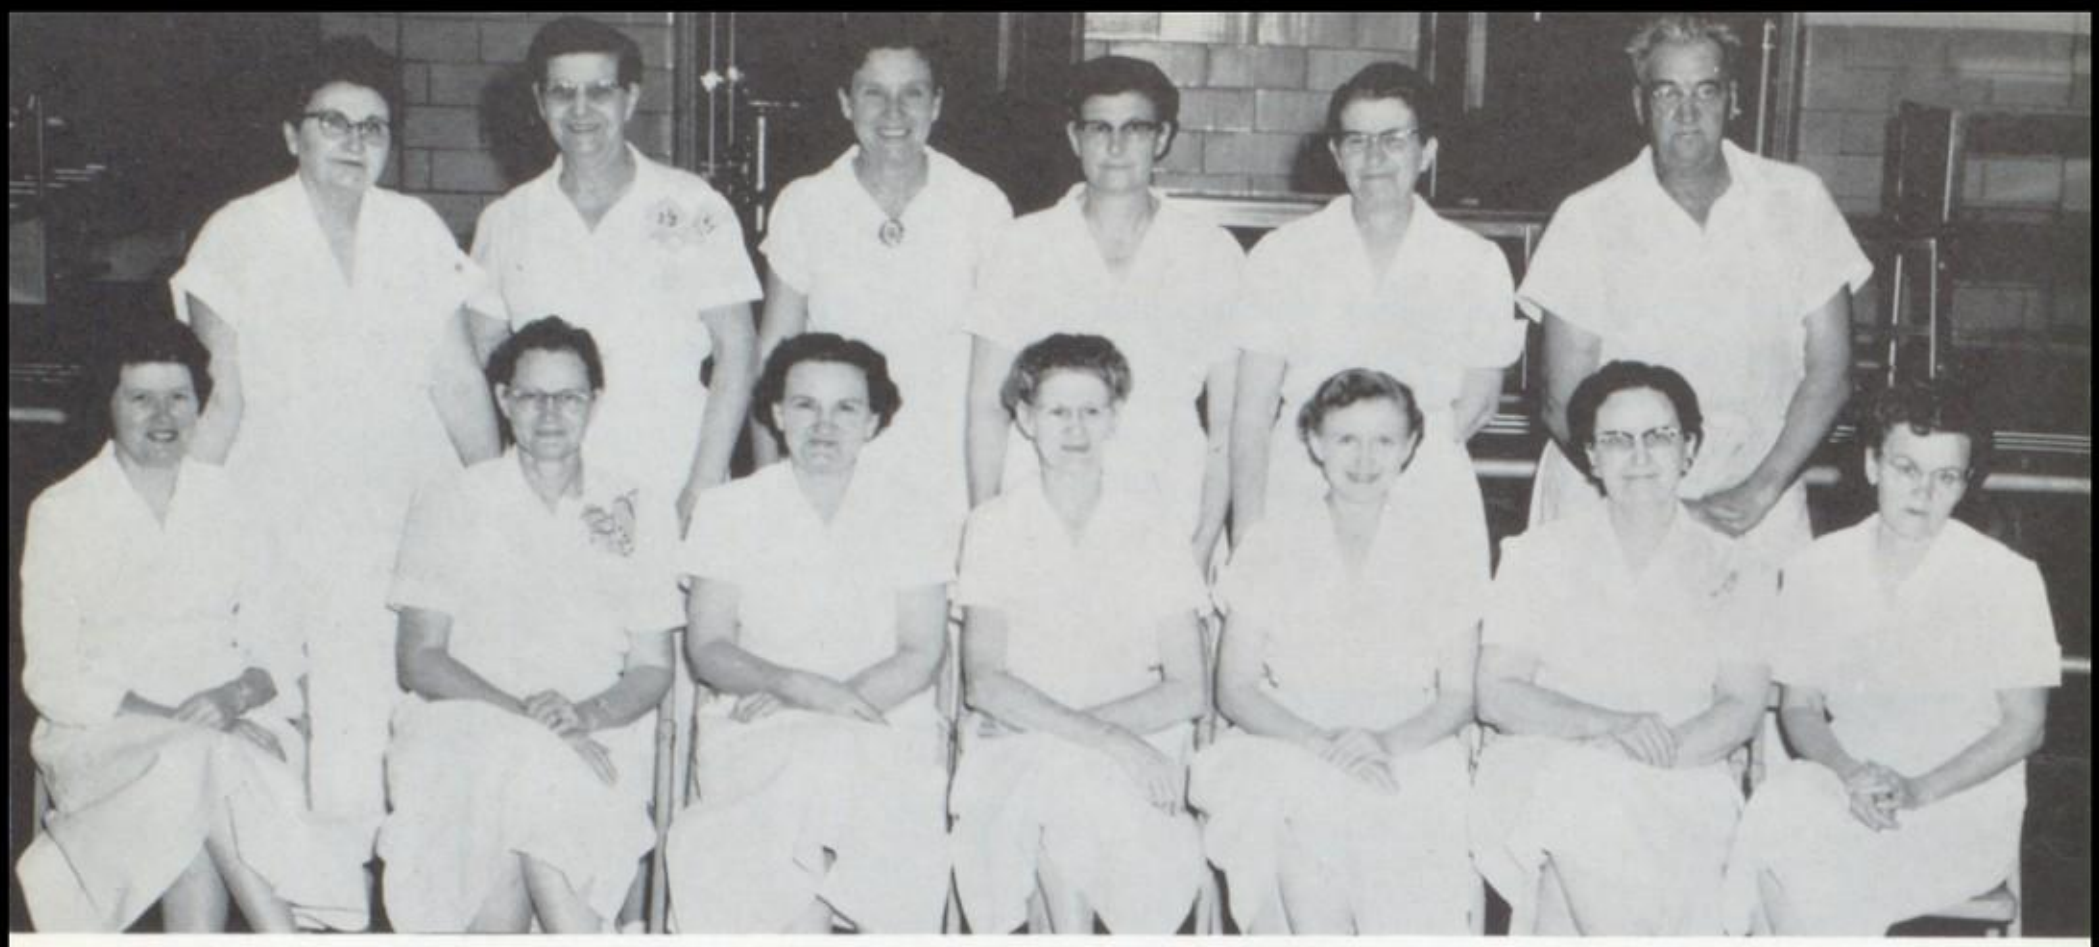
Varied Activities

Getting off to a good start after having just been voted Mr. and Miss Courtesy is Coach E. C. Leslie as he pushes the burdened Miss Laurene Bussey through the cafeteria door.

Fashions like these were examples of the attire that appeared at the Get Acquainted Tacky Party held by Y-Teens. They are: Miss Marietta Montgomery, appearing in a conservative afternoon dress; Miss Laurene Bussey, in the exquisite lounging attire; Mrs. Doyle Driver, holding the dainty dinner bag (feed sack); and Mrs. Doyle Brooks, clad in a distinguished suit with matching accessories.

Coaches Steal Show at Lavinrac

"Green Door, what's that secret you're keeping?" Those who attended the Senior Carnival discovered that these gorgeous queens, dancing the "Can Can," were behind the Green Door. They are: Coaches James Cobb, Grant Teaff, Ronald Robbins, Edgar Payne, Max O'Banion, and Jerry Crawford.



Their Services Enable Us to Study

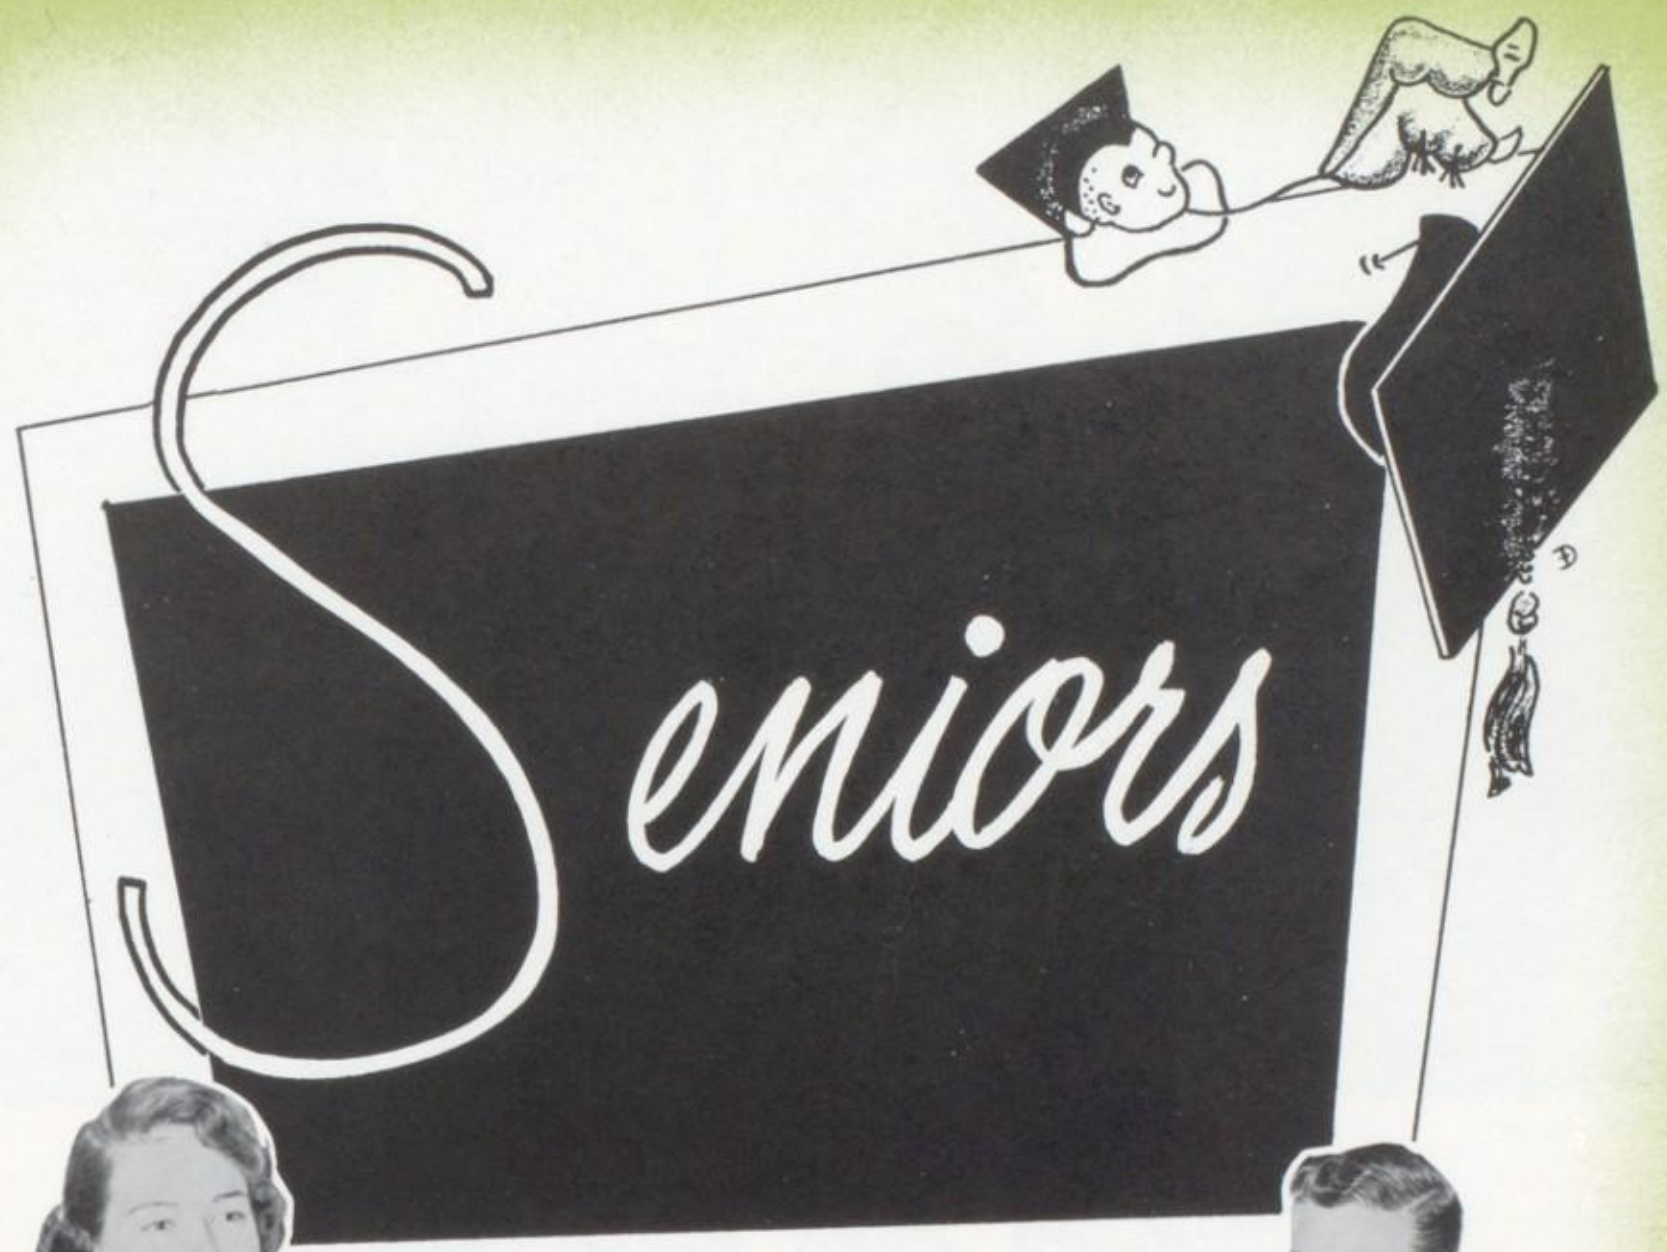
Preparing lunch each day for approximately three hundred fifty students, the cafeteria workers have succeeded in bringing well balanced meals to LHS students.

Sitting are: Mrs. Doris Earnest, supervisor; Mrs. Dessie Baker, Mrs. Lela Mayfield, Mrs. Lillie Boles, Mrs. Alene Carter, Mrs. Faye Price, and Mrs. L. S. Winn. Standing are: Mrs. Jewel Williams, Mrs. Fannie Jarrat, Mrs. Thelma Smith, Mrs. Clara Hartsfield, Mrs. Ida Waln, and Mr. Earl Crew.

Starting their busy day at 7 a.m. their many tasks include not only preparing meals for LHS students, but they also send food to five other Lubbock schools.

Cleaning up after 1,325 students is no easy job. At least, that is what the LHS custodians would say after sweeping 29,131 square feet of halls. This is a job that must be done about twice a day, five days a week. The well-kept halls and class rooms is one of the most noticeable characteristics of Lubbock High.

Before starting on their daily tasks, these efficient custodians take a few minutes for an early morning cup of coffee. They are: Mr. J. R. Key, Mr. Jim Brock, Mr. J. L. Price, Mrs. Grace Duncan, Mr. R. K. Smith, Mr. A. E. Mullins, Mr. U. B. McAninch, and Mr. A. J. Boyd.



Seniors

Students Lead Busy Seniors

Leading the senior class through their last year of high school activities are Jim Haynie, class president, and Sharon English, secretary, pictured on the preceding page. Jim presided over all class assemblies and also over the Senior Class Council. Keeping the minutes of the Senior Council and the All-School Council and keeping the attendance records of these councils were some of Sharon's duties. She also handled all the correspondence of the senior class.

Working with the president and secretary in taking care of the activities of the senior class are its six vice presidents. With Jim and Sharon, they planned class parties, assemblies, westerner carnival, the class play, Lavinrac Renretsew, and Kid Day. Also included in their projects were the senior gift selection, class banquet, and senior day.

As members of the Senior Class Council, the vice presidents reported Student Council activities to their homerooms, reported to the Class Council the activities of the All-School Council, and served on various Student Council committees.

EDDIE JOE BRADFORD—Editor of the '57 Westerner, Eddis has been outstanding as a leader in the Publications Department and has spent many after school hours working to meet annual deadlines. She also served as president of Splash or Splatter Art Club.

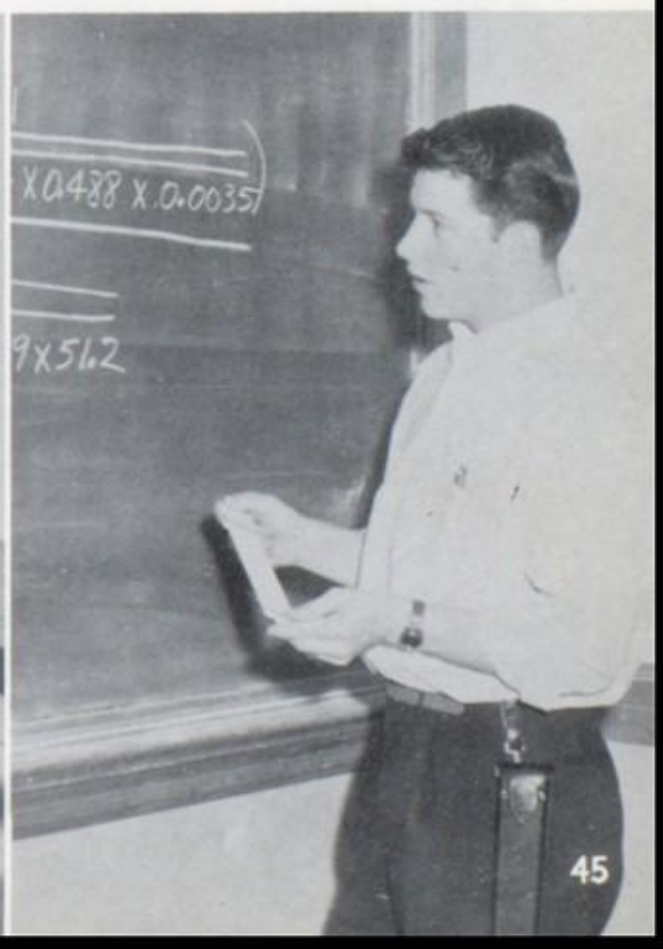
CELIA BURNETT — January Girl of the Month, Celia was active in Student Council work and was editor of the Who's Who. She was publicity chairman for both Y-Teens and S.C. and secretary of the Spanish Club.

15 Senior Leaders on Who's Who

DICK BURR—President of N.H.S. the second semester and holding offices in other clubs, Dick is a three year letterman in tennis, captain of the tennis team, and high scholastically.

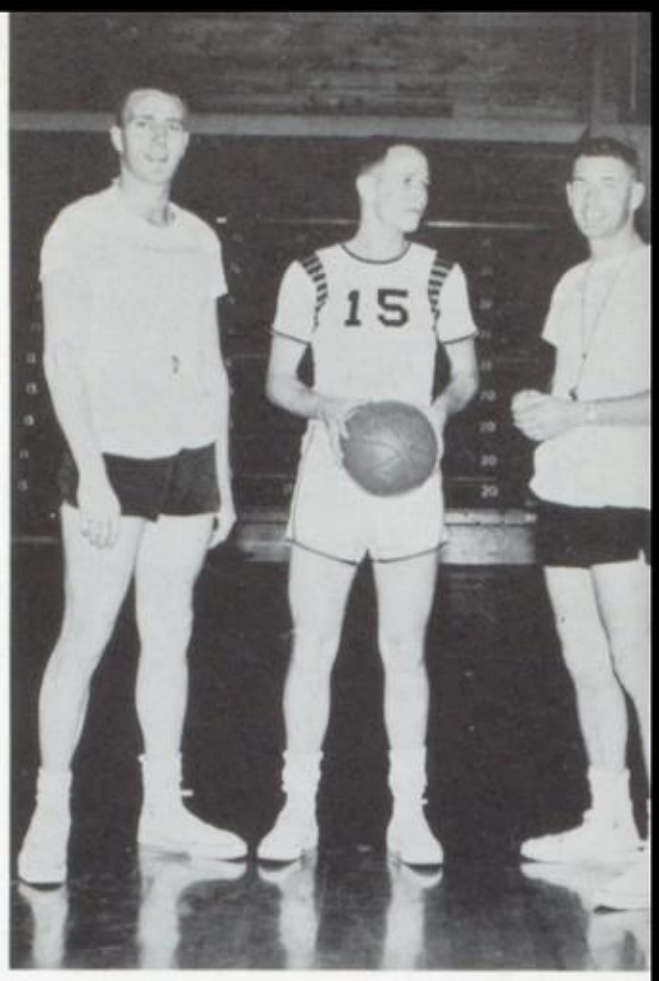
ELSA DOCKRAY—An outstanding art student, Elsa served as Art Editor of the yearbook staff. She also designed the cover for the Who's Who and served on publicity committee of both Y-Teens and the Student Council.

FRED FOLLOWILL—Outstanding in slide rule and showing great ability in math, Fred is president of Engineers Club and a member of N.H.S. He was also chosen December Junior Rotarian and attended Boys' State for 1956.



DALE HALFORD — President of N.H.S., Dale was also selected as Mr. Future Teacher of LHS and November Junior Rotarian. He has shown much ability in music, making All-State Orchestra for three years, and is a member of the Lubbock Symphony.

SCOTT MACK — President of T.N.T. and treasurer of N.H.S. the first semester, Scott was also chosen as the Junior Rotarian for January. He is captain of the Westerner basketball team and a class vice president.



CAROL McWILLIAMS — March Girl of the Month, Carol has been active in F.T.A. and N.H.S., serving as president and secretary, respectively.

Seniors Abilities,

These 15 seniors were chosen by a student-teacher committee from an approximate list of 65 nominees.

LA RUE MAULDIN— Serving as head cheerleader, La Rue has done much in the promotion of school spirit this year at pep rallies and games. As a student body officer, she is chairman of the courtesy committee.

BARBARA MILLER — As editor of the Westerner World, Barbara has capably fulfilled her responsibilities to the student body. December Girl of the Month, she also served as president of Quill and Scroll.

MARY PFINGSTEN — Chosen for her outstanding musical talent, Mary, as a member of Westernaires, has sung the lead in two operettas, and she made the All-State Chorus in 1956.

MIKE RATLIFF — Pioneer, Cowhand, and Westerner manager, Mike also does outstanding work in chemistry. He also holds various club offices and was a Career's Day chairman.

Chosen for Services

They were selected on the basis of being outstanding in at least one field and possessing characteristics of a good Westerner.

PEGGY ROGERS — April Girl of the Month, active in both orchestra and Westernaires, Peggy was chosen as one of the commencement speakers for the graduation exercises.

WINN SHERRILL — Being Student Body Secretary, Winn participates in many student council activities. She is active in school plays, was chosen as one of the commencement speakers, and served as September Girl of the Month.

SUZANNE STAFFORD — Very outstanding scholastically, Suzanne has made all "A's" during her three high school years. She served as May Girl of the Month and secretary of N.H.S. the first semester.

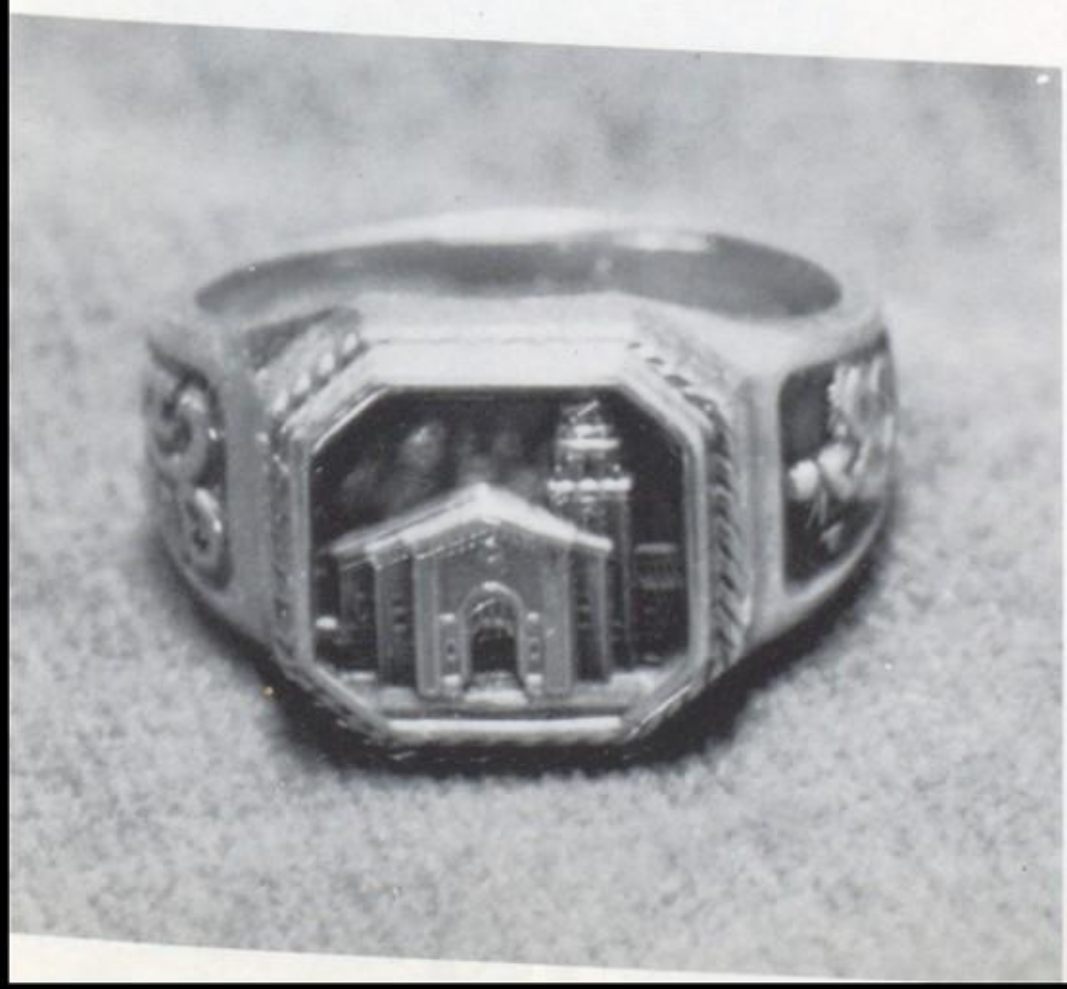
Study Hall? No, Hall Study is more desirable to these busy seniors. Shown cramming for tomorrows exams are Judy Froman, Billy Blann, and Barbara Reeves.

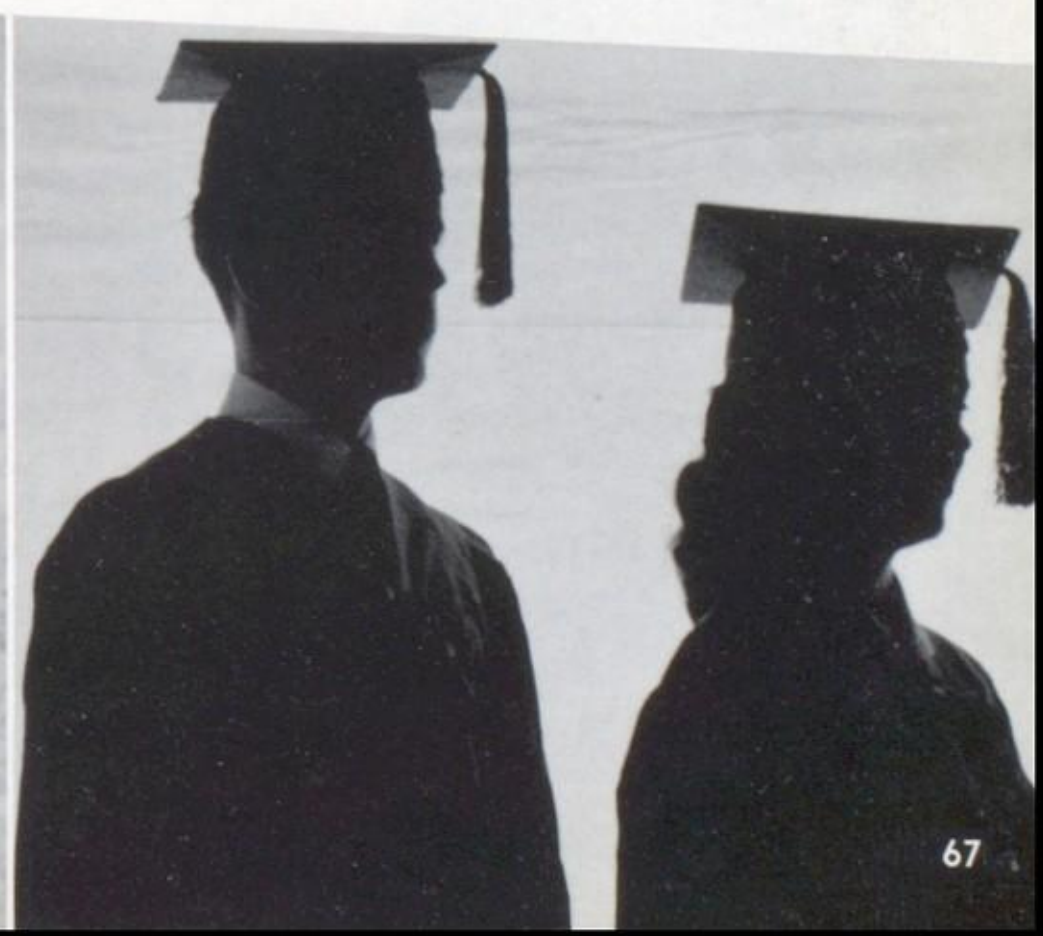
Home on the range are Carey Spikes, Mike Hendon, and Dickie Hunter as they bravely prepare to sample a piece of cake they made in the boys' cooking class.

Memories Are Made of Things Like This

Featuring a picture of Lubbock High cut from an authentic photograph, the senior ring represents 12 years of hard work to seniors. Having an antique finish for the first time this year, the ring is engraved with the Westerner emblem on one side, while the other side features the initials, LHS.

With feelings of mingled joy and sorrow, the seniors of 1957 look back on the fun they have had in LHS and forward to the promising life ahead. These students will always remember the motto, "Once a Westerner, always a Westerner."





They're Kids Again

Surprise is registered on the face of Mr. E. W. Reed as "kiddies" Doris Duran and Don Craig try to enroll in LHS. Dressed in their Kid Day costumes, they do appear a little young for high school students.

"Little kids" Jack Douglas, Richard Webb, and Mike Ratliff try their hand at a game of jacks (supposedly a girl's game) in front of the school on Kid Day.

A hot game of "cat's eye" marbles keeps Jo Ann Shipman, Linda Hufstedler and Kay Myers busy on Kid Day.

As teenagers share sodas, so kids share lollipops. Seen sharing a lollipop are Beth Franks and Coy Gilliam.

Kid Day, an annual event in LHS, comes on or around April 1. On this date seniors dress in kid costumes and bring their stuffed animals, lollipops, and sling-shots to school for one day of "kids" fun. A party is held after school on Kid Day. The "kids" play games like Flying Dutchman and London Bridge. A film of previous Kid Days climaxes the activities of Kid Day.

Eight Vice Presidents Plan Junior Activities

Entering Jones Stadium to attend the Westerner-Sandie football game are the junior vice-presidents. They are Sara Chumley, Jimmy Oldham, Carolyn Witt, John Bashore, Hinda Kahn, Myrl Raines, and Tommy Herrington.

Vice president DeWitt Weaver, Jr., Westerner quarterback, is not pictured due to his participating in the game.

The vice presidents of the classes perform various duties, such as overseeing parties, assemblies, the Junior-Senior Prom, and other activities that juniors participate in.

These students qualified by getting forty of their classmates' signatures on their petitions.

Chosen for their superior accomplishments throughout the year, 11 students were chosen to serve as the Junior Class Who's Who.

Outstanding Juniors Chosen to Who's Who

JOHNNY WEBB—President of Junior Class, President of Inter-School Citizenship Council, LHS Band vice president, and delegate to TASC.

Sophomores

Officers Lead New Westerners

In contrast to the picture above, the vice presidents are shown relaxing in the kiddie corner of a local super market. Reading comic books is just one of the ways that they can relieve the strain of the normal routine of school. Cary is playing with a toy gun while Pam prepares to hit him over the head with a shaker.

With an approximate count of 501, the Sophomore Class has 12 members on the Who's Who. Because of their outstanding achievements during the year, they were chosen by a committee of students and teachers from a list of 31 sophomores nominated by the faculty.

They are Doyle Williams, Neal Parker, Jerry Parsons, Phyllis Elliott, Ellen Hendrix, Judy Pendergraft, Roxie Ohlenbusch, Dick Cashion, Kay McCorkle, Pam Hearn, Hank Hunt, and Carolyn Horschler.

Twelve Elected to Sophomore Who's Who

DOYLE—Sophomore vice president, Student Council and Morning Watch worker, honor roll student.

NEAL—High ranking scholastically and outstanding in number sense.

JERRY—Sophomore president, Westerner basketball player and outstanding scholastically.

PHYLLIS—Sophomore cheerleader, class vice president, and active member of Westerner staff.

ELLEN—Sophomore A cappella choir, FFA sweetheart, and guidance president.

JUDY—Accompanist for Harmonaires, guidance secretary and alternate representative to class council.

ROXIE—Club editor of Westerner World, active in clubs, honor roll student.

DICK—Sophomore vice president, Westerner football manager for next year, and member of Recreation Committee.

KAY—Active in Y-Teens and Thalian Theater, member of class council, and outstanding scholastically.

PAM—Sophomore vice president, member of Inter-School Citizenship Council, guidance president.

HANK—Sophomore vice president and active in radio speech and Sophomore activities.

Before school starts, students can study in the cafeteria as these sophomores are supposedly doing, or they can come in just to get out of the cold. Students can even have a hasty breakfast of milk and a doughnut while waiting for the bell.

Sophomores Learn LHS Traditions

In front of a giant replica of the Westerner Ways handbook are George French, Wyane Feazel, and Rosie Campos. These sophomores, as all students entering LHS for the first time, are trying to learn more about the ways and customs of a Westerner.

Jimmy Austin takes advantage of TWIRP Week by making Wanda Brown carry his heavy notebook and open the door for him. Since TWIRP Week comes only once a year, Wanda doesn't seem to mind. Besides, this is the girls' chance to grab that long-awaited date.

Varied Activities Keep Students Busy

Along with regular school lessons, Lubbock High students find many extracurricular activities to break the monotony of the school day. Some of these activities include bus trips to out-of-town games, pep rallies, club activities, choirs, band, and contests of various kinds.

The attendance office was a busy place the first day of school, September 5th. Mr. Gordon and Mr. Reed were on duty from early until late taking care of usual opening-week problems.

Typical of students taking out-of-town bus trips are Zan Smith, John Bashore, Jettie Evans, Judy Jenkins, Nancy Cochran, and Glenda Stewart. They are boarding the bus to the Ft. Worth, North Side game.

W . . E . . S . . Giving the Westerner pledge over the football players' heads was a typical scene at the pep rallies. With the cheerleaders leading and the band playing, much enthusiasm was shown at the pep rallies this year.

MHS, LHS Exchange Friendship Plaques

"Laying the law down" to Bill Stovall, Loren Langston, Bill Robinson, and Ronnie McClellan is Mr. Homer Garrison, city policeman. Mr. Garrison served as the school's patrolman after the retirement of Mr. Mark "Pop" McCurry last year.

Miss Laurene Bussey's sophomore homeroom 102 won first place in the Christmas door decoration contest. Shown admiring their work are Lavern Loving, Nancy Roberson, Bill Johnson, and Bill Stringham, kneeling.

Dancing to a fast number at the all-school Christmas party are Kaye Edwards and Doyle Gammill and Johnny Webb and Gertie La Bauve. The party carried out a winter wonderland theme, and it was the first all-school party of the year.

Before the Monterey-Lubbock football game, friendship plaques were exchanged between the two schools. Mike Robinson, president of the LHS student body, and Delia Close, secretary of the MHS student body, exchange the plaques as other officers of the two schools look on. Pictured from Monterey are Pat Hawkins, Linda Jobb, and Morris Sheats. From Lubbock High are Walter Taylor, La Rue Mauldin, Winn Sherrill, and Carol Wheeler.

Student Body Officers Head School Activities

Leading the student body through a very active year are the five student body officers — Mike Robinson, president; Winn Sue Sherrill, secretary; Walter Taylor, vice president; Carol Wheeler, treasurer; and La Rue Mauldin, head cheerleader. These students planned and directed all student activities from August through May.

Special activities of the officers this year included planning a Student Council workshop a week before school started to help prospective Student Council members learn more about their work. They served as members of a committee with Monterey's officers to create friendly rivalry and good sportsmanship between the two high schools. Planning the morning devotions and having a tea for teachers the day before school opened were also included in their activities.

Representatives Report Activities

Along with the class vice presidents, the representatives elected from each homeroom belong to the class councils. Not only do they promote activities of benefit and interest to the student body and school, but they also promote friendly relations between our schools and our neighbors. Their main duty is to keep the homerooms notified on Student Council activities.

Committees

Officers of the Inter-School Citizenship Committee from Lubbock High School are: Kaye Edwards, parliamentarian; Johnny Webb, president; and Carol Cromer, vice president. The Inter-school Citizenship Council is in charge of the Halloween Telethon and of Youth Week.

Representatives of Lubbock High School who attend the Inter-School Citizenship Council meetings are: Celia Burnett, senior; Pam Hearn, sophomore; Johnny Oldham, junior; and Donna Beth Dunn, junior. Not shown is Senior Scott Mack. These students were elected in the fall by the officers of each class. They attend all class council meetings.

Making a traffic survey for the Safety Committee are George Smith, Mickey McDonald, Chairman Walter Taylor, and Carolyn Zachery. The survey was made to check speeding, running of red lights, and breaking of traffic rules in general. The safety committee is also responsible for two assemblies each year.

Working diligently at making signs are members of the publicity committee. Shown are: Carol McWilliams, Chairman Celia Burnett, Barbara Miller, Jane Adamson, and Alice Orr. On the back row are: George French, Tommy Herrington, Suzanne Stafford, Pam Hearn, and Kaye Edwards.

Do SC Work

Carol Cromer and Evelyn Howard listen attentively as Becky Allen, president of the Lubbock Scholastic Press Association, reads a report at the second press conference of the year. Mr. Gordon Downum, publications director of Lubbock High, was the speaker.

Selling programs to fellow members of the courtesy committee are: Cary Marshall and Chairman La Rue Mauldin. Just coming into Chapman Field House are Johnny Webb, Ann Wilhite, Jimmy Haynie, and Pat Tucker. The courtesy committee is in charge of Black and Gold Day, the night pep rally, Courtesy Week, and courtesy throughout the school.

Shown packing decorations for the all school party held in December are: Hinda Kahn, Don Sledge, Chairman Carol Wheeler, Johnny Oldham, and Nancy Adams. The recreation committee is in charge of Round-Up, all school parties, and after-game parties.

Unpacking Christmas decorations that are to be hung in the halls are: Preston Maynard, Elizabeth Holgate, Mary Jane Cashion, and Chairman Jimmy Oldham. The plant and decoration committee is in charge of the plants in the school, cleaning out the display case and taking care of the school's general appearance.

Round-Up Party Held on Saturday

With approximately five hundred eighty teachers, students, and friends in attendance, the '57 Round-Up activities got underway at 5:30 Saturday, March 9.

To top off an evening of fun, some of the cowboys and their gals met in the cafeteria to square dance, while others were in the auditorium watching western movies.

To start the activities a chuck wagon supper was served in the boys' gym by a local catering service.

After the supper everyone went to the auditorium where contest winners, wranglers, and favorites were presented. Contest winners were Ouida Deatherage, program cover, and C. L. Eudy, poster. A western hit parade was given following the announcement of Round-Up favorites.

Career Carnival First for LHS

Career Days were held February 11 and 15 for seniors. Twenty-nine vocations were discussed by leaders in the various fields.

Climaxing the careers program was the Career Carnival February 18. This was a first for LHS, and believed to be one of the very few in the nation. Twenty-seven area industries prepared exhibits and all students were permitted to view them and ask questions. Parents were invited.

Shown at lower right is the Careers Planning Committee. Heading the project were Mr. Vernon Odom and Mrs. Ethel Terrell, shown seated with Principal Jay Gordon. Other members, standing, were Mr. Gordon Downum, Linda Hufstedler, Mike Ratliff, Miss Marietta Montgomery, and Mrs. Virginia Landwer.

Assembly Programs Entertai

A variety of assembly programs were presented to LHS students during 1956-57. Programs included plays from the speech department, the school's choirs, speeches from outstanding individuals, paid assemblies, student productions, and programs from other schools.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes presented a program featuring three Tech athletes. Taking part on the program were Wick Alexander, the Rev. Jack Gray, Frank Wright, and Milton "Rabbit" Vaughn.

Dr. Willis A. Sutton, widely known educational lecturer, spoke in Lubbock High School for the sixth consecutive year October 29. Getting acquainted with Dr. Sutton are: Kay Catt, Johnny and Jimmy Oldham, and Winn Sue Sherrill.

"Thankful Hearts" was presented by Thalian Theater members for the Thanksgiving assembly November 28. Pictured are Barbara Reeves, Judy Clark, Frances Fredenburg, and Elizabeth Holgate.

Acting out the nativity scene as the Westernaires sing Christmas carols are members of the speech department. They are: Hinda Kahn, Johnny Oldham, Jimmy Oldham, Preston Maynard, and Edward Vaughn. The angels are: Bettye Jane Fite, Sheila Cline, and Nancy Cochran.

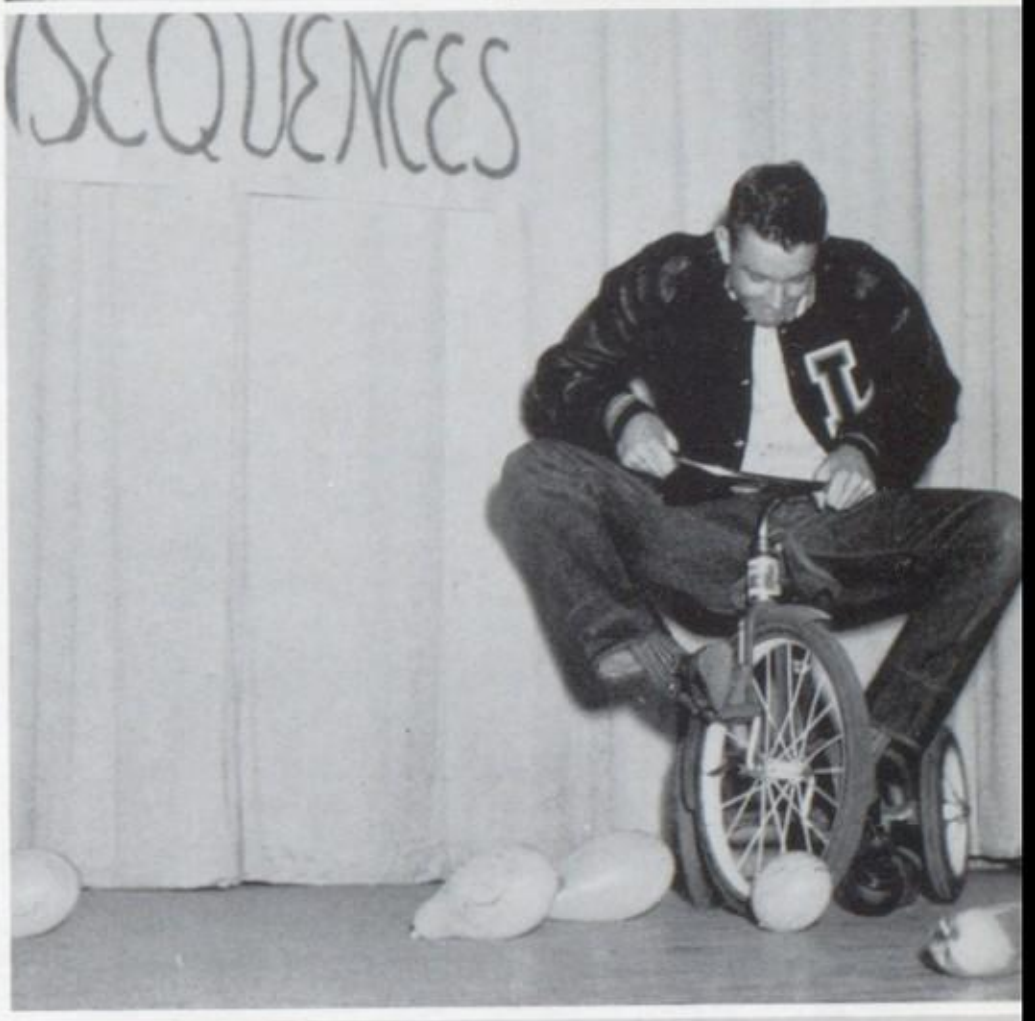
LHS Students

"Masquerade in Vienna," a special paid assembly sponsored by the Student Council, was presented by the A Cappella Choir November 20. All members of the choir took part in the student operetta with Rodney Hill, Kay Catt, Carey Spikes, and Mary Pfingsten taking the leading rolls. Pictured is a scene from the first act.

Since Max Hood was unable to answer his question taken from the Westerner World at the publications "Truth or Consequence" assembly, he had to pay a consequence. He is pictured trying to break balloons while riding a tricycle.

"The Squires," a boys' quartet from the Texas Tech Choir, sing a comical number at the assembly given by the group in January. Led by Dr. Gene Hemmle, the choir included in their program "Battle of Jericho," "Poly Woly Doodle," and the "Westerner Call to Loyalty."

Pantomiming "Juke Box Saturday Night" at a paid assembly are: Larry Kelly, Johnny Bowser, and Dean Robertson. They also pantomimed such songs as "Mule Train," "Tiger Rag," and "Old Black Magic."



Westerner World Informs Students

Containing coming events, coverage of events, student opinions, praiseworthy comments, features, sports events, club news, editorial comment and advertising, the WESTERNER WORLD is published every other week. Columns such as "Teen Talk," "Dust and Dirt," "Wes Nur," and "Current Events," are featured in the paper this year. Mr. Gordon Downum, new journalism teacher and publications director, sponsors the WESTERNER WORLD.

With pleased smiles and looks of relief on their faces, Becky Allen, associate editor, and Barbara Miller, editor, relax after school to look at the last edition of the WESTERNER WORLD.

Working hard on page layouts and stories they need to write for the next edition are Tiwana Coffey, exchange editor; Carol Gromer, sports editor; Roxie Ohlenbusch, club editor; and Ann Wilhite, feature editor.

The business staff of the WESTERNER WORLD is busy planning advertising layouts for the paper. Seated are Barbara Thompson, advertising manager, and Joe Mauldin, salesman. Giving their ideas on the subject are, standing, Eva Campos, circulation manager; Sherry Holloman, bookkeeper for both the WESTERNER WORLD and WESTERNER; and Perry Bridges, salesman.

Any reader finding his name misspelled in the WESTERNER WORLD can colect a free coke from the reporter who wrote the story. Receiving a coke from Becky Allen is Mr. Robert Knight as he points to his misspelled name in the paper.

After 100 inches of a staff member's copy has been published, he or she is referred to as a special reporter. Special reporters are pictured looking over a few of the fifty exchange papers the WESTNERNER WORLD receives. They are Charlotte McMillan, Gary Cunningham, Jo Long, and Karen Wood.

Looking at the picture at right, one would never guess these boys do any work. However, they do, occasionally, because they are responsible for taking the pictures used in the WESTERNER WORLD and WESTERNER. They are David Ramsey, Wally Jackson, Hartwell Hamilton, and Zan Smith.

Mr. Downum, center, points out a mistake in an edition of the paper to Wayne Duane, typist; Wanda Welch, cub reporter; Suzanne McNeil, typist, and Betty Drury, cub reporter. The staff always strives to put out a better paper than the one published before.

Westerner Gets New Publisher

Having to learn a new method of preparing pages for the annual due to the change in publishers was a big job for the annual staff this year. In the new method, the staff didn't have to mount their own pictures. Planning and taking pictures, drawing layouts, writing copy, selling ads, and drawing the art work for the '57 WESTERNER kept the staff busy, however. The staff also joked that becoming accustomed to their new sponsor, Mr. Gordon Downum, was a big job in itself.

Interested in the point Mr. Downum is making are: Mary Ann Smalley, associate editor, and Eddie Joe Bradford, editor.

Writing names on copy sheets proved to be quite a job for the sophomore section. Completing this job are: Doris Kelley, Phyllis Elliott, Beverly Haggard, and Suzanne Stafford, editor.

Getting some ideas for snaps for the senior section in a past WESTERNER are Celia Burnett and Editor Kay Myers. Kay also served as advertising manager.

Staff Members Depict Activities

The main job of the WESTERNER staff was to depict the activities of the school year. Many before and after school hours were spent in taking pictures and getting pages ready for the printer.

Designing and drawing the art work for the '57 WESTERNER was the job of the art staff. Seated are: Elsa Dockray, art editor; Miss Mary Wilson, sponsor; and Ouida Deatherage. Standing are: C. L. Eudy, Dick Byrd, Tommy Bacon, and Spurgeon Strandtmann. These students met with Miss Wilson third period MWF to do their work.

The sport section is shown typing copy on the copy sheets. Getting some help from Mike Hendon, editor, and Donald Weldon are Karen Wood and Mickey McDonald.

Scrutinizing their snap pictures for the faculty section are Frances Fredenburg, Sarah Webb, and Marilyn Smith, editor. These three staff members were responsible for the 21 pages of the faculty section. Additional time and effort went into this section because of the "on the job" pictures of the teachers.

Taking a coke break after school are staff members of the activity and club sections. They are: Carolyn Witt, and Linda Hufstedler, activities; and Jane Livermore, Marilyn Gollihugh, Letha Jean Price, editor, and Evelyn Howard, of clubs.

Westernaires Headlines

A Cappella officers are elected at the first of the year by popular vote of the choir. These officers take care of the robes and music and see that the risers are set up when needed. Pictured are: Kathleen Robinson, accompanist. First row: Mrs. Everett Carver, director; Peggy Rogers, robe custodian; Mary Patrick, librarian; Martha White, secretary; Tiwana Coffey, reporter. Second row: Roy Dean Furgerson, Vera Moize, Geraldine Gowens, Jimmy Isham, Emily Cardwell, Christi Nevitt, John O'Haugherty. Third row: Bob Hunt, Favonia Dial, Wanda Dye, Costa Dunias, Sue Trummel, Lynda Farris, David Hoover. Fourth row: Ronnie McClellen, Kay Catt, Billy Johnson, Rodney Clark, Peggy Rogers, Martha White, Scott Mack.

School's Vocal Groups

In November the Westernaires presented an operetta, "Masquerade in Vienna," in which every member of the choir took part. Numerous other activities include performing for civic clubs, assemblies, caroling during Christmas, and singing at graduation exercises.

Each year many of the students who are members of the Westernaires try out for All-State Choir, but only a few of them are chosen to receive this honor. Pictured are the students from Lubbock High School who went to Dallas in February for the All-State Choir meet. They are, back row: Marion John, Glen Burns, Robert Walkup, Ronnie McClellen. Front row: Ben Valdez, Bethelyne Rogers, and Billy Davis. Not pictured is Mike Farris.

Leading the Harmonaires in their activities are the officers, guided by Mrs. Everett Carver. They are: Mrs. Carver, director; Sara Young, president; Louise Melton, vice president; Maxie Ledbetter, vice president; Kay McKinley, recreational chairman; Kay Carmickle, recreational chairman; Julia Knox, secretary; Loye Carver, librarian; Theada Putman, librarian; and Judy Pendergraft, accompanist.

Harmonaires Give Various Performances

Performing for civic clubs and assemblies and caroling at Christmas are a few of the activities of the Harmonaires, directed by Mrs. Everett Carver. The choir is composed of junior and senior girls. First row: Jerry Sandlin, Anita Cadena, Judy Pendergraft, Alice Jane Veazey, Louise Melton, and Loye Carver. Second row: Mary Ayers, Julia Knox, Dana White, Carolyn Beevers, Pat Nichols, and Theada Putman. Third row: Nancy Pilkinton, Mary Thornton, Patsy Yeary, Mary Ellen Barker, Kay McKinley, and Kay Carmickle. Fourth row: Elaine John, Joyce Odorizzi, Nancy Swofford, Maxie Ledbetter, Gail Martin, Ann Headstream, and Sara Young. Not pictured are: Juanita Davis, Cathy Smith, Kay Eller, Wanda London, Gwen Earl, Deanna Davis, Genevie Horton, Jayne Young, Mary Lynn Morris, and Paulette Meecham.

Sophomore Choirs Under New Direction

Under the new direction of Mrs. Elwyn Morton are the Sophomore A Cappella and the Sophomore Girls' Choir. They are, top row: Hartly, Cone, Warren, Grimes, Coronado, Goad, Eakle, Marshall, Thrush, McAllister, Davison, Rayburn, Tipps. Third row: Hubbard, Adams, Hobbs, Huddleston, Smallin, Gardner, Puckett, Walkup, Huff, Jones, Cline, Gonzales, Smith. Second row: Fox, Lemon, Waggner, Harris, Cannon, J. Cannon, Mayes, Dawson, Lawson, Hendrix, McNeil, Combs, Evans. Bottom row: Scott, Newson, Carnes, Jernigan, Groseclose, Bumpass, Deering, Edwards, Maxey, and Mack. Not pictured are: Taylor, Reyna, Carr, Pruitt, Neill, Ellis, and Gross.

LHS Band School

Marching in front of the band this year were Mary Alice McElwee, Rosemary Kay, head majorettes; Doyle Gammill, drum major; Harolene Dane, and Carolyn Davis, majorettes.

Strains of music could often be heard coming from the band hall as the 1956-57 Westerner Band practiced for their many performances. With their lively music the band was "instrumental" in boosting school spirit at pep rallies, football games, and home basketball games. Presenting two concerts, an assembly program, and entering the Interscholastic band contest were also included in the band's activities for the year. Mr. Paul Branom directed the band for his ninth year.

Boosts Spirit

Planning and directing the Westerner Band's activities this year were the nine officers and sponsor pictured. They are, first row: Dan Ehrhorn, reporter; Bill Case, president; Mary Alice McElwee, social chairman; Doyle Gammill, drum major. Second row: Bobby Daniels, parliamentarian; Judy Sliter, treasurer; Lynn Powell, secretary; Johnny Webb, vice president; Dean Breedlove, dog catcher. Mr. Branom, sponsor, is standing.

Eleven Make All-State Band

All-State Band members and alternates from LHS get together to talk about their plans to attend the state band clinic February 15-17 in Dallas. Seated on the floor are: Stanley Mitchell, Doyle Gammill, and John Walker. Others are Margie Higgins, Kathleen Robinson, Judy Sliter, Donna Robinson, Lynn Powell, John Bashore, Bill Case, and Dan Ehrhorn. Judy, Kathleen, and Doyle were all-state members while the others were alternates.

The 90-piece Westerner Band makes a formation of a baby carriage at the Amarillo-Lubbock football game. Many hours were spent by band members in practicing the formations they made at football games.

With time out on the playing field, the band members seem to find 90 different ways to occupy themselves. In a moment, student director Doyle Gammill will come out of his hypnotic trance, raise the baton, and after much noise of hastily-turned music, the famous Westerner Band will begin to play.

Students making the All-State Orchestra from LHS are: Jane Ann Henry, Julia Mingus, Jimmy Pipkin, Dolores McKee, Bill Spain, and Dale Halford. Students were elected by a committee from the Texas Music Educators Association in Dallas on the basis of recordings.

Six Make All-State Orchestra

Providing music for the student operetta, "Masquerade in Vienna," entering the Interscholastic League music contest, and trying out for the All-State Orchestra highlighted the activities of the Lubbock High School Orchestra this year. Under the direction of Mrs. Ted Holland, the orchestra meets everyday in the bandroom second period.

"The Man," a two-act drama, was chosen for the Junior Play presented February 21-22. The plot revolved around Howard Wilton, the mentally unbalanced man whom Mrs. Gillis hired to help her with her housework. The play, directed by Mr. Paul Black, was unusual in that it had two endings.

The two leading parts, Mrs. Gillis and Howard Wilton, were double cast for the two nights' performances. Hinda Kahn and Jimmy Oldham played the parts the first nights, and Iris Dial and Johnny Oldham played the parts the second night.

Howard, Jimmy Oldham, threatens Mrs. Gillis, Hinda Kahn, to get rid of grocery boy, Rodney Florence, in the top right picture.

Mrs. Gillis, Iris Dial, receives some help with her housework from her roomer, Mr. Armstrong, Johnny Clemmons, as her niece Ruth, Sandra Smith, sits on the couch.

Frank, a friend of Mr. Armstrong played by Edward Vaughn, inquires about a room from Howard, Johnny Oldham, in the bottom picture.

As Henri Trochard, the family's uncle played by Chuck Dunn, reprimands his nephew Paul, Glen Burns, the three convicts represent "hear no evil," "speak no evil," and "see no evil." The convicts are Jules, Stanley Silverman; Joseph, Preston Maynard; and Alfred, Mike Abel.

Senior Play Is "My Three Angels"

A three-act comedy, "My Three Angels," was presented by the Senior Class April 11-12. The story concerned three convicts hired to repair the roof of the Ducotel's home in Cayenne, French Guiana. The convicts, played by Mike Abel, Stanley Silverman, and Preston Maynard, became interested and involved in helping the Ducotel family with their problems. The family consisted of Felix, Richard Webb; Emlie, Sharon English; and Mary Louise, Winn Sherrill. Others in the cast were Mme. Parole, Phoebe Proctor; Henri Trochard, the family's uncle, Chuck Dunn; Paul, Henri's nephew, Glen Burns; and the lieutenant, Jimmy Haynie.

Alfred, Mike Abel, carries Mary Louise, Winn Sherrill, after she fainted on hearing that Paul was to marry someone else. Mme. Parole, Phoebe Proctor, Felix, Richard Webb, and Emlie, Sharon English, look on in amazement.

Children's Theatre Presents Two Plays

The Children's Theatre gave two plays during the first semester of school. Directed by Mr. Paul Black, head of the speech department at Lubbock High School, the plays class worked hard, long hours to present the plays to the students of the primary schools.

Shown setting up props for the Children's Theatre are Phoebe Proctor, Rodney Florence, Sheila Cline, Johnny Oldham, and Jimmy Oldham. Props are as much a necessity for plays as the persons who perform in them.

The second play, "Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater," was held on January 8 and 9. Shown are Sue Hardy, Stanley Silverman, and Jettie Evans. Almost one thousand children and parents attended this play.

Shown fighting over the golden goose in the first play of the year, "The Crying Princess and the Golden Goose," are Jimmy Oldham, Stanley Silverman, Richard Webb, Rodney Florence, Diana Cox, and Betty Becker. This play was held on October 23 and 24.

NHS Undertakes Service Projects

Scraping gum from the classroom desks and the auditorium seats was one of the projects undertaken by the members of NHS. Work was done by the members after school and on Saturday mornings. Shown below at work are: Lila Ann Sandifer, project chairman; Carol McWilliams, Gail Westmoreland, and Hinda Kahn.

Activities for National Honor Society varied between service projects and a formal initiation. Service projects included selling football programs and cakes, and removing gum from desks and auditorium seats. The 53 members of NHS were presented pins which they are eligible to wear as long as they maintain the qualifications for membership in the club.

Membership in National Honor Society is based on scholarship, service, character, and leadership. The purpose of N.H.S. is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in pupils of Lubbock High School.

Officers of N.H.S. met before school to plan the activities of the club. First and second semester officers are Carol McWilliams and Suzanne Stafford, secretaries; Marion John, senior vice president; Mrs. Ethel Terrell, sponsor; Elsa Dockray, senior vice president; Tommy Herrington and Scott Mack, treasurers; Carolyn Abbott and LaRue Elliott, junior vice presidents. Seated are Dale Halford and Dick Burr, presidents.

F. H. A. Directed by 15 Officers

Having a gay time are Mrs. Johnny L. Dorsey, Miss Patricia McCutcheon, Mrs. G. K. Bullock, and Miss Vinnie Lewis, sponsors of the Future Homemakers of America. They are planning the F.H.A. social calendar for this year which includes the box supper, city-wide initiation, Area I F.H.A. meeting, National F.H.A. Week, and the Rose Banquet.

It is program time for F.H.A. with posters and an old-time country band. Seated are Barbara Miller, Jane Adamson, and Kathy Everett. Standing are Nancy Rochelle, Beth Franks, Jerry Sandlin, Patsy Thompson, Nancy Adams, Linda Wright, Karen Spruiell, and Ruth Brown.

At Christmas the students donated Christmas cards to be sent to various hospitals and institutions. This was another of many projects sponsored by F.H.A.

The officers elected for a year lead the 130 member club. The membership consists of students enrolled in a homemaking course or students who have taken at least one year of homemaking. The purpose of these future homemakers is to promote an interest and appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking, home, and family life.

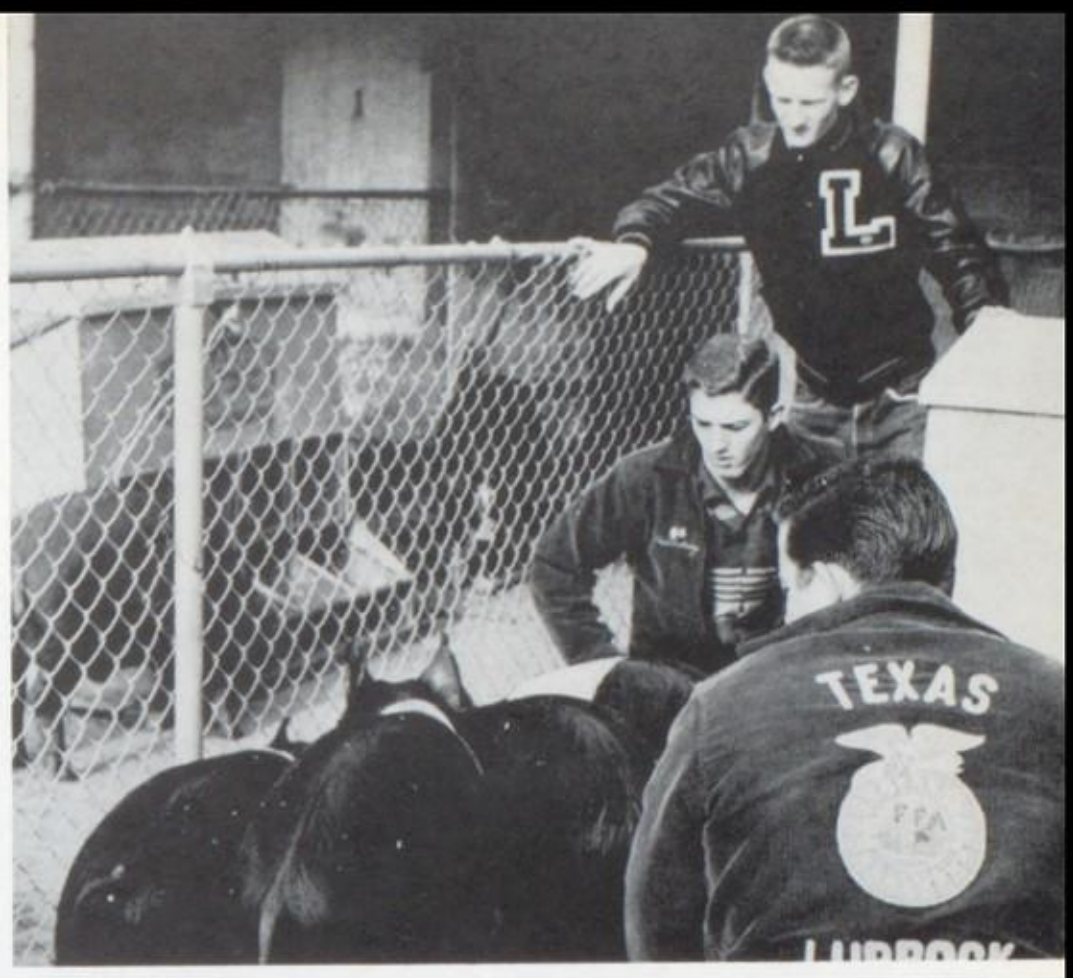
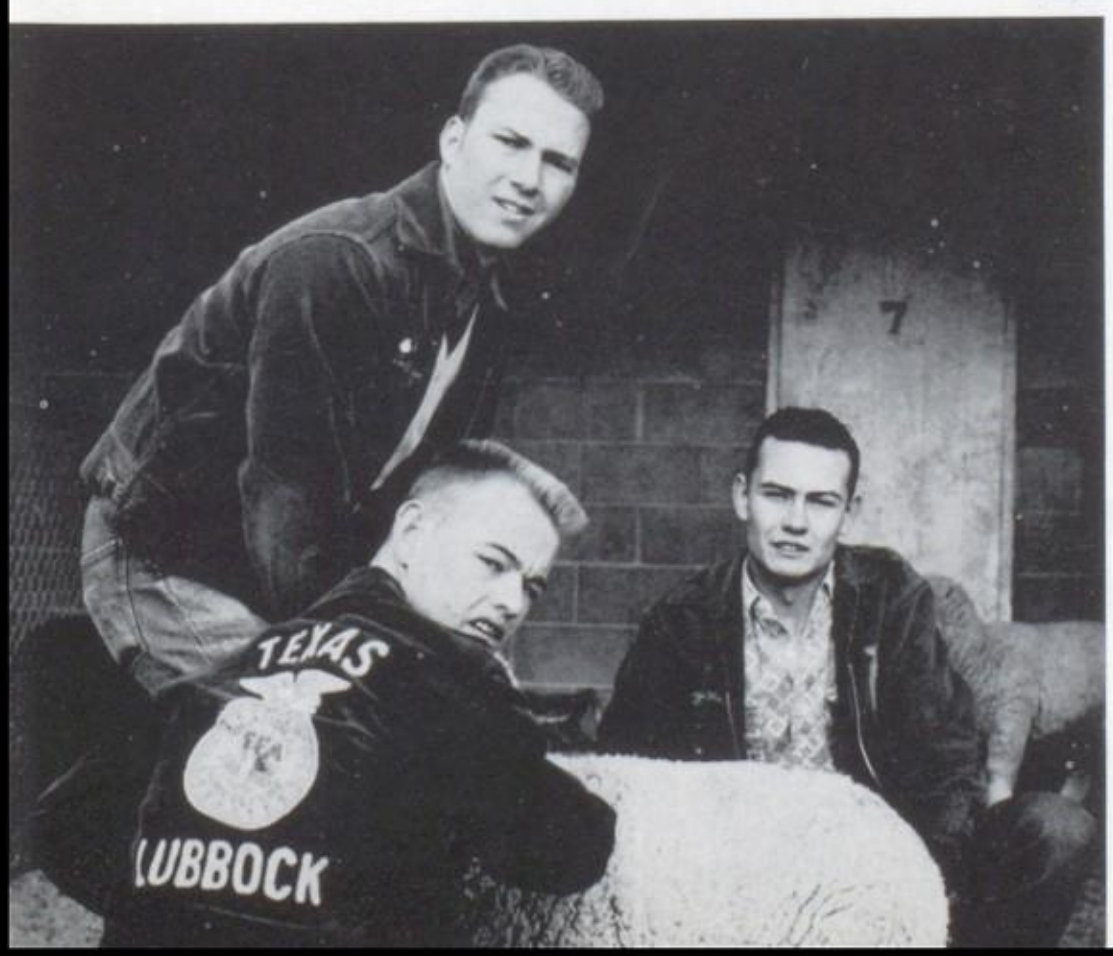
F. F. A. Boys Work at Farm

Taking a long hopeful look at the pigs are these Future Farmers of America boys. They are Jerry McLaughlin, Calvin Warren, and Don Ewing. Each of these boys are hoping that their pig will win a first prize at the stock show, which will take place sometime in early spring.

Learning the cuts of meat are the officers of the Future Farmers of America. They are Tim Campbell, president; Bruce Haass, reporter; Mr. Jack Barton, sponsor; Mickey Williams, secretary; Darell Lindsey, vice president; Mr. Olan Rice, sponsor, and Ben Rucker, treasurer.

The Future Farmers of America was organized to develop agricultural leadership, co-operation, and better citizenship. Some of their activities included participation in the F.F.A.-F.H.A. box supper and entering projects in the annual South Plains Fat Stock Show.





Inspection of animals before taking them to a judging is a big project for F.F.A. boys. Joe Bill Moore, Jack Douglas, and Stacy Starrett are inspecting sheep at the school farm. At the farm, the boys raise chickens, turkeys, hogs, sheep, and cattle. These prize-winning animals are shown all over the mid-west and southwest.

Quill and Scroll Has Formal Initiation

Each semester Quill and Scroll initiates those students eligible for membership. The requirements are 100 inches of editorial copy published, 350 inches of advertising published, or a semester of outstanding work on the annual. Also, the initiate must have no grade below a C and the recommendation of the publications' teacher.

Pledges lighting the initiation candles are Darla Kelley, Wally Jackson, Becky Allen, and Letha Jean Price.

Hi-Y Membership Serves Community

The main purpose of Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. Founded over 20 years ago, the members participate in many activities during the year.

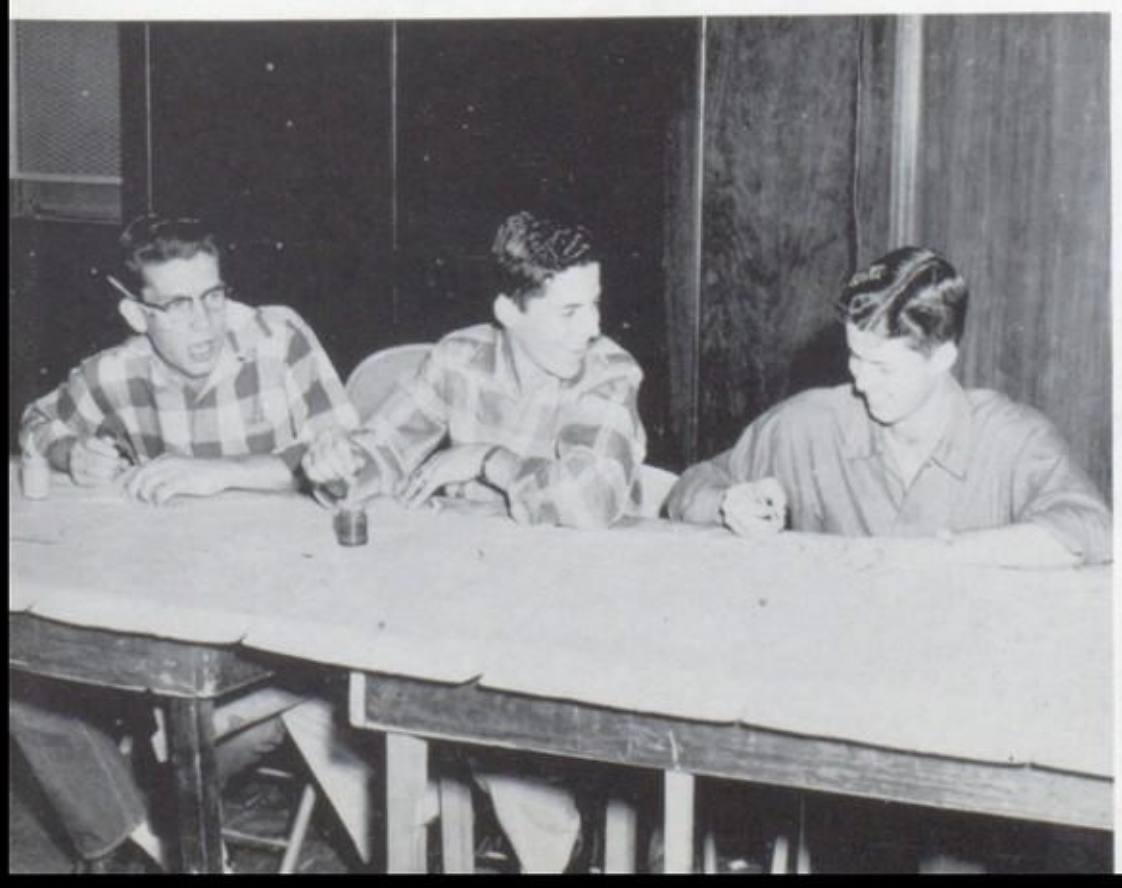
Making sure that their favorite candidates get that extra vote are John Bashore, Martin Graves, and John O'Haugherty. These members are hard at work during one of their yearly campaigns.

Mr. Vernon Odom, head sponsor of Hi-Y, shows new members the state by-laws. New members are Lonnie Eakle, Larry Deardoff, Bobby Hall, Hank Hunt, and Akie Sanders. Not pictured are Mr. Alton Cotton, Mr. E. C. Leslie, and Mr. James Burgess, co-sponsors.



Standing beneath a poster for the clothing drive are committee chairmen Peggy Atkinson, food and finance; Celia Burnett, publicity; Arden Stone, music; Winn Sherrill, service; Linda Hufstedler, social; Phoebe Proctor, program; and Sara Chumley, worship. The clothing drive, main service project of Y-Teens, was very successful. About 5,000 garments were collected and taken to the Clothing Center. Other activities on which they work are the annual Sweetheart Banquet, tacky party, initiation, Christmas caroling party, Mother-Daughter Tea, and the Twirp Week barbecue supper. While working on these projects, they try to see that each girl on their committee has a chance to help.

Y-Teens Back LHS

What to wear is always a topic for discussion, and especially when the Sweetheart Banquet is just around the corner. Mary de Shazo and Margaret Tollin model their formals as Rosemary Herring and Karen Wood nod in approval.

The tackiest at the tacky party is a title that fits these girls well. All decked out in their "Sunday best" are Betty Becker, Shirley Pierce, and Winn Sherrill. This party was held in the early fall so the girls could get acquainted.

Organized in 1926 by Miss Grace Padley, Y-Teens is the largest club in LHS with 425 members. The girls participate in service projects which include selling forget-me-nots for the Disabled American Veterans, a clothing-drive for the Clothing Center, collecting money for the Community Chest, and gathering school supplies for the Guadalupe School.

Clothing — Drive

Gathered around the speaker's stand are the Y-Teen officers. They are: Alice Orr, secretary; Jane Adamson, treasurer; Sharon English, president; Martha Medley, first vice president; and Patsy Thompson, second vice president. Elected by their fellow Y-Teen members in the spring of last year, these girls plan and work out the arrangements for the many activities of the year. They also work closely with the committee chairmen and consult regularly with the sponsors.

National Thespians Further Dramatics

Shown as they read lines from a play book are the officers of the National Thespians. They are Iris Dial, historian; Shelia Cline, secretary; Johnny Oldham, vice president; Hinda Kahn, treasurer; and Jimmy Oldham, president. Not pictured is Mr. Paul Black, sponsor.

Joined with the plays class, some members of the National Thespians work on repairing a set. They are Wanda Brown, a member of plays class, Phoebe Proctor, Danny Parr, Preston Maynard, Stanley Silverman, and Chuck Dunn.

Demonstrating the methods of applying stage makeup are Marshall Chumley, left, and Glen Burns, right. Playing "guinea pig" is Barbara Reeves. Each member of the club is required to have ten points to be gained by acting on the stage.

Thalian Theatre Highlights Year With Banquet

Gathered for a meeting are the officers of the Thalian Theatre. They are: Frances Fredenburg, treasurer; Bob Brackett, vice president; Mr. Paul Black, sponsor; Larry Byers, president; Jimmie Scott, reporter; and Elizabeth Holgate, secretary.

"Oh! My achin' feet," seems to be the only thought in Harlene Dane's mind as she sits at her table at the Thalian Theatre banquet. Also seated at the table are Marita Thrush and two other members of the club.

Performing a skit as entertainment at the banquet are: Delmer Bass, Tommy McDole, Shelly White, Jimmy Bell, and Jimmy Haynie. Arden Stone, in the audience, appears to be quite interested.

The Thalian Theater, with a membership of 76, is open to any student in high school who has an interest in dramatics. Among the varied activities that they participated in this year was the sponsoring of the Thanksgiving Assembly.

Spanish Club Raises Money for Scholarship

Raising $100 for the scholarship is the main project of El Club Pan-Americano. This award is given to the third or fourth year student making the highest grade on a test given by the Spanish Department of Texas Tech.

Other events include the initiation banquet, rummage sale, selling programs at a football game, annual Fiesta, and the state meet.

The club, sponsored by Mr. Mel Lemos, boasts over 100 members.

Shown above right are: Eleanor Clayton and Sherry Holloman as they sell a cake to Dan Crump. This project provided most of the money for the scholarship.

Swinging wildly in an attempt to break the pinata at the Christmas party is Mr. Mel Lemos. When he connected, all the students scrambled on the floor for the candy.

At left inspecting the pinatas to be broken at the annual Christmas party are the club officers. They are: Zan Smith, vice president; Dean Breedlove, president; Carol Cromer, treasurer; Celia Burnett, secretary; and Mr. Mel Lemos, sponsor.

To increase interest in Roman language and civilization and make others aware of their importance is the purpose of the Latin club, Gens Togata. This year there were 66 members of the club. Programs included various phases of Roman life, plays or oral reports.

Gens Togata Initiates New Members

Initiation might have been a little rough but these students look as if they enjoy it. The initiation for Gens Togata was held at Mike Rattiff's home.

Entertaining at the club's initiation are "The Bums," a group of boys from the Baptist Student Center.

Members of the club are putting the pledges through the grueling ordeal of initiation. Pledges pictured blind-folded are Betty Becker, and Lois Kershner. Members are Susan Philbrick, Linda Smith, and Elsa Dockray.

Stepping out for a breath of fresh air are the officers of the Musicians' Guild. They are Rodney Hill, president; Kathleen Robinson, vice president; Mary Patrick, secretary; Janice Jeter, treasurer, and Costa Dunias, social chairman. pictured is Mercedes Haynes, reporter. These officers are elected in September and serve for one year.

Musicians' Guild Furthers Music Appreciation

Musicians' Guild, organized in 1950 for all students interested in music, meets every other Tuesday in the auditorium. The main purpose of the club is to further appreciation of music. This year the membership totals 115. Programs during the year include student large and small vocal groups as well as outside performers.

Musicians' Guild takes pride in these musical programs. Activities include an early morning initiation and several picnics. All the club members look forward to these annual events, especially the initiation.

Band Girls' Club Raises Money Picking Cotton

Sore knees and aching backs are the sentiments of these hard working girls. Each member of the La Trezieme Musique was expected to help pick cotton to raise club funds.

It's tea time for the La Trezieme Musique club. These three girls, Lynn Powell, Pat Nicols, and Sharon Sitterly are attending the tea which was held at the home of Judy Sliter. The tea was the first activity the club had this year and the officers were given corsages and were in charge of being hostesses.

The members of La Trezieme Musique meet every Wednesday afternoon in the band room under the leadership of Mr. Paul Branom, sponsor. Programs and socials are given throughout the year.

The band girls' club was organized in 1947 to promote better relationship among band students. Their activities this year included a tea, box supper, spring banquet, and picking cotton.

The first semester officers were Sharon Sitterly, reporter; Connie Miller, treasurer; Sara Beth Greer, program chairman; Judy Sliter, secretary; Mr. Branom, sponsor; Margie Higgins, social chairman, and, Evelyn McCown, song leader.

The second semester officers are Alice Jane Veasey, president; Judy Burnham, vice president; Lynn Powell, secretary; Ruth Brown, treasurer; Martha Jones, social chairman; Connie Miller, program chairman; Sara Beth Greer, reporter; Joy James, song leader, and, Sharon Sitterly, parliamentarian.

Junior Red Cross Entertains Old Folks

To further the interest in helping others and aid American Red Cross in projects is the purpose of the Junior Red Cross Club. Some of the activities of the club are the Junior Red Cross membership drive, a Christmas party at the old folks home, and sending gifts to veteran hospitals.

Decorating a Christmas tree at a convalescent home are: Naomi Breedlove, Mickey McDonald, Juanita Davis, and Mary Jane Cashion. This was one of the many projects which was sponsored by the Junior Red Cross Club.

Shown distributing membership cards and pins to Sharon Sanders, Charles Hall, and Mike Lundy are: Mr. Largent and Mrs. McDaniel, sponsors. The money collected from this drive helps with a number of the projects of the Junior Red Cross. A portion of the money goes to the American Red Cross Children's Fund, and also the expenses of the party at the old folk's home was taken from this money.

Officers and sponsors of the Junior Red Cross Club are: Vice President, Mickey McDonald, President, Mary Jane Cashion, Secretary Becky Allen, and Jettie Evans, program chairman. The officers which were elected for the whole year planned and directed the club's activities along with the co-sponsors Mrs. Raymond McDaniel and Mr. Tommy Largent.

Dewey Club Learns Library Methods

To learn library methods and to promote interest in good reading are the purposes of the Melvil Dewey Club. Mrs. R. T. Groves, sponsor, meets with the club every other Monday during the homeroom period.

Activities for the club include the library convention, decoration of the showcase, straightening books, and having two parties.

Looking over the books for torn pages and markings are the officers of the club. They are: Lana Smallin, vice president; Sylvia Houston, treasurer; Billy Williams, historian; J. M. Hill, parliamentarian; Nancy Rochelle, president, and, Gayla Hodges, secretary.

One very enjoyable activity was the Christmas turkey dinner, held at Lana Smallin's home. Attending the party were Louise Farley, Lana Smallin, Karen Havis, Mary Johnson, Nancy Rochelle, Mrs. Groves, Billy Williams, J. M. Hill, Pat Avara, Carolyn Case, and Mary Lang.

The club weekly straightens books. Shown at right with this duty are: Karen Havis, Mary Johnson, Frances Fredenburg, and Teressa Austin.

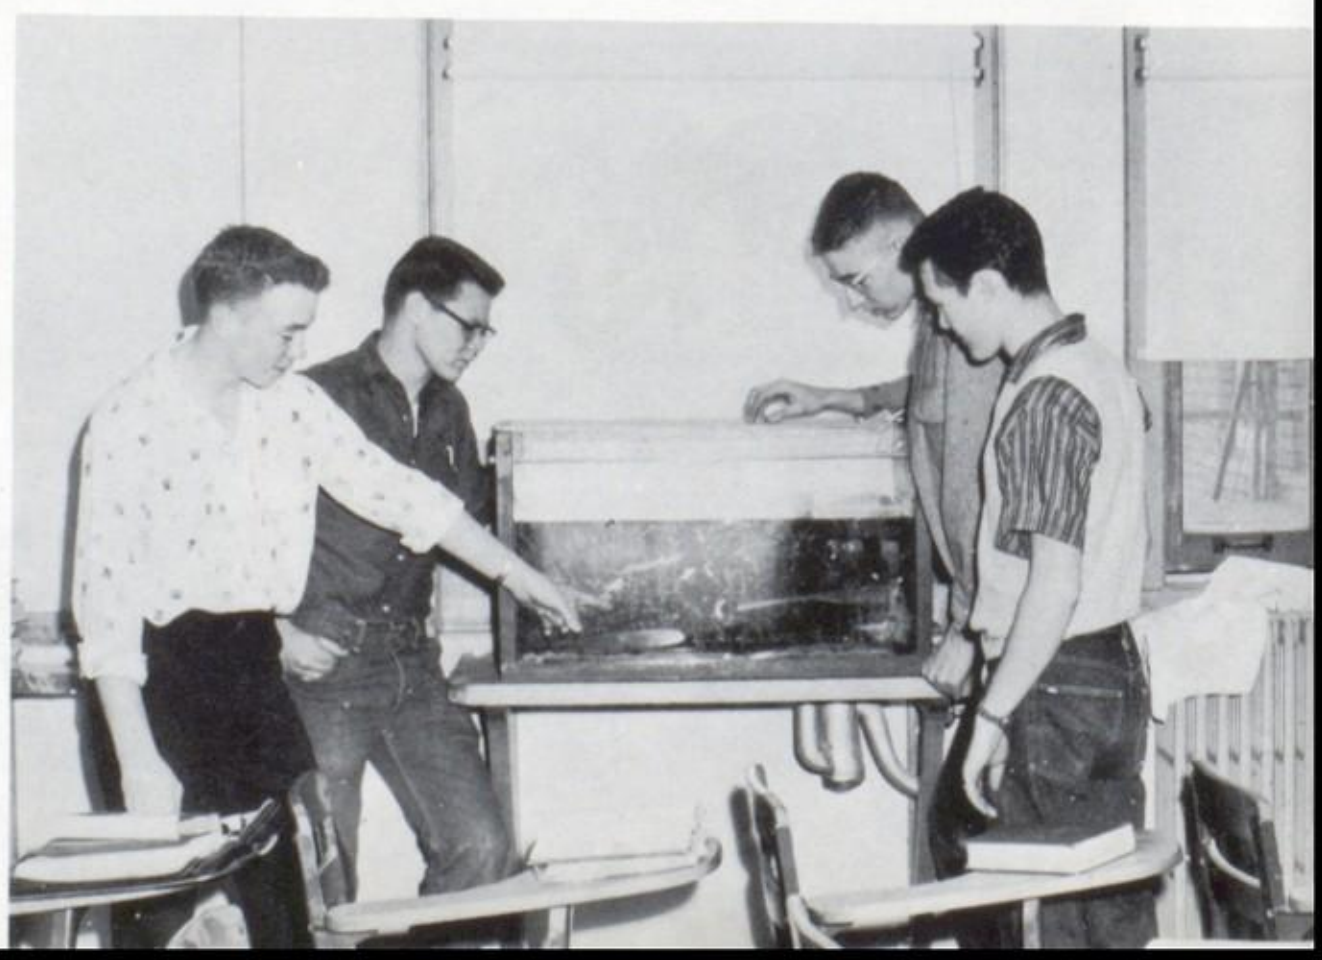
Leading the 82 members of the Biology Club are the officers shown looking at the stuffed owl. They are Billy Spain, president; Donald Weldon, program chairman; Barbara Thompson, secretary; and Jerry Parsons, vice president.

Biology Club Boasts Largest Enrollment

The purpose of the Biology Club is to gain a knowledge of the contribution science has made to modern living.

The program for this year includes field trips, special speakers, and films.

Shown looking at pieces of cotton in the microscopes are the sponsors and several members of the club. They are, seated: Neal Parker, Ronald Ratisseau, and Pat Melton. Standing are: Mrs. Euna B. Watkins, sponsor; Jackie Brown, Coach Max O'Banion, sponsor; Brookie Stephens, and Mrs. Dorothy Hughes, sponsor.



Since West Texas is a flat, dry region these Biology Club members find the aquarium on the second floor a very fascinating way to spend a few minutes. Shown watching the water life are: Akie Sanders, George French, Bill Pearce, and Wayne Feazell.

The Science Club was organized in 1947 to further activities in the field of science other than those in the class room.

Having a membership of 32 this year, the club meets every other Tuesday in room 309 fifth period. Programs include student demonstrations and talks, outside speakers and film strips. Any one interested in science is eligible to join. Sponsors for the club are Mrs. M. F. Landwer and Miss Kathleen Martin.

Club Develops Scientific Interest

Art Fair Main SOS Annual Activity

"Ummmm . . . I don't think so . . ." groans Miss Mary Wilson as she and Miss George Ann McFarland, co-sponsors of Splash or Splatter, discuss with Johnny Clemmons, second vice president in charge of Art Fair, the programs for the annual spring event.

The Art Fair is the main fund raising activity in which the club participates. The various items to be sold are contributed throughout the year by art class students. The money raised goes for a scholarship to the South Plains Art Guild Workshop.

Admiring a scrapbook of a previous year are the officers of SOS. They are: C. L. Eudy, vice president; Ouida Deatherage, secretary; and Eddie Joe Bradford, president.

Shown participating in a club activity, collective drawing, are: Dale White, Sue Hardy, Don Free, and Ann Love.

T. N. T. Programs Solve Mysteries

Officers of the Telling New Truths (T.N.T.) Club watch Mrs. Jewell Gilliam, sponsor, give a demonstration on the use of a sensitive analytical balance. They are Bill Robinson, secretary; Scott Mack, president; Bill Case, vice president and program chairman; Dick Burr, parliamentarian, and, Mike Ratliff, reporter. The purpose of T.N.T. is to further students' interests and knowledge in chemistry. All members are taking chemistry or have had the course.

Bill Case, center left, explains how he made iodine crystals, and Bill Robinson, center right, is demonstrating the laboratory method of making bromine.

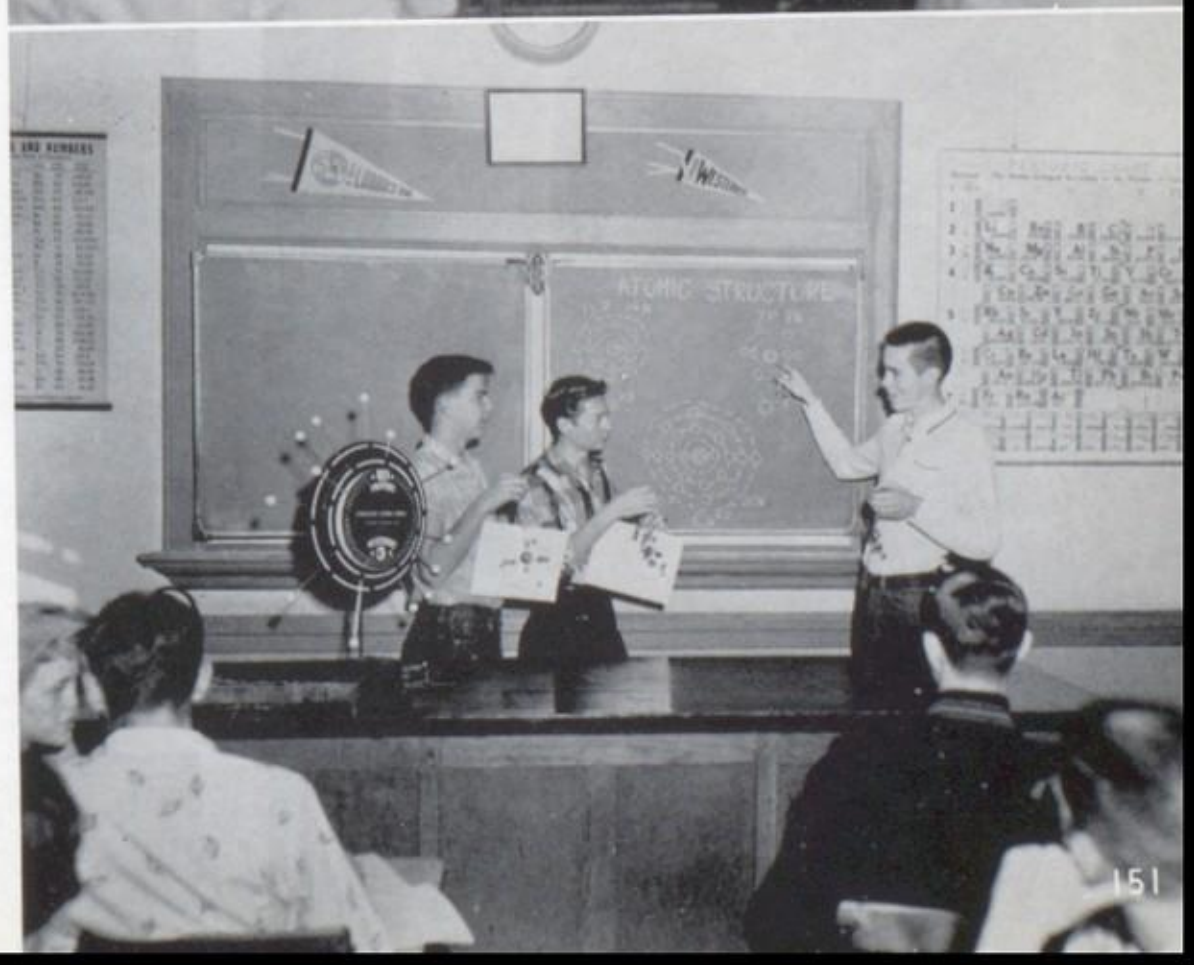
Stanley Mitchell, Rodney Florence, and Donald Weldon explain the structure of an atom to the other club members by using drawings and miniature structures made by Rodney.

In addition to programs by club members, talks and demonstrations by members of the Texas Tech faculty, films, and a field trip to a refinery at Borger rounded out activities of the club.



One of the club activities was passing out copies of the amendment to raise teachers' wages. Eva Watson, Joyce Odorizzi, Libby Malley, and Kay Lane, above, are distributing copies to a local businessman.

Shown above looking down at Dale Halford from the "Little Red School House" is Sheila Cline. These students were chosen Mr. and Miss Future Teacher of LHS. The "school" was a dramatics set.

F. T. A. Promotes Teaching Careers

To learn more about the teaching profession is the object of Future Teachers of America. The 30 members study the advantages and disadvantages of this career.

Activities of the club this year included selling programs at football games, distributing copies of Amendment 4, selection of Mr. and Miss Future Teacher of LHS, and district meets.

In the picture to the right, Charlene George is saying goodbye to Sheila Cline, historian; Dale Halford, vice president; Carol McWilliams, president; and Eva Campos, treasurer, as they leave for a district meet in Plainview.

Nurses' Club Started This Year

Planning the future of the Nurses' Club are the officers. They are Mrs. Era Ford, head sponsor; Donna Beth Dunn, president; Kay McKinley, vice president; Kay Lane, treasurer, and Libby Malley, secretary. The goal of nearly every member is to be a nurse. Providing nurses' caps for all the members is a project of this club. This club was organized this year for girls interesting in nursing.

Receiving and giving first aid are four members of the Nurses' Club. They are Frances Staffell, Ramona Pfingsten, Libby Malley, and Mary Dena Tilson. The uniforms are the standard dress of the Nurses' Club members when they work at the Methodist Hospital as nurses aids. Each girl receives training in the field of nursing and a course in first aid. Although the girls do not receive pay for their work, they enjoy the work.

Let us take a break with the Nurses' Club. It is not all work; there is time for fun. Taking advantage of this opportunity are Mrs. Thelma Wilson, co-sponsor; Carol Wheeler, Jimmie Sue Belcher, Ramona Pfingsten, and Trula Godwin. These girls are only a few of the members who belong to the Nurses Club that was organized this year to give training in first aid and experience to the girls in the duties of nursing.

Cameras Click

Looking at the attendence jump from seventy last year to 150 this year are two of the three-year members and the sponsors. Pictured are: Mrs. Lois Marie Keeton and Mrs. Kathleen Ingram, seated, and Wayne Hardin and Hartwell Hamilton, standing.

Several members of the Camera Club examine the telephoto lens bought this year by the club. Each year the club purchases a piece of photographic equipment. Examining the lens are: Hartwell Hamilton, Mrs. Lois Marie Keeton, Eleanor Clayton, Wayne Hardin, Doyle Williams, Gayle Hooper, and Kaye Connelly.

Engineers Visit Electric Plant

The newly organized Engineering Club is sponsored by Mr. Bill Barnby and Mr. Vernon Odom. It was formed to provide information and guidance for students interested in engineering as a profession.

Club programs included speakers from the engineering fields, films, and field trips.

Shown at upper left are the officers looking at plans for a building project. They are Scott Mack, reporter; Stanley Silverman, parliamentarian; Marion John, secretary-treasurer; Richard Webb, vice president; and Fred Followill, president. The sponsors, Mr. Barnby and Mr. Odom, look on.

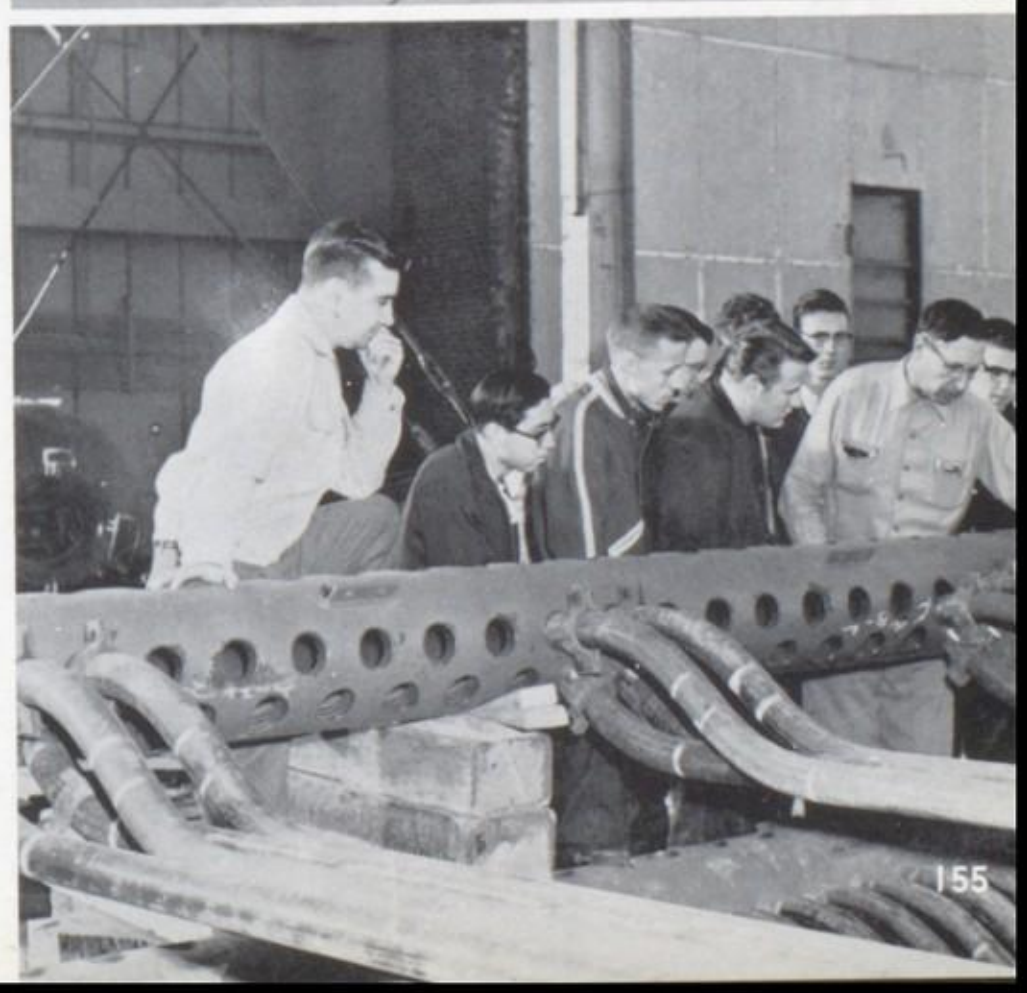
Shown in the two pictures on the right is the same group of "future" engineers inspecting various parts of the plant's machinery.



V. I. C. Promotes Auto-Mechanic Interests

There are many advantages of being chosen chapter sweetheart. Claudette Frady was elected V.I.C. Sweetheart of Chapter Ten. When she was selected she became an honorary member of this chapter; also, she represented this Lubbock Chapter at the district meet in Amarillo on February 9. Claudette and other members attended the state meet in San Antonio.

Members of the Vocational Industrial Club, Chapter Ten, learn auto mechanics. Boys attend regular school classes under their club sponsor, Mr. James Burnett, where they work on students' and teachers' automobiles. After graduation, many of the members go right into the mechanic field, where there is a shortage of trained personnel.

Busy at work, these boys are learning the mechanism of a car motor in the auto mechanics building. They are Glendell Williams, Ted Carter, Kenneth Copelin, Glen Lawson, Curtis McDonald, Dale Mize, Thomas Hardy, and Jerry Woodruff.

These officers are pictured as they listen to words of criticism and instruction. The are shown, standing: Jimmy Thomas, reporter; Larry Hay, president; Jerry Owen, treasurer; and Lyndol Hall, vice president. Kneeling are Mr. Burnett, sponsor; S. M. Cunningham, secretary, and Robert Davis, sergeant-at-arms.

Vocational Industrial Club Attends Meet in Amarillo

One of the many activities the members of Chapter 109 participate in is welding. Shown doing this job are Gene Whitwell and Morris Givens. Each of the boys enjoy doing such work because they like the other members and they know it is planning for their futures.

These boys in the second picture are working on toys received in the Toys for Tots Campaign sponsored by the United States Marine Corps. Some of these toys were in need of repair. Boys shown repairing are Tommy Simpson, Donnie Bray, and Richard Williams.

This club attended a district meeting in Amarillo and a state meeting in San Antonio. These meetings have to do with the metal trade which the boys are studying for the future.

Claudette Frady is the sweetheart of Vocational Industrial Club, Chapter 109, sponsored by Mr. James H. Tolson.

Distributors' Club Learns Good Business Principles

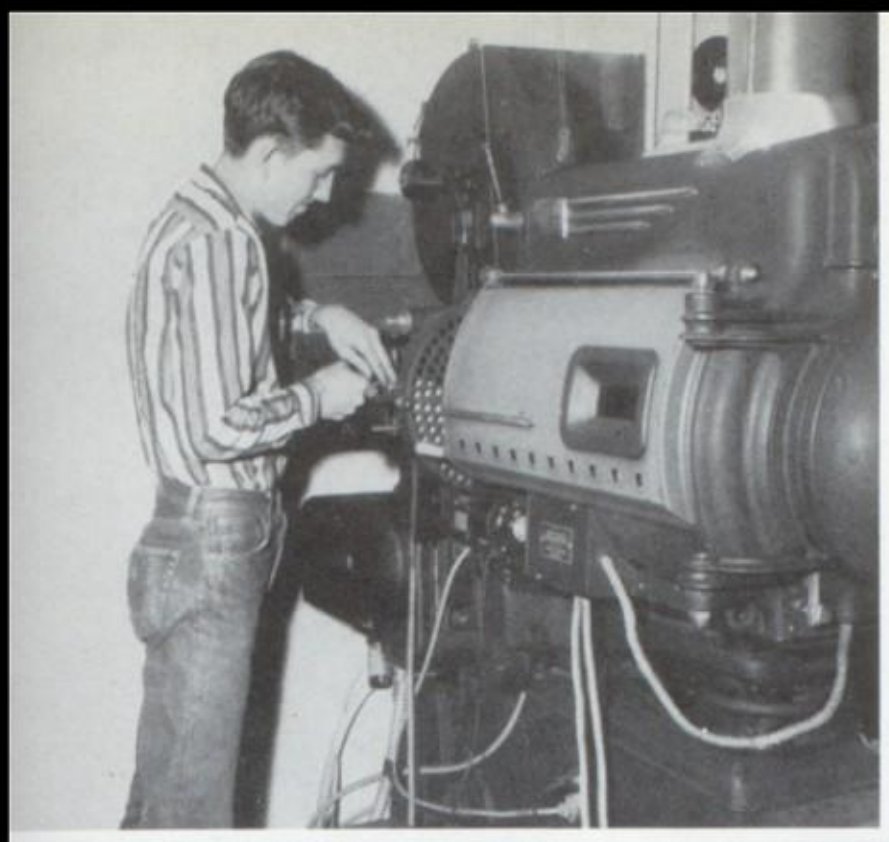
Lynn Morgan was chosen the sweetheart of the Distributive Education Club this year. She is an active member in Distributive Education and has a job with a local company. Shown here, Lynn is filing, which is one of her many duties.

The officers of the Distributors' Club are Lynn Morgan, sweetheart and reporter; Billie Ruth Bowen, secretary; Ernestine May, vice president; Billie Osborne, president; Darrell Lindsey, state delegate; James Mullenix, sergeant-at-arms, and Mr. Lovic Liston, sponsor.

Working at a local store is Patsy Williamson. Mrs. Stanley, of the store, is showing and helping Patsy in the basic steps of selling a garment. Patsy, like other members of the club, is interested in her future. To further her knowledge of selling she took advantage of this opportunity of working for a local business.

Good business principles are stressed and fostered as the purpose of the Distributive Education Club. Their main purpose or objective of their club is to learn while they earn. The club participates in a number of activities such as the Employee-Employer Banquet and area contests.

I. C. T. Earns Money While It Learns



James Long, who is employed by a local theater chain, is winding the film which is to be shown in the next feature. James, like other members of the Vocational Industrial Club, Chapter 95, is planning ahead for his future.

The Vocational Industrial Club, Chapter 95, was organized to further social activities to the Industrial Co-Operative Training class. The club, consisting of thirty-four mempers, meets on Tuesday in the boys' gym.

Occupied at a local boat company, Jimmy Self is sanding a boat. Jimmy is employed at the company and sanding is one of the many duties he has at his business.

These officers of the Vocational Industrial Club, Chapter 95, are proud of their club emblem. They are Martha Sherrod, reporter; Dorothy Jean Gaither, secretary and District secretary; Sam Ainsworth, vice president; Louise McDonald, sweetheart; and Ronnie Gore, reporter. The officers of the Vocational Industrial Club are elected yearly.

Delegates from Lubbock High School attended the District I meet in Palo Duro High School at Amarillo Saturday, February 9. Lubbock High School students received eleven first place awards and sixteen place awards. They were radio and television repair, first in skill and speed, second in technical information, second in identification, and third in individual project.

Amateurs Learn Radio Procedure

The Amateur Radio Club was organized to increase interest in radios and to learn the correct operating procedures in case of emergencies.

They began this year with an enrollment of 24 with hopes of gaining more members before the end of the school year.

In order to actually communicate with other amateur radio stations on their own, the boys must have their Federal Communications Commission radio licenses. Possessing licenses are Bryan Edwards, license number W5KFT, Bob Fisher, station K5DBG, and Mr. Orr, W5NIC.

Lecturing on mobile equipment is Ross Shelton, ex-president of the Amateur Radio Club and Ex-Westerner of 1949 and 1950.

Projectionists Serve Faculty

Any person interested in audio-visual work is invited to join Projectionists Club. The members of this club, sponsored by Mr. Robert Knight, learn about audio-visual machines. The members render a service to the faculty by showing film strips, records, charts, and other audio-visual equipment for them. This service, of course, aids students in the learning of subject matter and in tips on living.

Audio-Visual Aids Students

The officers are pictured above putting up a projection machine. They are: C. G. Gilbreth, vice president; John Payne, secretary-treasurer; and Jimmy Haynie, president.

James Deering in the second picture at right is showing a film to a typing class. He has been instructed by Mr. Knight how to run the machine.

In the bottom picture are Mr. Knight and members of Projectionists Club. He is showing them how to run a film strip through the projector. The members on the back row are: Ronald Hubbard, Albert Horne, Doyle Williams, Lamont Scarbrough, and James West. On the front row are: Derrill Cundiff, Gayle Hooper, Mr. Knight, Alton Herring, Bill Angelley, and James Deering.

Officers of Morning Watch gather around the piano in room 219 after the daily devotional service. Seated are: Dale Halford, attendance committee, and Shelia Cline, president. Standing are: C. L. Eudy, program; LaRue Elliott, publicity; James Tabor, recreation; Vera Moize, treasurer; Jean Newsom, secretary; and Don Sledge, vice president.

An average of forty students attend the devotionals each morning. Attendance drive methods include hall posters and a large swinging-type sign in front of the building.

Students Start Day at Morning Watch

Songs of praises to God fill the halls each morning before school as students gather for the daily Morning Watch devotionals. Special music and speakers highlight the services. Faculty sponsors are: Mrs. Euna B. Watkins, Mrs. Jewell L. Gilliam, Miss Peggy Mayfield, Coach Max O'Banion, Miss Virginia McLean, Miss Ruth Holman, and Mrs. Willie Clark.

"Come on team and get that ball!" These enthusiastic officers of Westernetts who are Jo Long, publicity; Gwen Wilson, treasurer; Barbara Lynch, secretary; Jane Adamson, vice president; and Shannon Golding, president, are rooting for the winning team.

Smiling faces and helping hints is the philosophy of Mrs. John Wilson and Mrs. R. M. Winn. They are physical education teachers and sponsors of Westernetts.

Westernetts Lead Girls' Sports

Tipping off the basketball to her teammates is Barbara St. Clair. Waiting to receive the ball are: Mary Louise Taylor, Eddie Joe Bradford, Jimmie Sue Belcher, Betty Becker, Karen Havis, and Carolyn Davis.

Sixty-two active girls are members of Westernetts Club. Meeting every Thursday after school, they participate in basketball, volleyball, ping pong, tennis, badminton, softball, and a bowling tournament during the year.

Cheerleaders Boost School Spirit

Larue Mauldin, shown at right is LHS's head cheerleader for 1956-57.

Below are senior cheerleaders C. L. Eudy and Mary Jane Cashion.

The Cheerleader's spirit-reminding signs publicizing the games, and new yells that were brought back from cheerleading school have had tremendous effect on the spirit of the student body. Pep rallies have been better and have shown marked improvement concerning the participation of students.

Some of the new yells are the Whisper Yell; Go, Fight, Win; the Rhythm Yell; and Be Calm, Be Cool, and Be Collected.

Coaches Pilot Westerner Squad

On the 1956 Westerner coaching staff are: Clarence Tillery, end coach, and Edgar Payne, line coach.

Wilford Moore, head coach, is in his first year on the Westerner staff. Formerly a coach for an Abilene college, Coach Moore accepted the position upon the resignation of Coach Pat Farris early in February of 1956.

The three capable managers, Mike Ratliff and Odie Hood, seniors; Jerry Wiley, junior, are among the Westerner's most loyal fans.

Mr. Eck Curtis, athletic director for the Lubbock schools, directs the athletic programs of the grade schools, junior and senior highs.

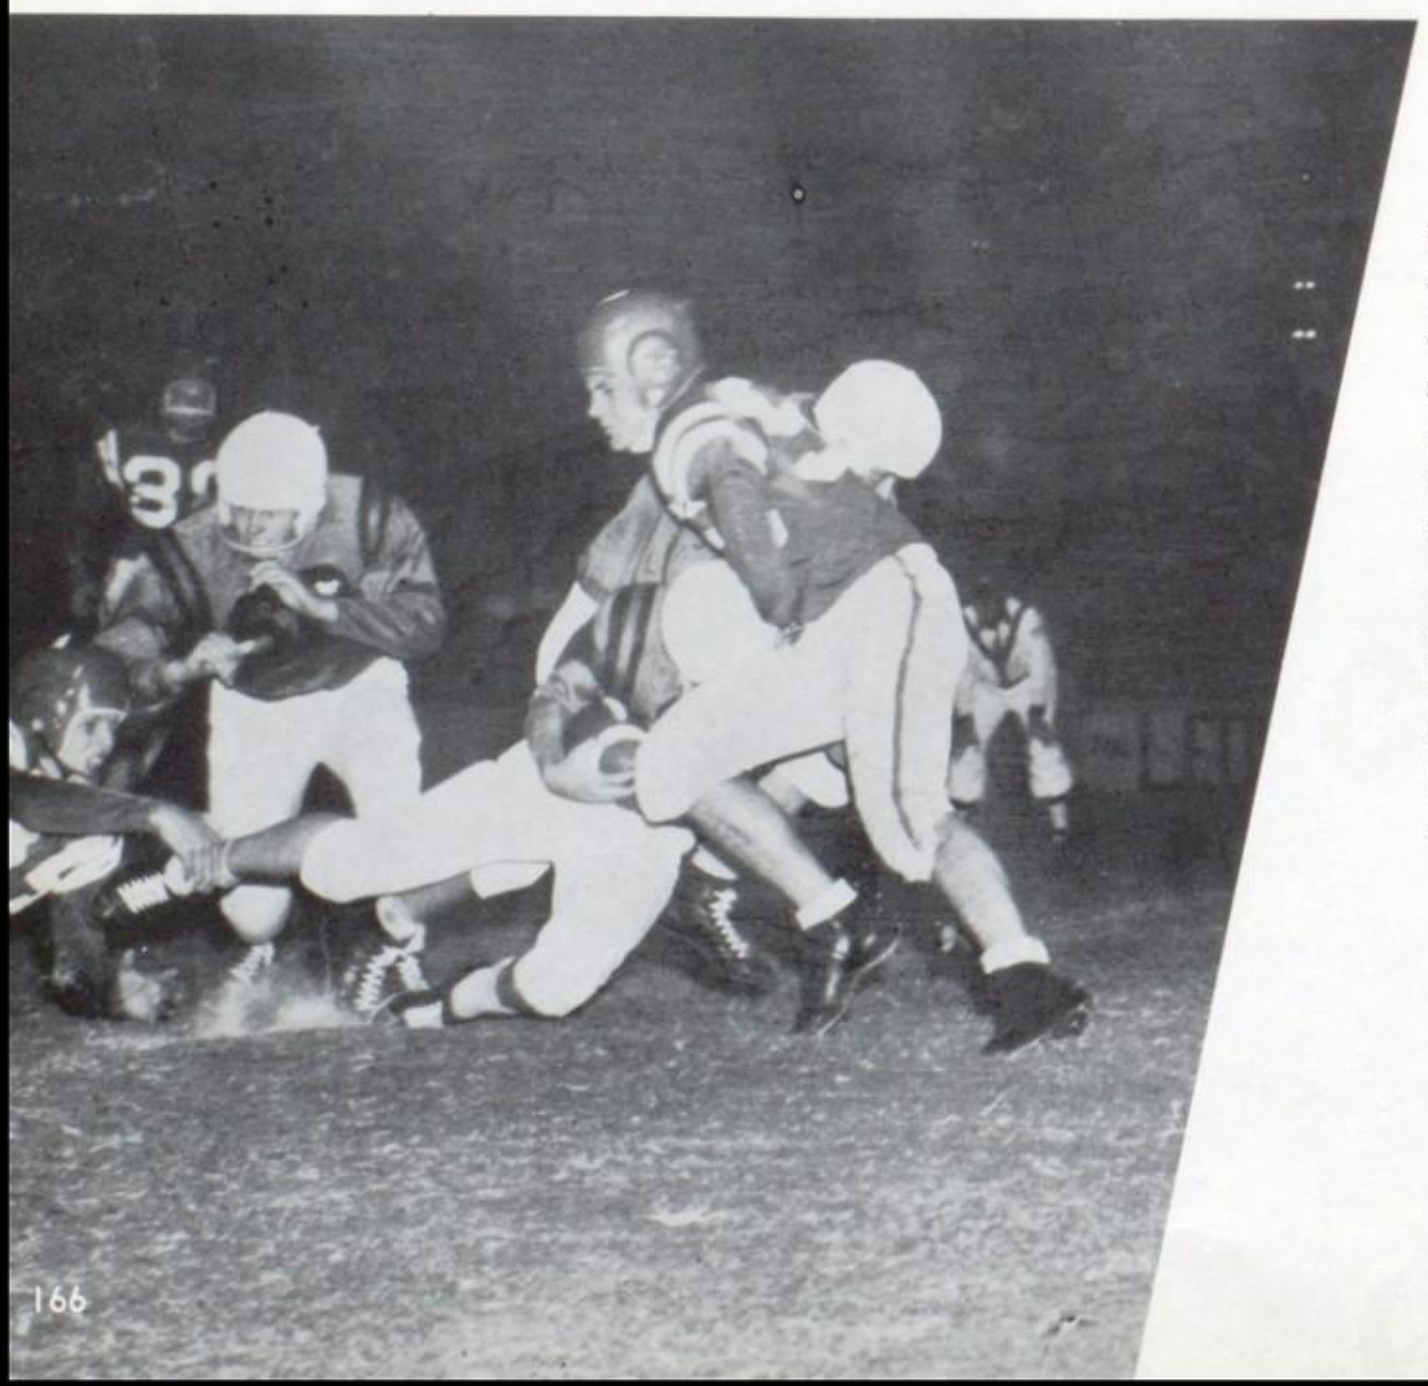
Dallas Downs LHS 27-7



A determined Charlie Moore is brought down by two Adamson tacklers as the Westerners were defeated in the first game of the season by Adamson High School of Dallas 27-7. Coming in to aid Charlie Moore is Joe Mack Henderson, 175 lb. Westerner guard.

Little was known about the opposing team prior to the game except that the single wing formation would be used. This was the teams' first game, a non-conference tilt.

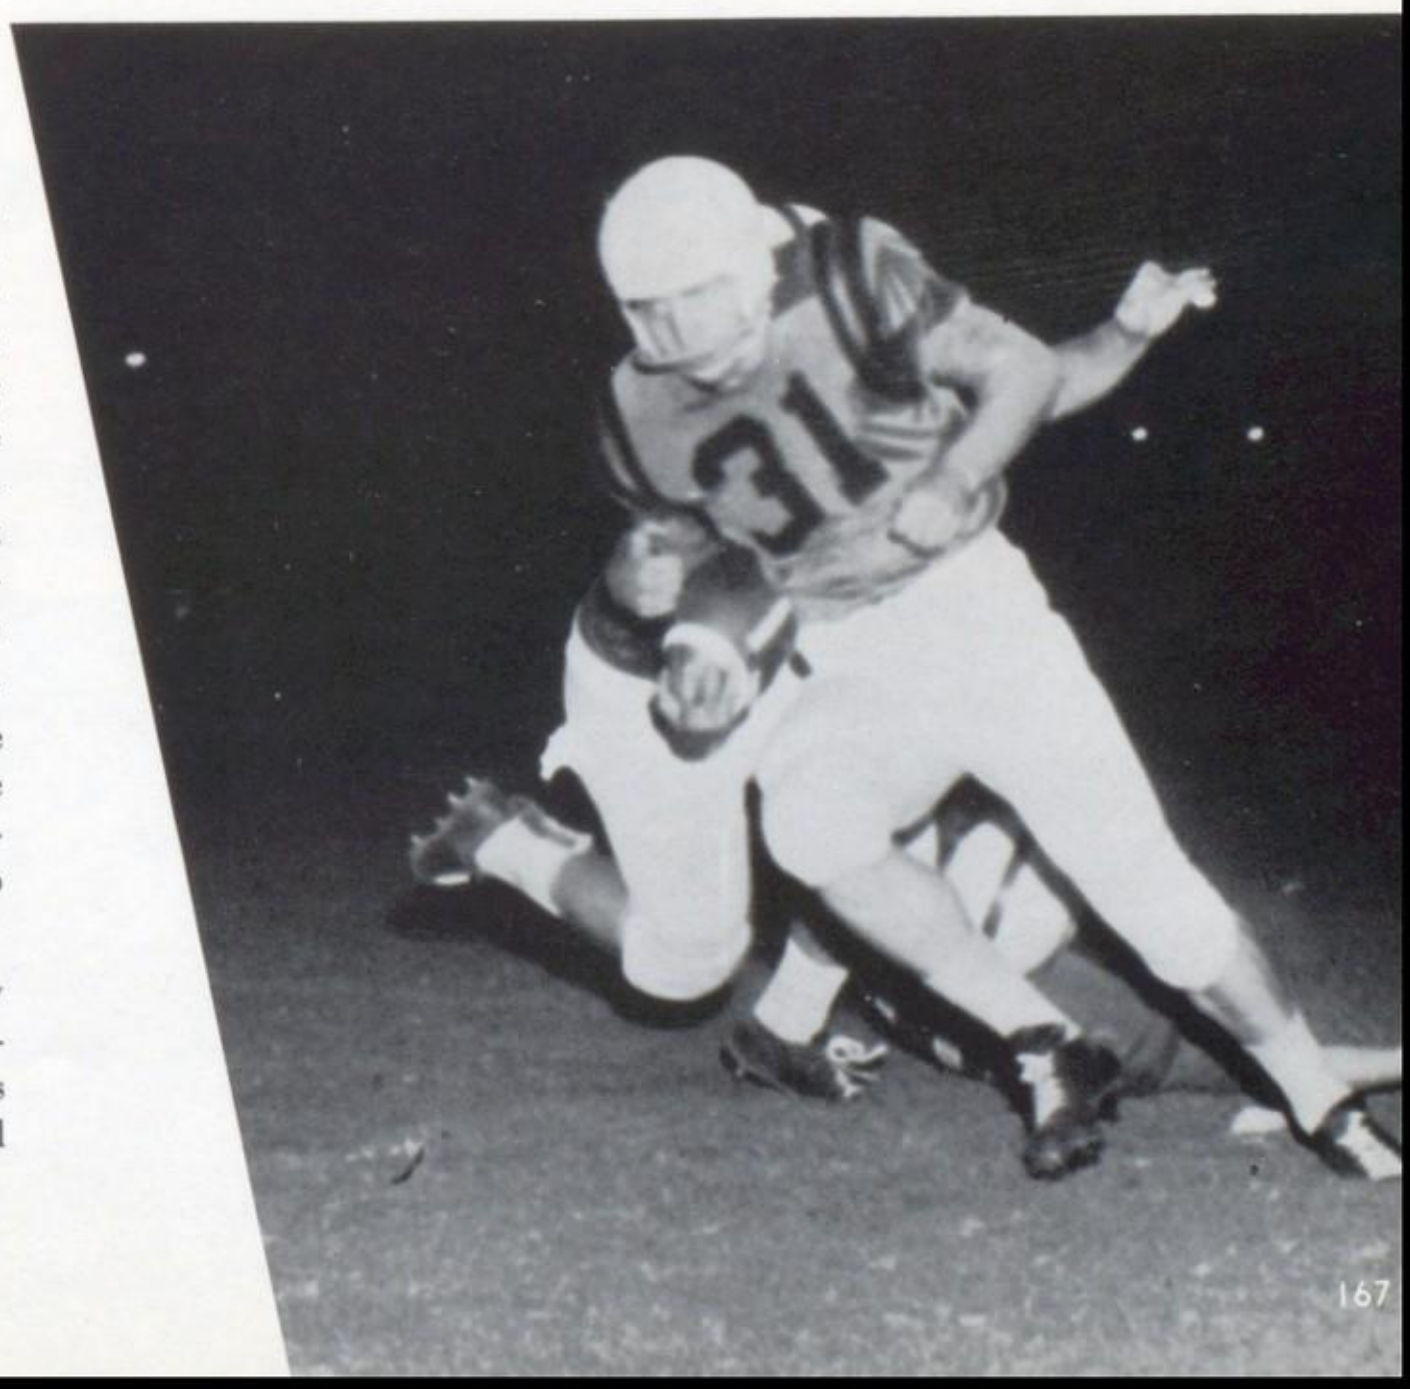
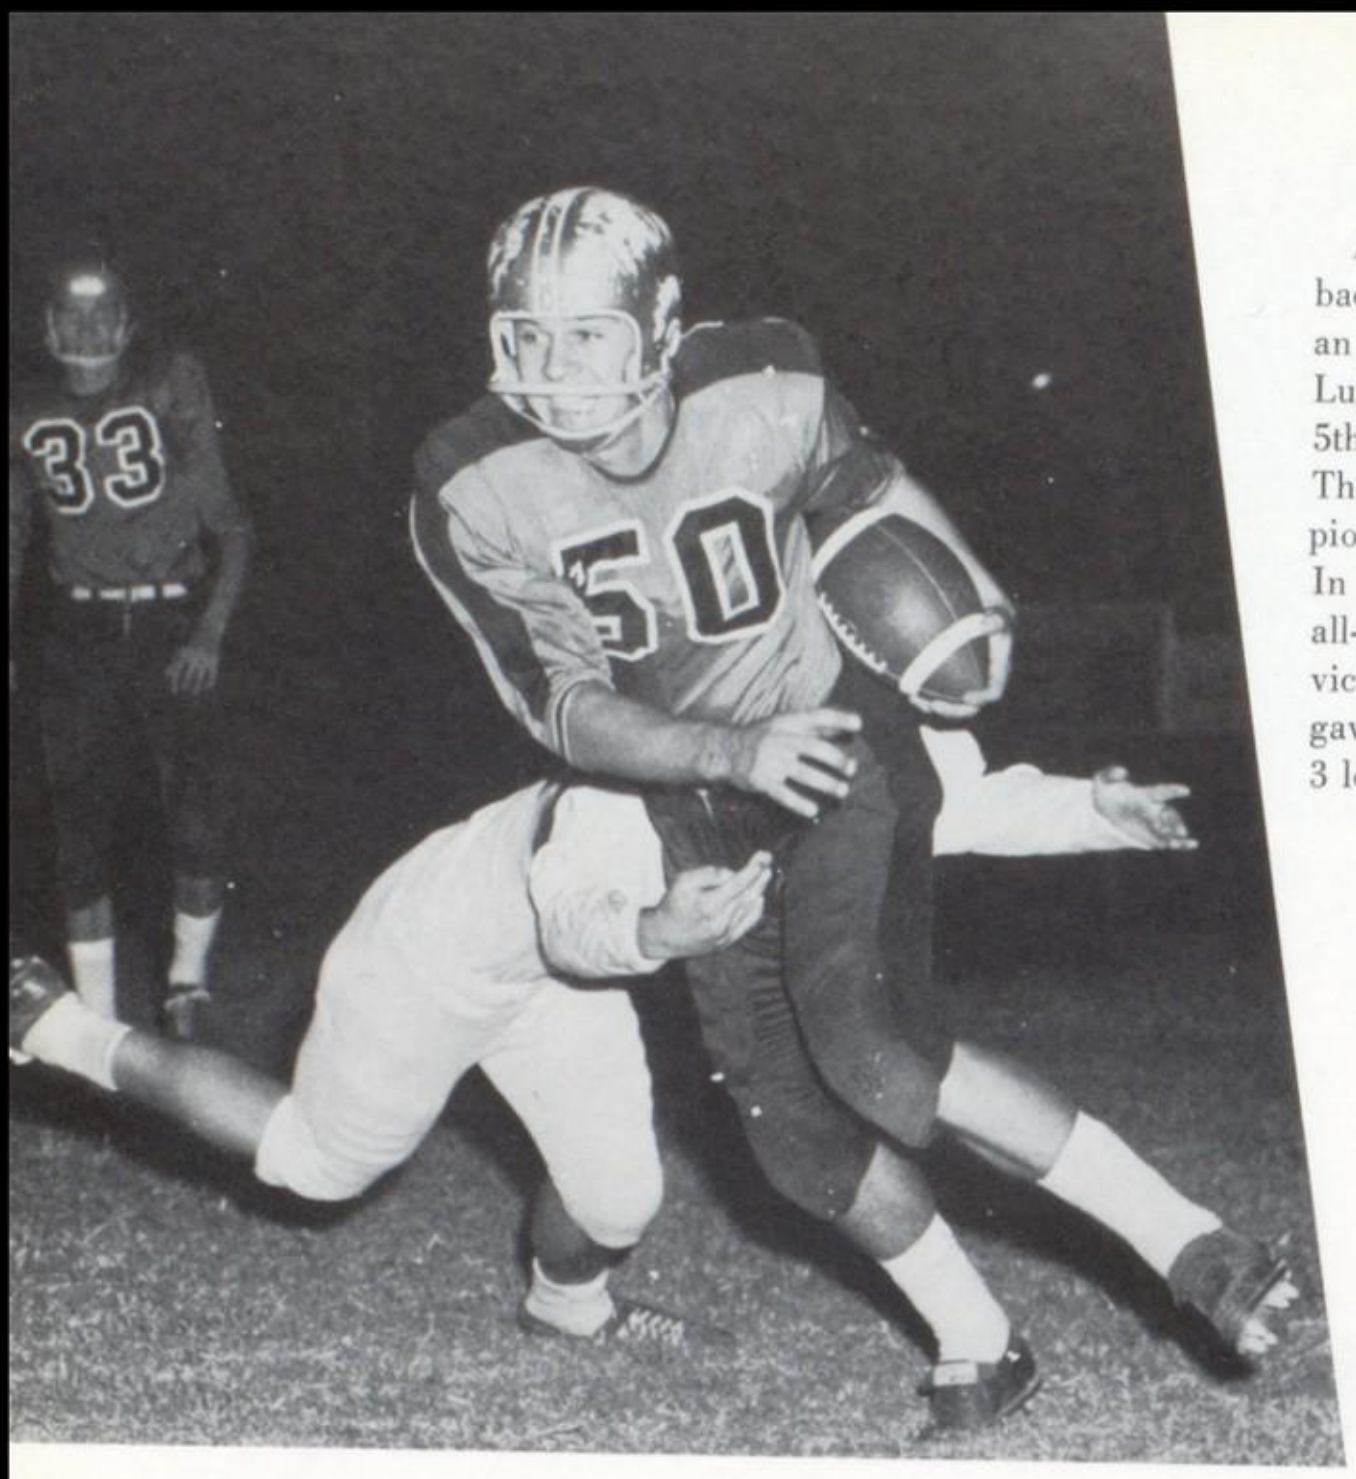
Odessa Edges Past Westerners 35-34

A high scoring gridiron duel, executed in Jones Stadium between the Odessa Bronchos and the Lubbock Westerners, ended with the Westerners trailing 35-34. Going into the game as a two or three touchdown underdog, the Westerner eleven surprised Lubbock fans by showing amazing improvement over the previous game against Adamson High of Dallas.

Throwing off two would-be Broncho tacklers, halfback Charlie Moore breaks through the defensive line for a right end sweep into the end zone.

Though the Bronchos won by a heartbreaking score, the statistics show that Coach Moore's eleven had a slight edge in all fields except conversions.





A bruising tackle by Westerner back Loren Langston brings down an unidentified Abilene back as Lubbock was defeated in their 5th game of the season 49 to 7. The victory gave the state champions their 28th consecutive win. In 1953, the Westerners set the all-time record of 29 consecutive victories. This Abilene victory gave the Westerners a 2 win and 3 loss record for the 56-57 season.

Long runs and penalties highlighted the lopsided 39 to 7 win the Westerners gained over the Plainview Bulldogs in the first conference game of the 1956 season.

After intercepting a Bulldog pass, Charlie Moore slips out of the arms of a would-be tackler to score the third touchdown of the game early in the third quarter.

Although the Bulldogs received several breaks in the game, they were unable to capitalize on them.

Sandies Storm Toms 38-20

During a nerve racking game between the Amarillo Sandies and our fighting Westerners, Coaches Moore and Payne plan defensive strategy against the strong offensive tactics of Amarillo.

You can tell by the actions of DeWitt Weaver that the game was very close. The score was 14-14, but the Sandies were able to overcome the Westerners in the second half with a score of 36 to 20 after a hard fought battle.

LHS Gridiron Team Sets New Tradition

A new tradition was set in Lubbock Senior High School when the 1956-57 gridiron team began wearing dress suits to out-of-town games and pep rallies. Not only did this boost the moral of the football boys but also the spirit of the Westerner fans.

Not looking too uncomfortable and very nice in their suits and ties, the Westerner football squad is shown as they leave for the Pampa game.

Settling down for the long trip are: Joe Mack Henderson, Charlie Battin, Roger Milburn, Bill Stovall, Dick Pierce, Coolidge Hunt, Tim Campbell, DeWitt Weaver, Bill Robison, Charles Moore, Don Warren, Eugene Holt, George Smith, Bob Brackett, Fred Williams, Larry Jones, Richard Fifer, Loren Langston, and Mickey McDonald.

Loren "Chief" Langston sweeps around right end as three unidentified Plainsmen move in for the tackle during the second quarter of the Monterey vs Lubbock High School game. This was the first contest between the two schools. Monterey won the game 27 to 7, giving the Westerners a two win, seven loss, and one tie season.

Monterey won the new traditional silver spurs from Lubbock High. These spurs symbolize the friendly rivalry that has been established between the two schools.

Bobby Haynie, Costa Dunias, Jack Tillinghast, Jim Graves, Ronnie Fipps, Teddy Jackson, Harold Hurst, and Jack Nichols were promoted to the Westerners after showing outstanding improvement on the Cowhands.

Although these players were not promoted in time to receive letters, congratulations are in store for them.

Cowhands Play 8 Games This Year

Cowhand coaches E. C. Leslie, Max O'Banion, Jerry Crawford, Grant Teaff, James Cobb, and Ronald Robbins directed the Cowhands through an eight-game season. The "Hands" had tough luck all season losing their games to Amarillo, Abilene, Odessa, Brownfield, Levelland, and Littlefield.

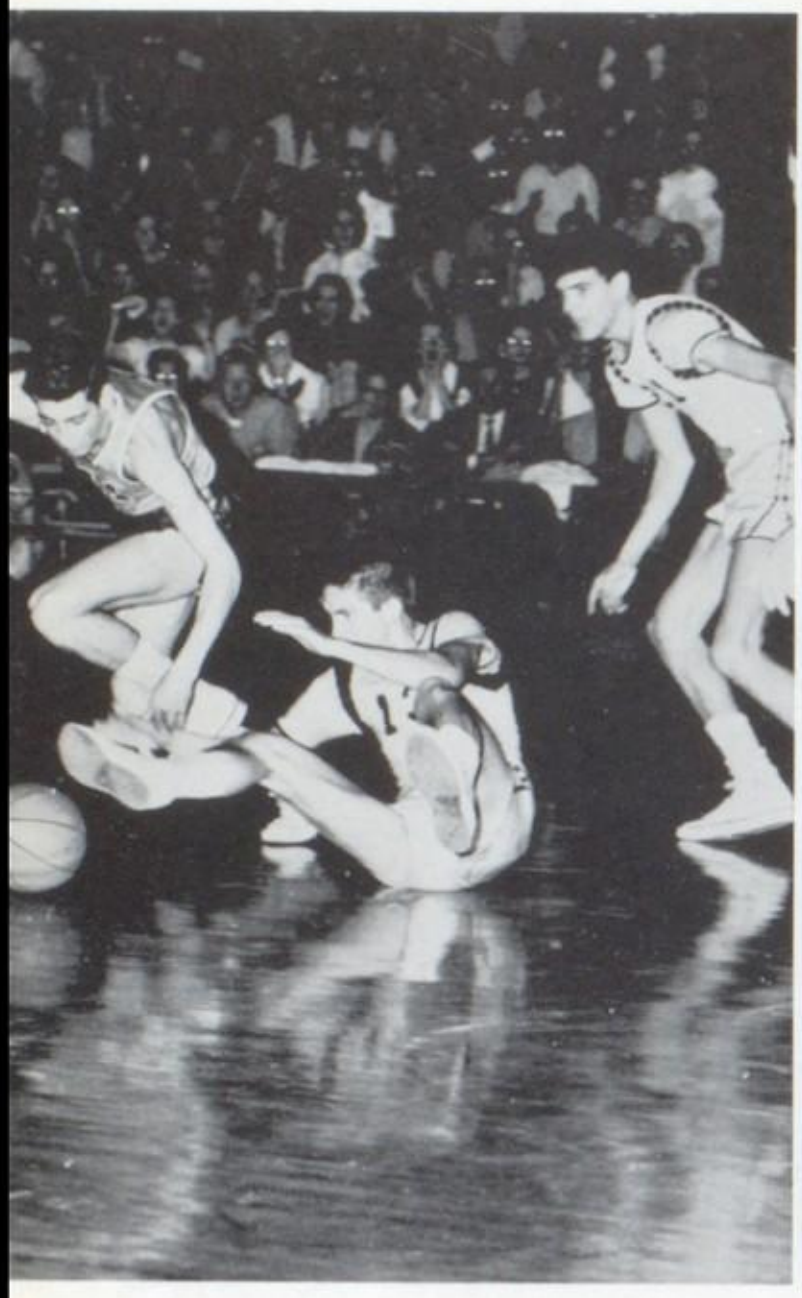
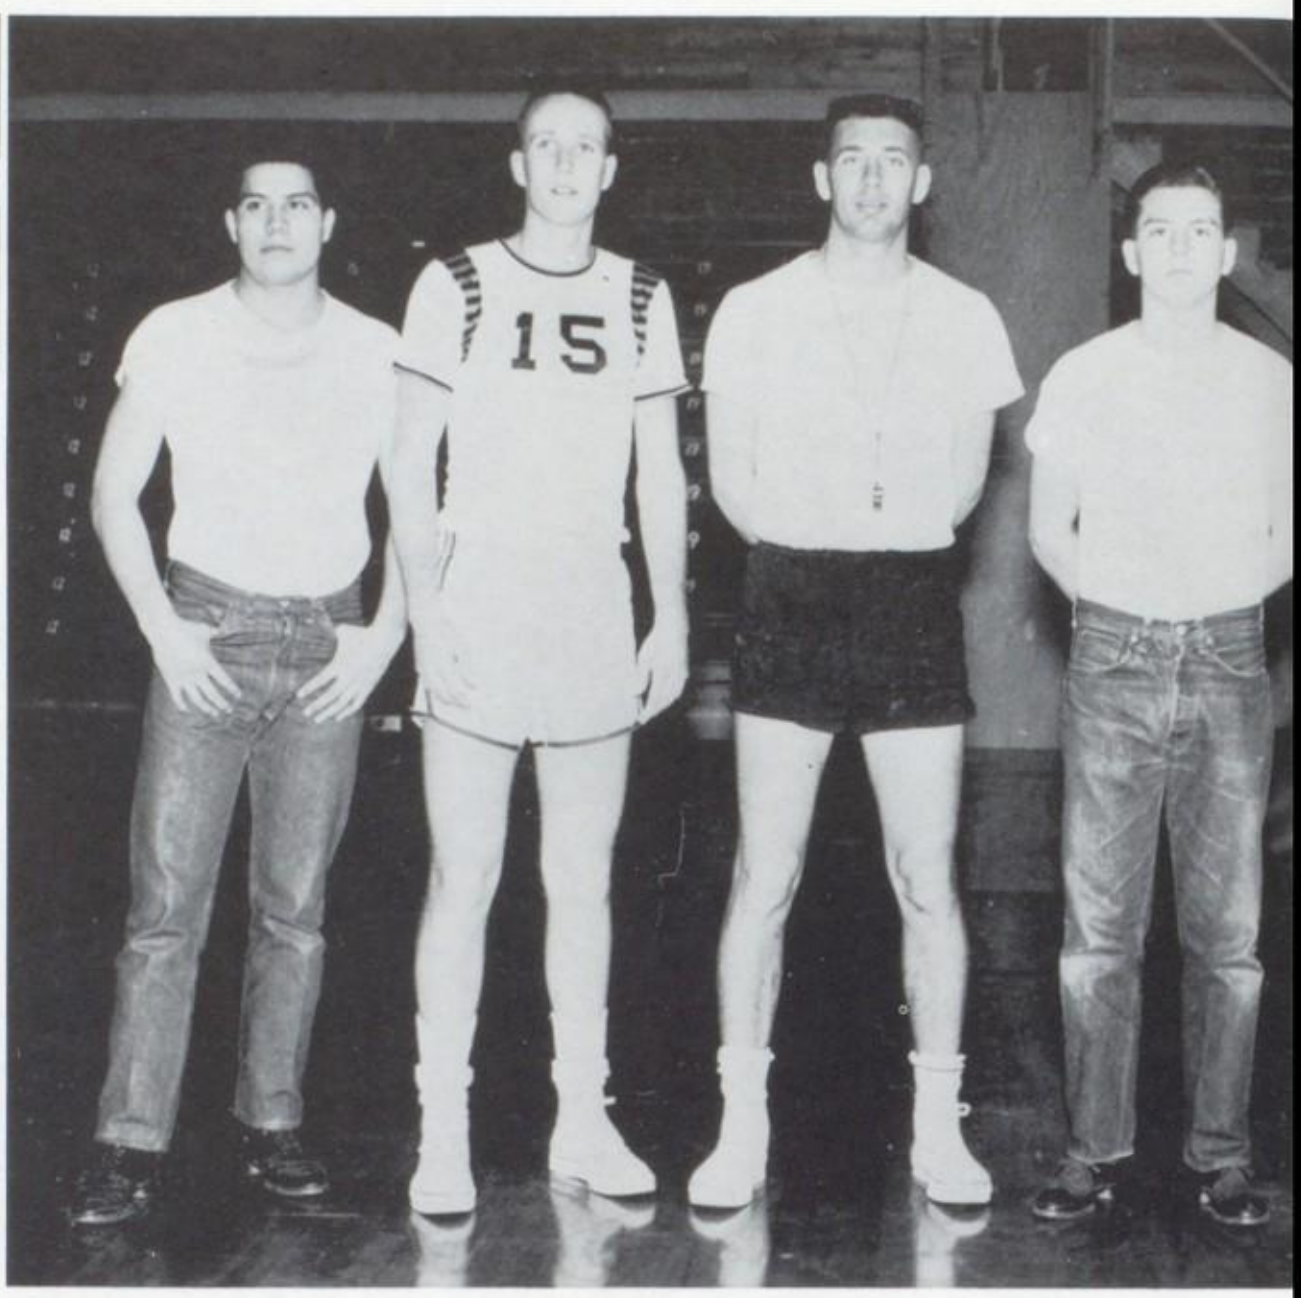
Westerners Plan Strategy

Scott Mack, Max Hood, Dwayne Key, Jerry Cowan, and Billy Spitzer were the returning lettermen for the Westerners this year. Led by the high scoring of Max Hood, the expert ball handling of Scott Mack, and the height of Billy Spitzer, the Westerners proved to be tough competition for the other district teams this year.

Clockwise, starting with No. 14 are: Eugene Holt, Kenneth Taylor, Merlin Garrett, Jerry Parsons, Dwayne Key, Max Hood, Billy Spitzer, Coach Max O'Banion, Jerry Cowan, and Scott Mack, Captain, made up the Westerner team this year.

Monterey Gets Stomped





The Tom S. Lubbock Westerners basketball team defeated the Plainsmen of Monterey, February 8, 1957, by 26 points. It was the most thrilling game of the year for the squad and all Westerners.

Westerner Dwayne Key takes a seat as Dale Glaze of the Plainsmen makes a grab for the ball. The score wound up 69 to 43.

The Westerner spirit held up through thick and thin all season with help from the fans. The Westerners kept fighting all the way, win or lose.

Manager Frank Carrillo, Captain Scott Mark, Coach Max O'Banion and Manager Bill Houchin were the people that kept the team in shape all season. This is Scott Mack's third year as a letterman. Coach O'Banion is completing his second year as head basketball coach.

A slow start ruined one of the most spectacular basketball comebacks in Lubbock High School history as the Borger Bulldogs held off the Westerners 70-66.

Coach Max O'Banion's locals could do little during the first half but started a thrilling third quarter with a rally that added 29 points to their half time score.

You have to get the ball to score and the Westerners and Bulldogs are really after it. Shown is a third quarter scramble involving Jerry Parsons and Jerry Cowan.

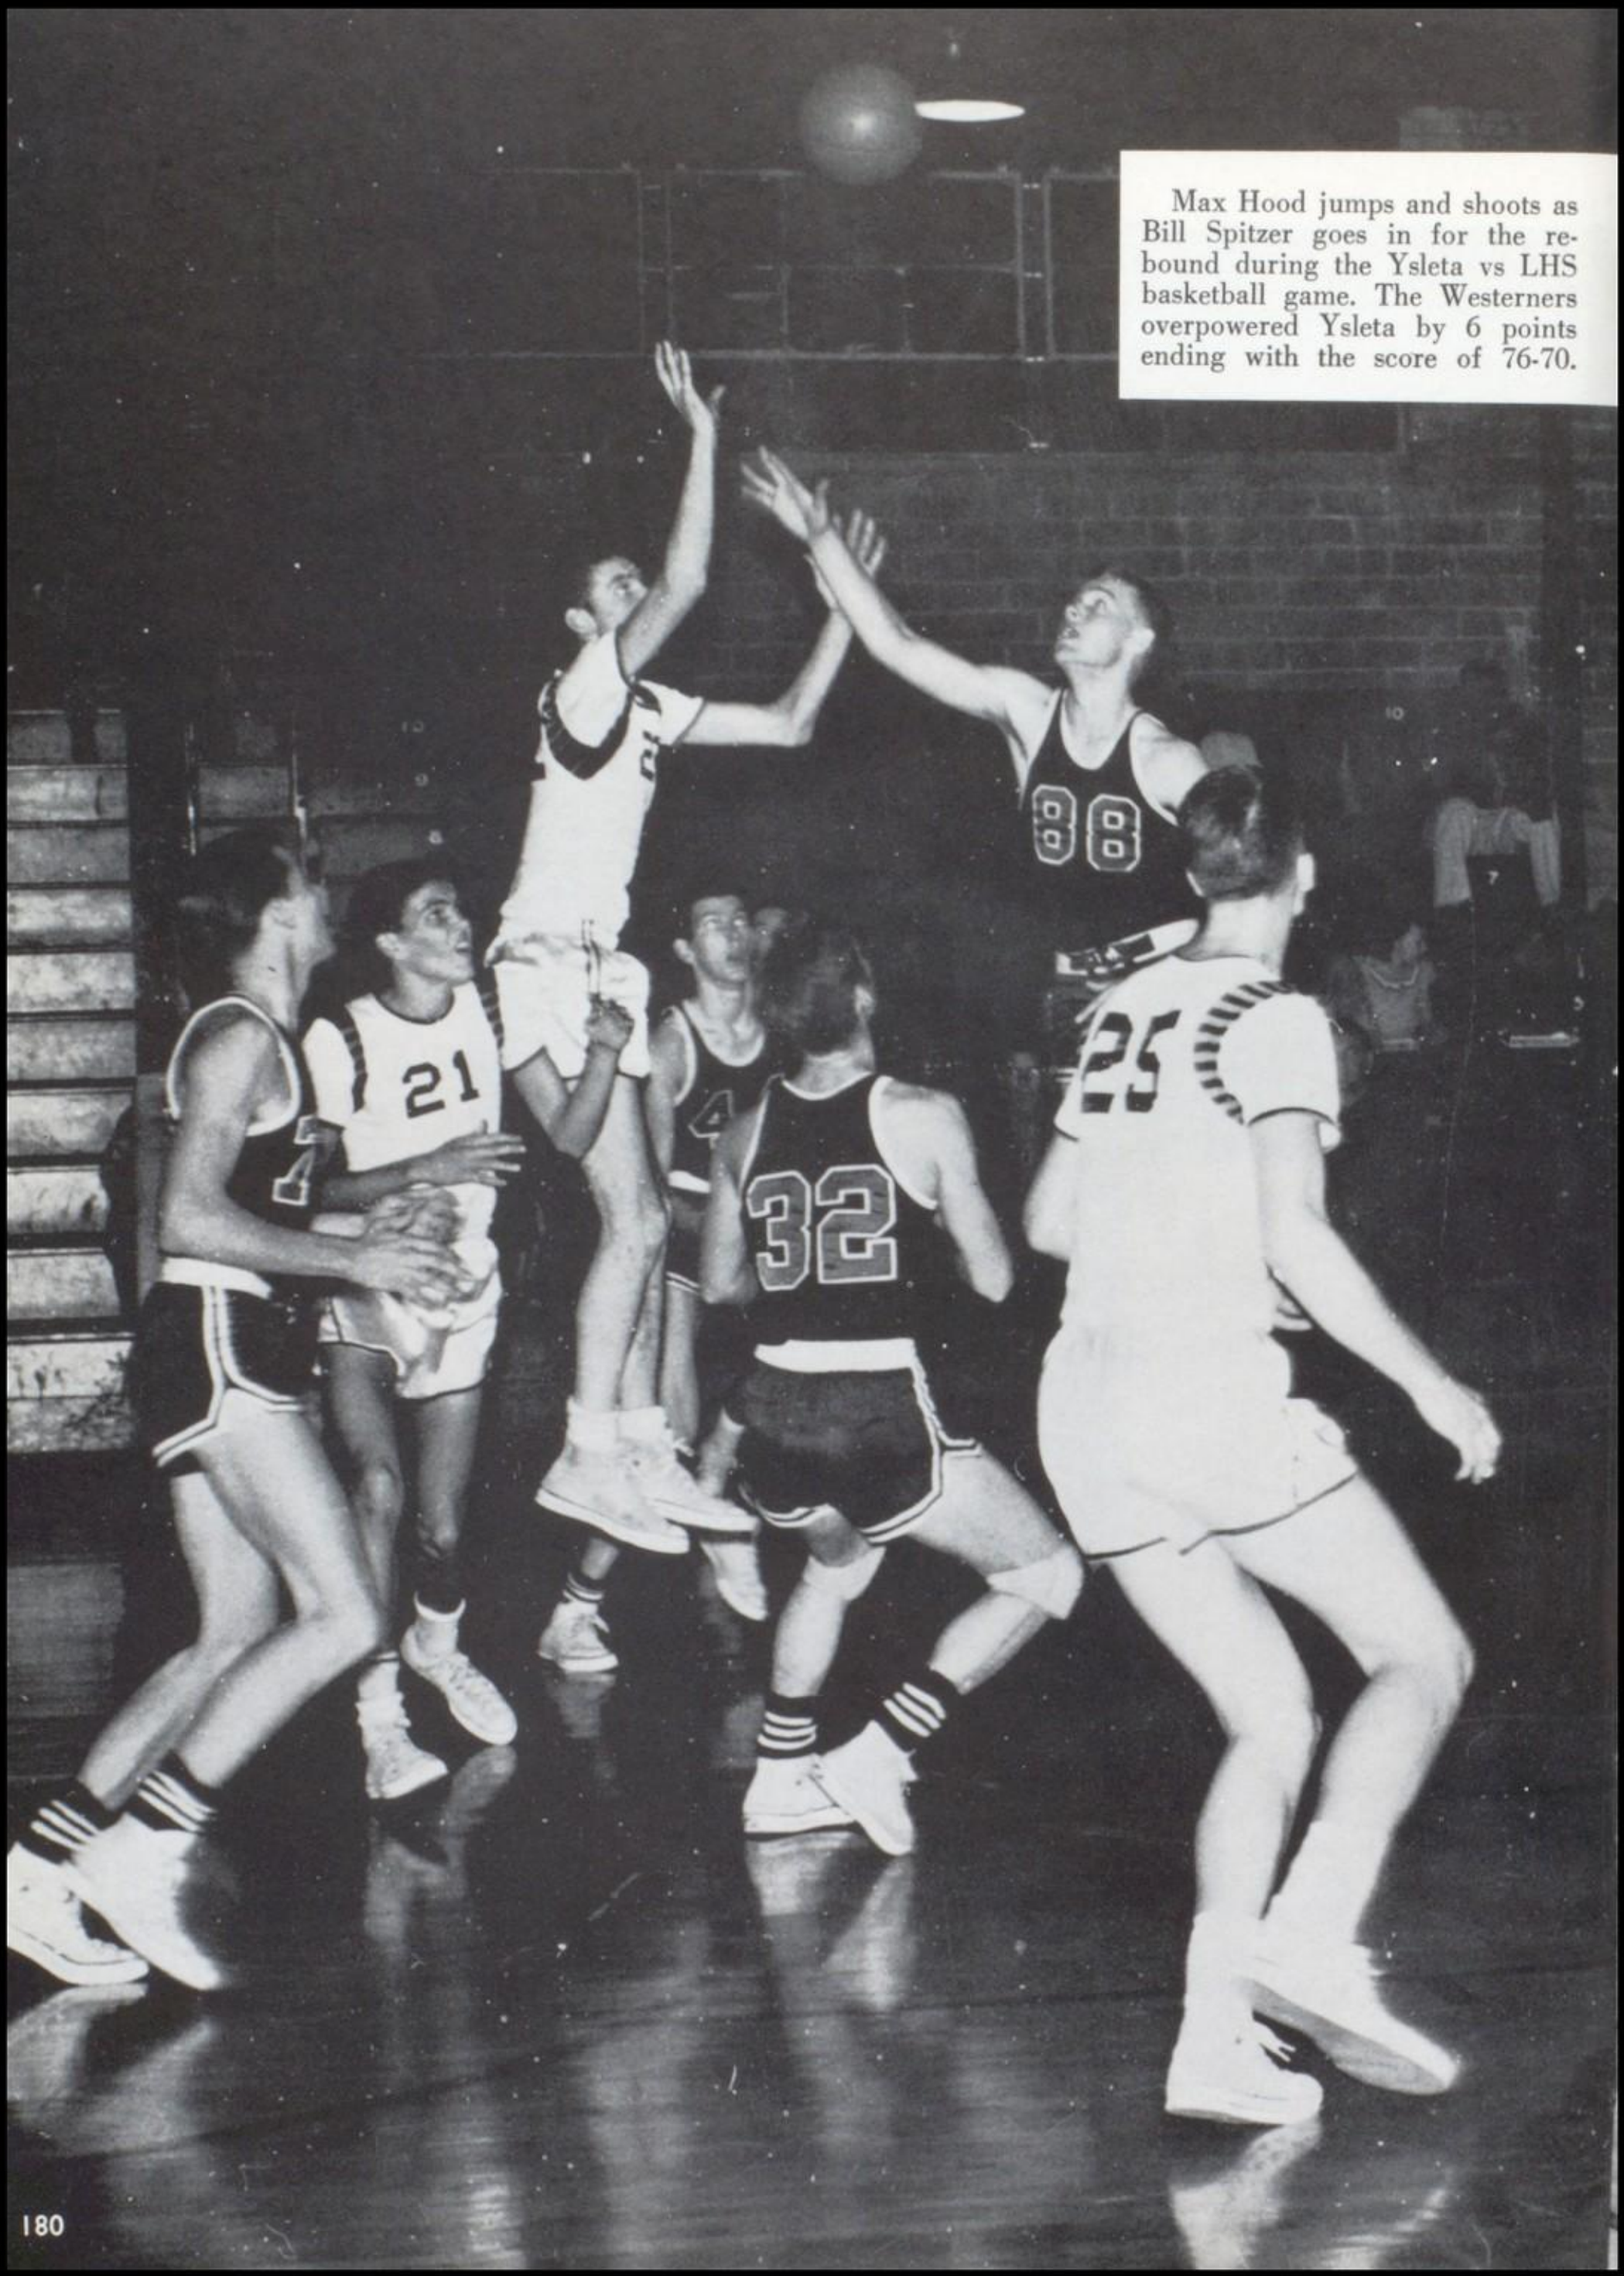
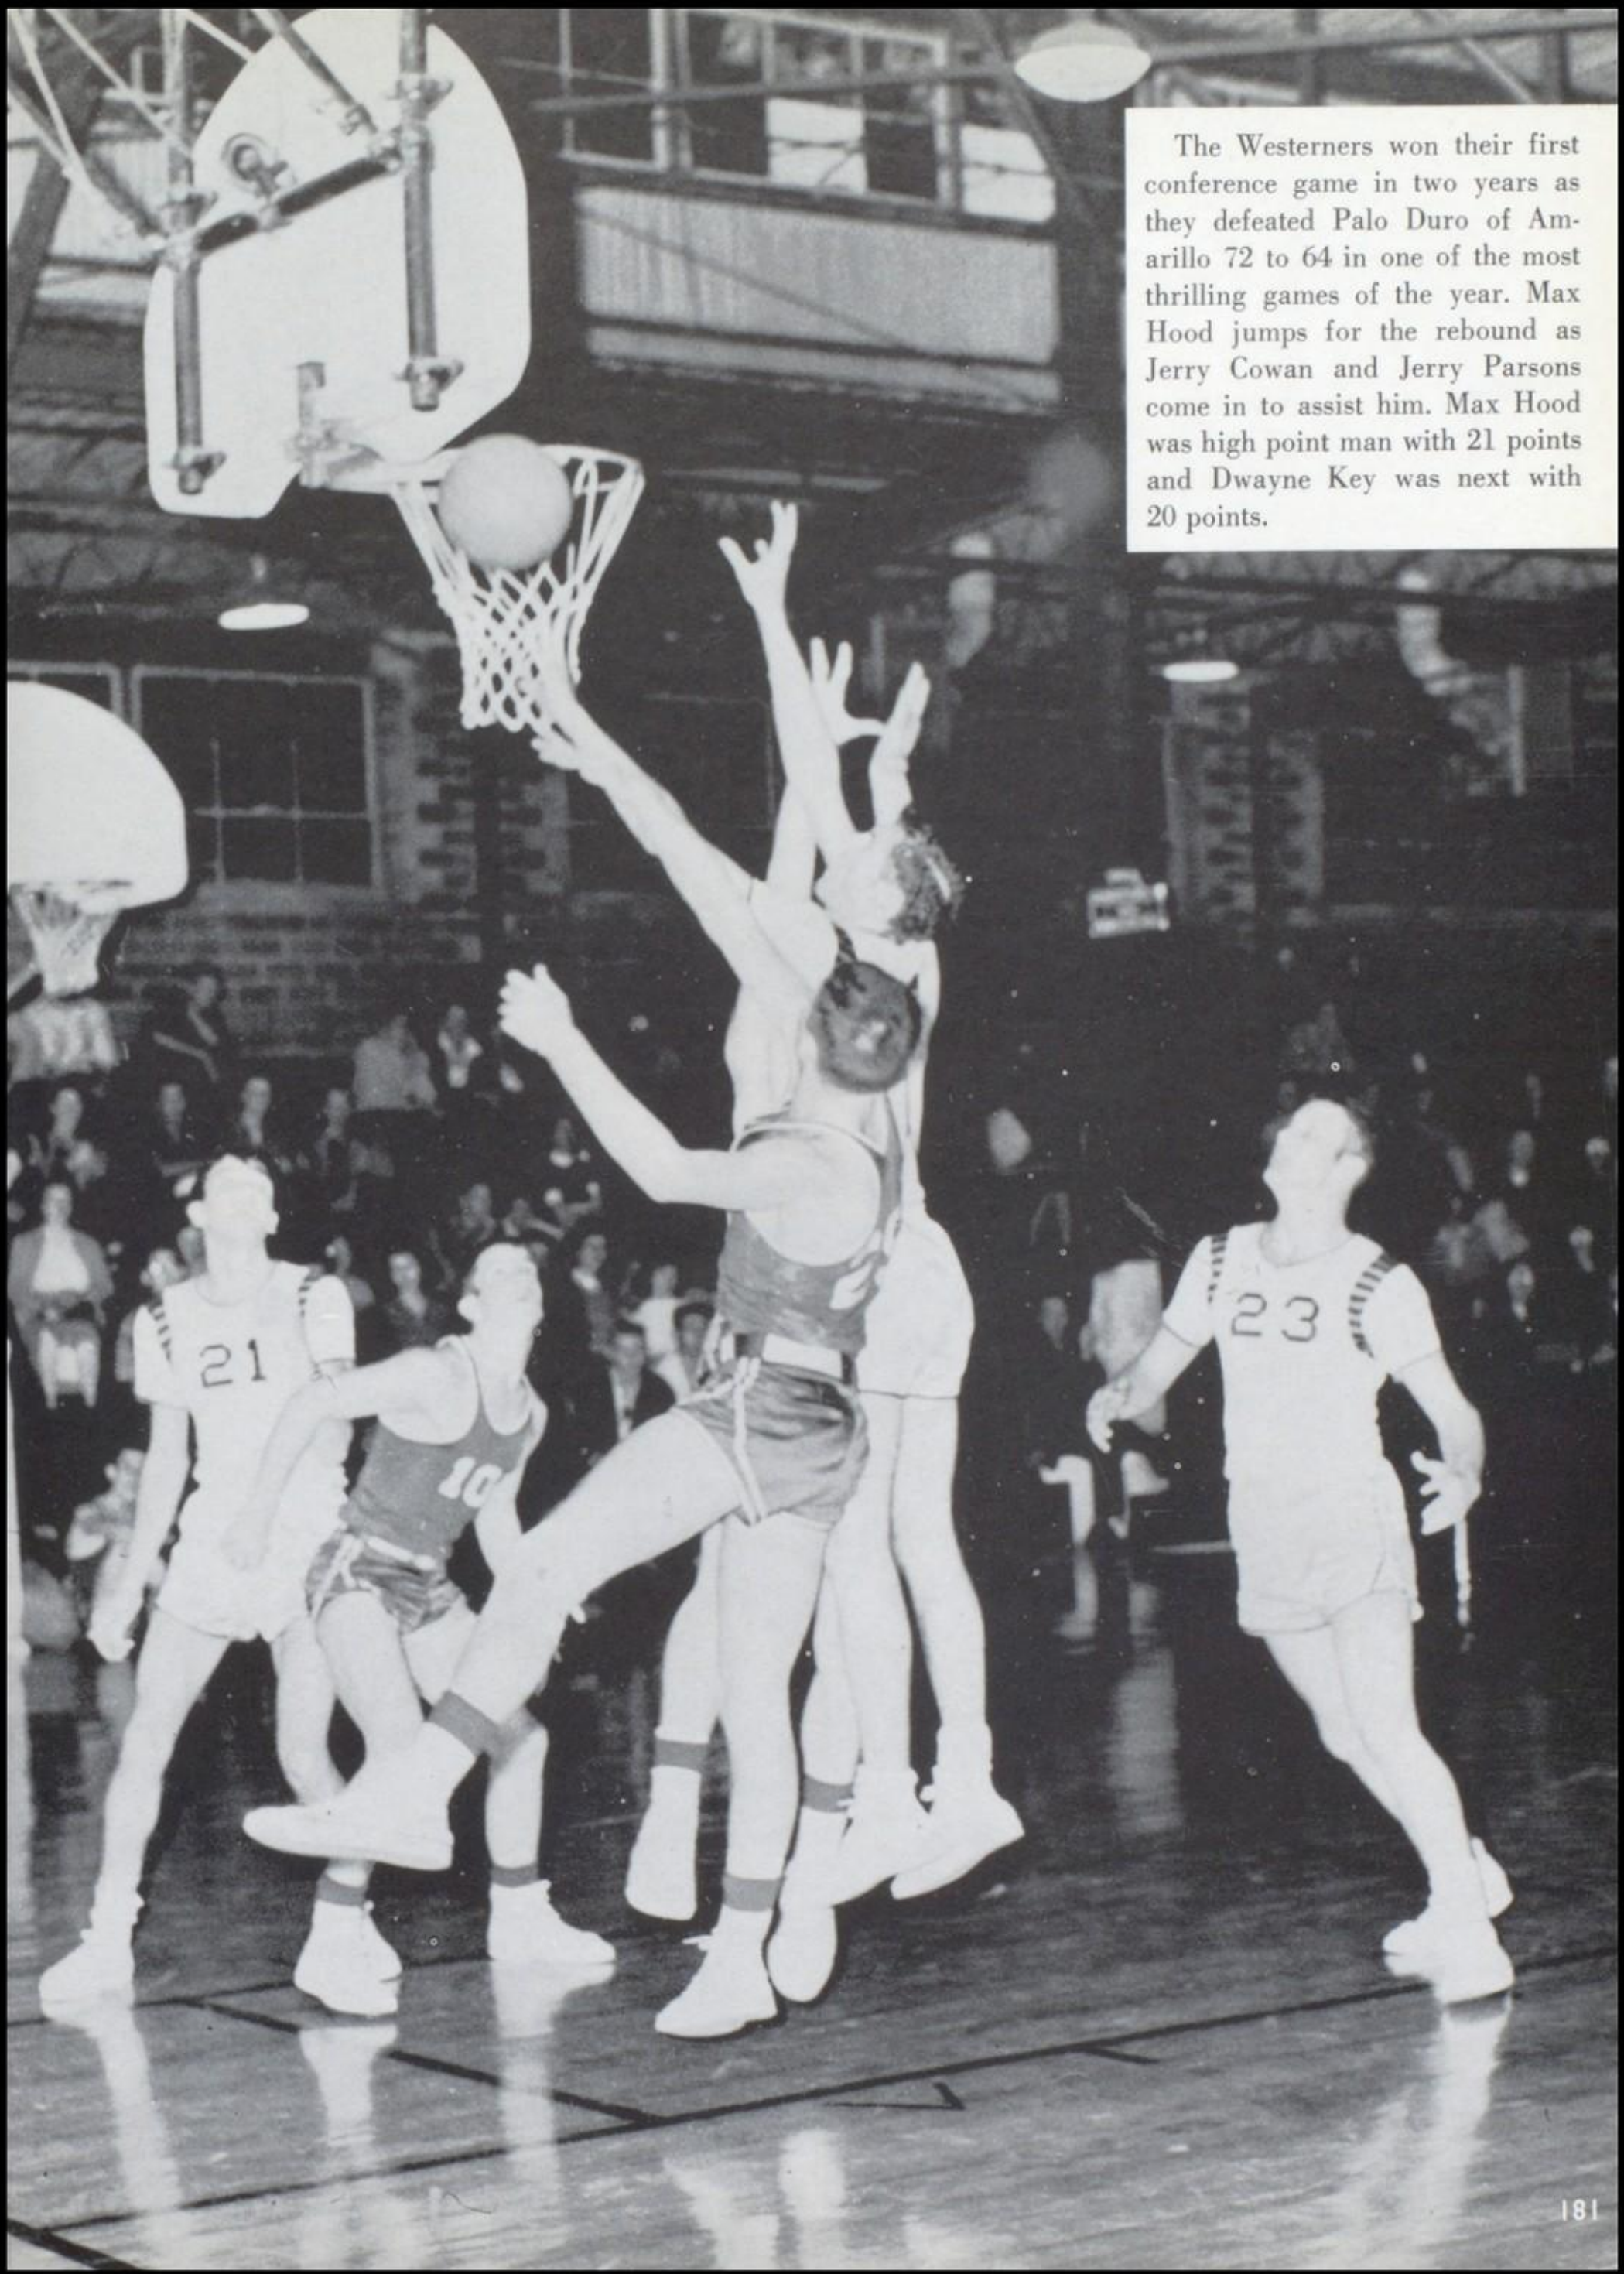
They are supposed to be playing basketball but by the fixed expressions on their faces it looks as if they are in a trance. In the picture from left to right are: Plainsman Mike Shipman, Westerner Scott Mack, Plainsman Rix Vaughterman, another unidentified Plainsman and Max Hood of the Westerners. This picture was taken in the first district basketball game played between the two schools. The game was "nip and tuck" all the way ending with 69 points for the Westerners and 73 points for the Plainsmen.



Max Hood jumps and shoots as Bill Spitzer goes in for the rebound during the Ysleta vs LHS basketball game. The Westerners overpowered Ysleta by 6 points ending with the score of 76-70.



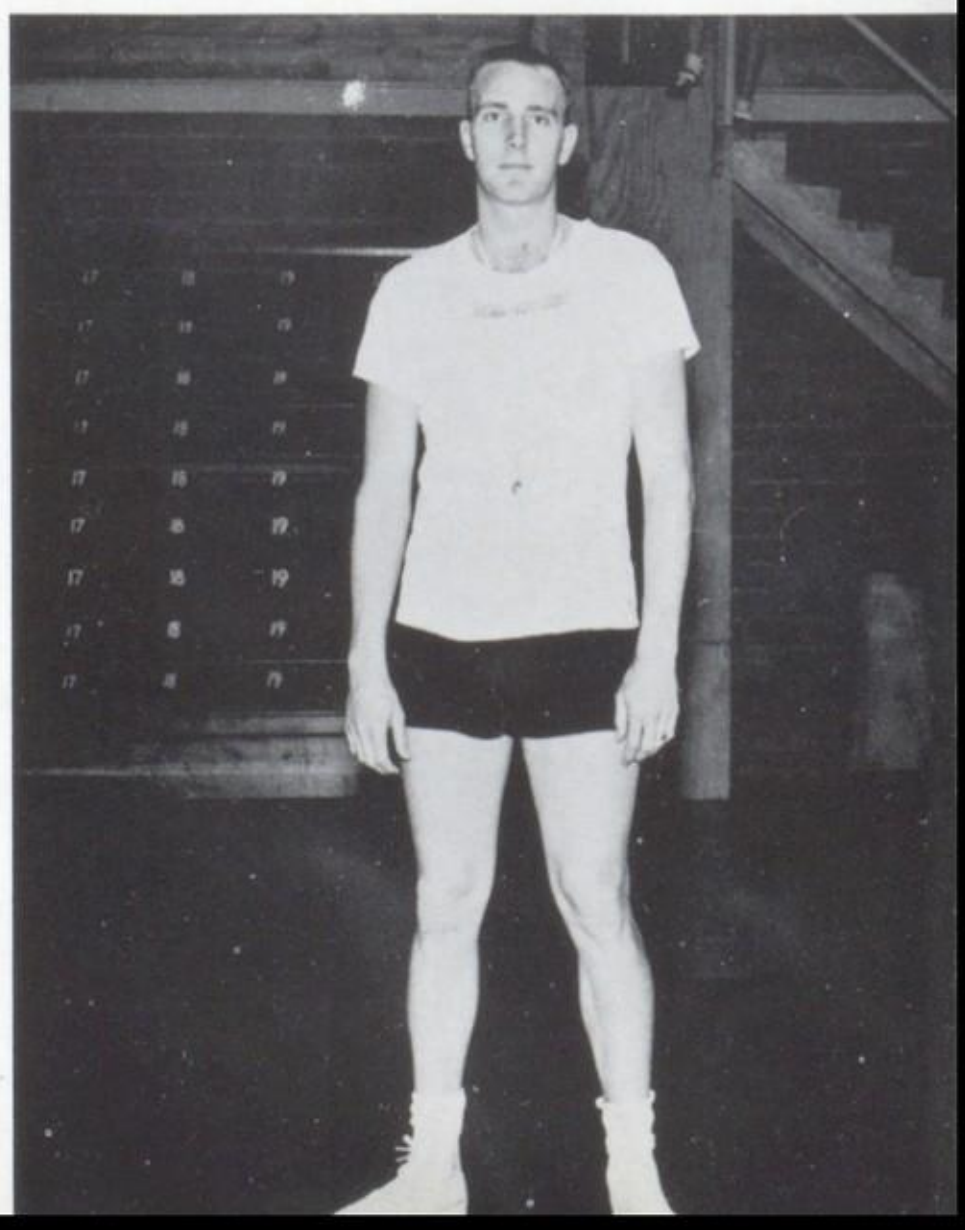
The Westerners won their first conference game in two years as they defeated Palo Duro of Amarillo 72 to 64 in one of the most thrilling games of the year. Max Hood jumps for the rebound as Jerry Cowan and Jerry Parsons come in to assist him. Max Hood was high point man with 21 points and Dwayne Key was next with 20 points.

Ten Make Up Cowhand Cagers

Winding up the season for the Cowhands this year are, front row: Galal Mahon, Darwin Hilliard, Dale Hayden, Lee Sanders, and Ronald Taylor. Back row are: Lewis Rix, Donald Weldon, Don Rucker, Bill Pearce, DeWitt Weaver, and Johnnie Haggard, manager.

Though the Cowhands had little experience, they gave their opponents a very rugged time in each of their games this year.

Coach James Cobb directed the Cowhands in their season this year. This is Coach Cobb's second year on the coaching staff. His other duties are plane geometry classes.



Crawford Coaches Westerner Golfers

Coach Jerry Crawford, Rich Langston, Jon Lemon, Leland Payne, Dick Cashion, and DeWitt Weaver make up the golf team this year. This is Coach Crawford's first year as the golf coach. Also he is coaching Cowhand football, track, and regular physical education. He has been with the Westerner coaching staff for two years.

Ready to tee off is Dick Cashion as DeWitt Weaver, Jon Lemon, Leland Payne, and Coach Jerry Crawford look on.

DeWitt Weaver is the only returning letterman this year, but the new sophomores show promising results for the future seasons.

Spring Has Sprung

(Hurdlers Too!)

One sure sign of spring is when the boys from the track team flood the field.

Watching and wondering about the season of track are Coaches James Cobb and Ronald Robbins. This is the first year to coach track for both of them. Coach Cobb looks somewhat ill about the day's workout, but Coach Robbins seems hopeful as he looks forward to the Snyder and interscholastic meets.

Pictured in late February clearing the hurdle is Pat McDonald. He too has hopeful thoughts of winning at the Snyder track meet, and making a good showing at the Interscholastic League track meet.

Jack Tillinghast also practices for the Snyder meet. If effort means anything, the boys are sure to be in perfect condition for the season of track.

Track Features Jumps, Sprints, Relays

Mickey McDonald, Harmon Harley, Jack Winfrey, Doyle Boggs, Bill Simpson, and Tommy Herrington made up this year's 880 relay team. Bill Simpson is the only returning letterman for the relay team this year.

This event is very tiring because it is more of an endurance race than any other type.

Sailing through the air are Loren Langston and Tommy Herrington. They are practicing for the broad jump event for the track meet, March 9th, in Snyder.

Pat McDonald jumps into the lead in the 880 yard sprint. This is part of the training required to hold any position on the track team. It is used to make the boys long-winded and to give them added endurance for the meets.

Running 100 yard sprints is an exercise which the boys use for strengtheining their lungs, leg muscles, and for practice of breath control. At first the boys may feel that these exercises weaken their muscles and breath control. These prove to be false observations as the boys continue to work out.

Cindermen Prepare for Spring Meets

Making up the pole vault team are Kenneth Hawkins, Bill Stovall, and Loren Langston.

Jimmy Graves is shown as he clears a hurdle while practicing for the track meet held at Snyder on March 9.

Putting the shot is just a name for another back-breaking track event. However, Dick Pierce and Tony Moyers make it look easy as they heave the heavy metal shot.

DeWitt Weaver clears the hurdle in good form as he prepares to run the hurdles in inter-school competition. He particularly looks forward to inter-scholastic competition.

Track Meets Originated in Roman-Greek Times

Such events as shotput, discus, relays, and dashes go back to the days of Roman and Greek Olympics. Many new events have been added but the goal is still the same—to test skill and strength against an opponent. Many gods of the Romans and Greeks were named as a result of a track event. Mercury, for instance, was the god of speed.

Costa Dunias looks on as Jesse Headley prepares to hurl the discus. Both are practicing for the spring track meets.

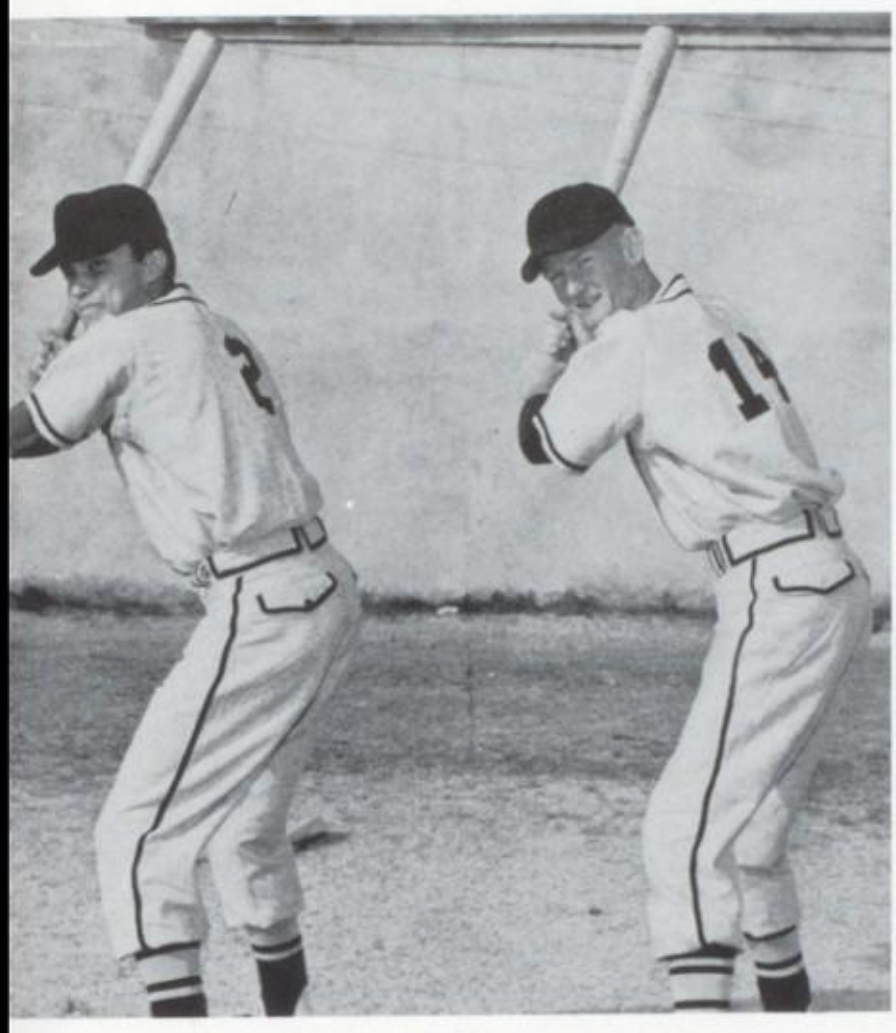
Baseball Team Shows Improvement as Season Advances

These boys made up the 57 Westerner baseball team. Standing are James Mowery, Teddy Pope, Harvie McWright, Don Ewing, Bobby Glazner, Loren Langston, Billy Don Miller, M. V. Davis, Darwin Hilliard, and Harold Snyder. Kneeling are Ewell Coplin, Walter Taylor, Kenneth Smith, Mike Lundy, and Burl Light.

Manager Loyd Croslin and Coach E. C. Leslie are talking over the duties of manager. This is Loyd's first year as manager. Taking care of the equipment is a very important job.

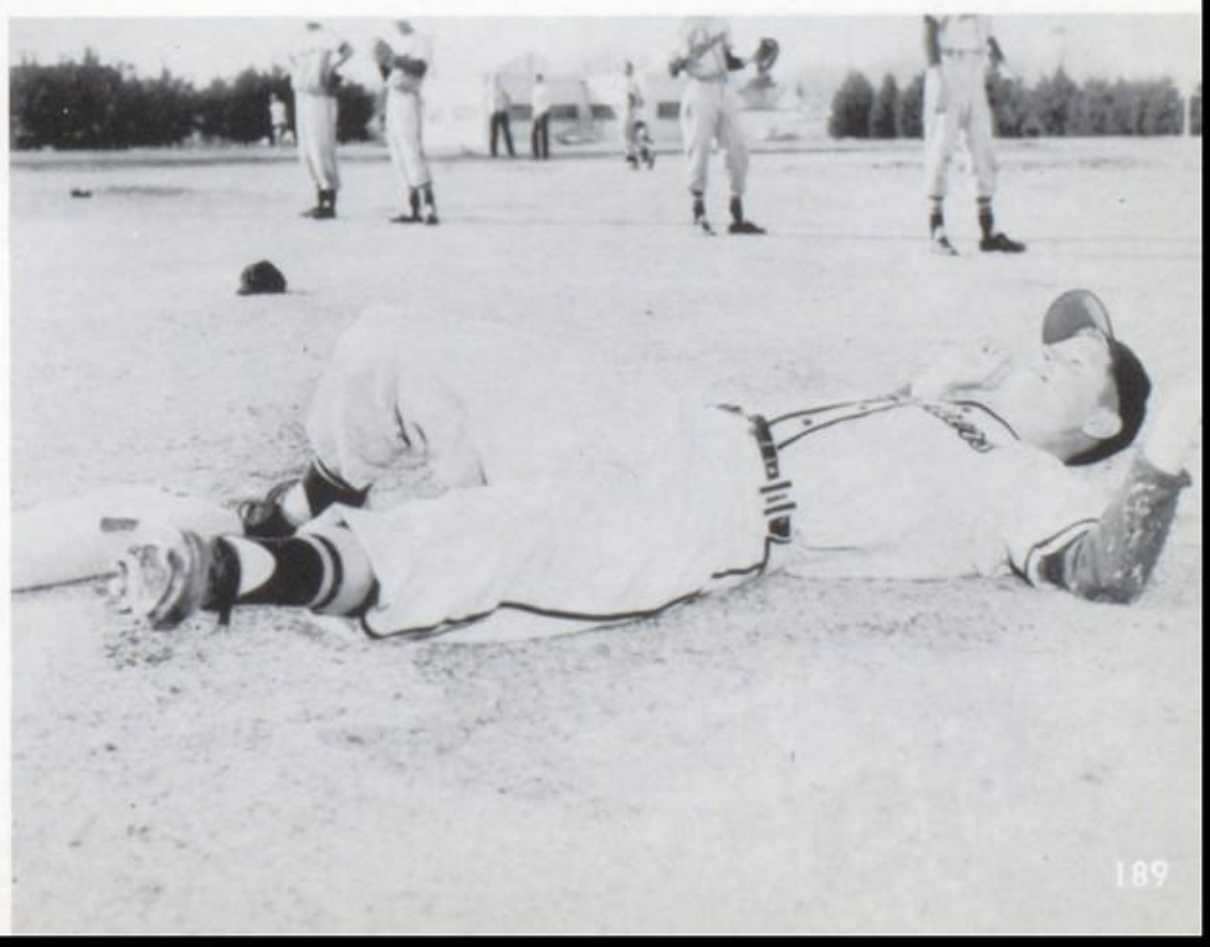
This is Coach Leslie's second year as the baseball coach.

Boys Prepare for All-American Sport



Walter Taylor and Don Ewing are shown displaying their batting form. These two boys are running in close contention for the third base position. Walter is a junior and Don is a senior.

Several members of the Westerner baseball team are getting in shape for the season of baseball by doing different exercises and calesthenics. "Busher" Smith is shown leading the group in the exercises.



Billy Don Miller demonstrates a slide into third base after an attempted "steal." Stealing a base requires precision timing, and players usually wear sliding pads to protect them from bruises.

Sliding practice was required from all the Westerners in the spring try-outs and in preparation for inter-school play.

Westerner Infield Practices Speed and Accuracy

Left-handed sophomore Darwin Hilliard has proven himself hard to beat on first base. He has the quick hands and alertness required for this position. He has also proved himself to be a good hitter. All in all, he is a good prospect for the next three years of baseball.

Mike Lundy finished his last season this year with three letters. For two years straight he has played first team second baseman. He may be little but teammates say he is one of the best ball players in many a season to play for the Westerners. He has always had the "never say die" spirit of a true Westerner.

James Mowery sends a fly ball to left field as Walter Taylor, Teddy Pope, Bobby Glazner, and Don Ewing wait for their turn to bat during batting practice. Kenneth Smith, the catcher, has played his last season with three letters. Other last season players are James Mowery and Don Ewing.

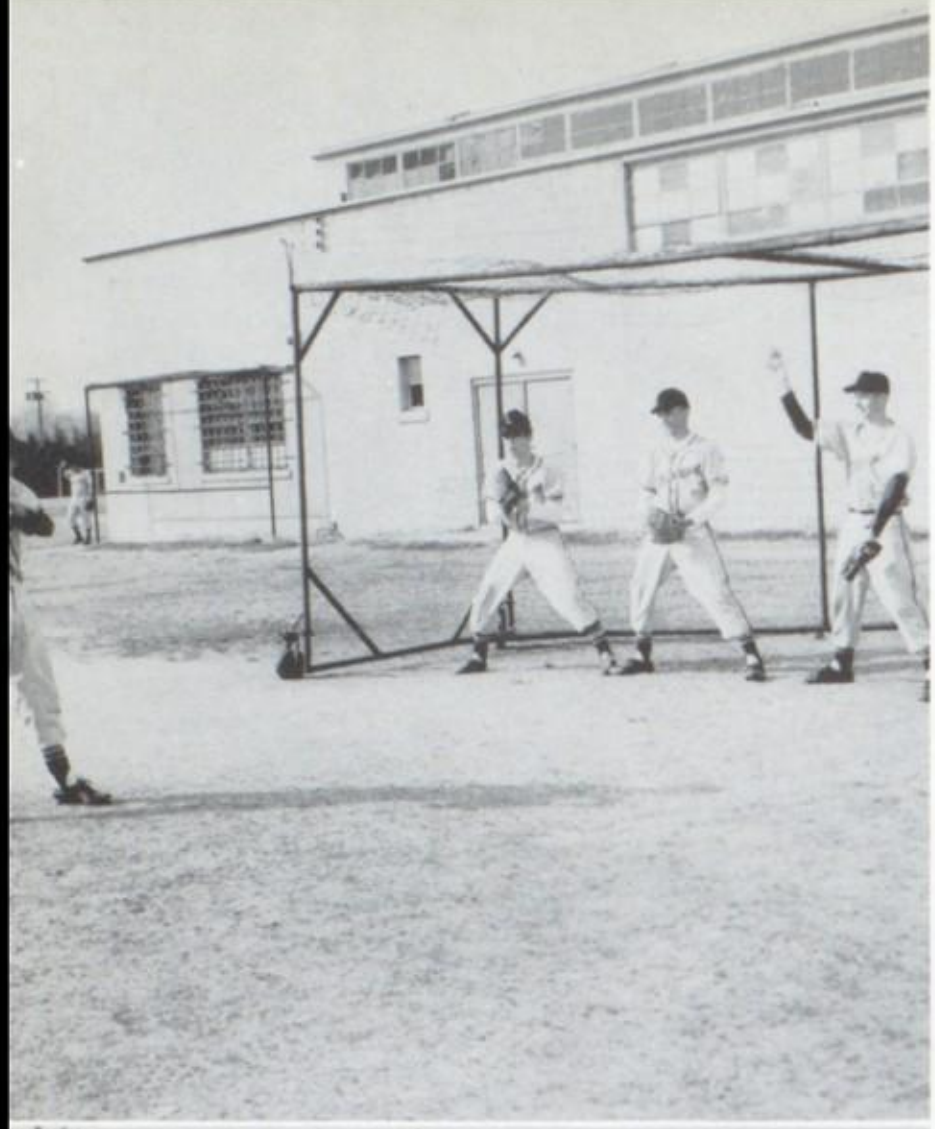
Westerner Battery Displays Teamwork

Senior catcher Kenneth Smith gives Burl Light, junior catcher, a few pointers to help improve him for next season. Burl played third base this season but is going to catch next season.

Kenneth Smith has also proved himself a wicked pitcher. He plays good at either catcher or pitcher.

Teddy Pope scoops up a grounder and throws the man out at first. Ted practices this maneuver a hundred times a day so as to be more accurate in his throws to first. The shortstop is extremely important in setting up double plays. In some cases, as many as one-third of the balls hit may come his way in a game.

Harold Snyder, James Mowery, and Harvie McWright compose the Westerner pitching staff. Some people may recognize the pitcher as the most important player on the team because they work the entire game. However, a pitcher may be only as good as the team behind him.



Players Learn Timing

One exercise designed to smooth up the rough spots is "pepper." "Pepper" requires fast thinking and an "on the ball player" to catch the balls knocked to them by a batter from eight to ten feet away. Shown batting is Teddy Pope, with Harold Snyder, Kenneth Smith, and Billy Don Miller, catching (most of the time).

With a direct hit, Mike Lundy makes a perfect bunt toward short stop. Bunting comes in handy when the score is tight because the boys in the field have to be quick to beat out one of them. Bunting is especially effective when a runner is on third base.

Taking the right stance when leading off a base is very important for the runner. It often means the difference between an out and a point . . . the runner must be able to run either direction at a split second's notice. In the bottom picture, Coach E. C. Leslie checks Harold Snyder's stance as he leads off first base.

Most Americans have played baseball, or as least the milder softball. Most of this has been of the sandlot variety, however, and many people think that the rather slow-moving game requires much less precision and timing than it actually does. Many hours were spent after school by the Westerners in learning this precision by the one true method—practice, practice, practice.

Individual P.E. and regular P.E. students both participate in one of the less strenuous, yet skillful, arts of pitching horseshoes. Some of the regular P.E. boys are shown pitching horseshoes.

Teressa Austin and LaRue Elliott struggle over a game of checkers as Charles Rowan looks on. These three are members of Coach Crawford's individual physical education class for people unable to take part in more strenuous physical activity.

Students Enjoy P. E. Tourney

Girls making up the all-tournament basketball team are, first row: Millie Sanders. Back row: Francis Dunning, Marcia Kelly, Roxie Ohlenbusch, Joy Woody, captain; Sheila Cline, Jimmie Sue Belcher, and Betty Becker. The girls were awarded sterling silver basketballs.

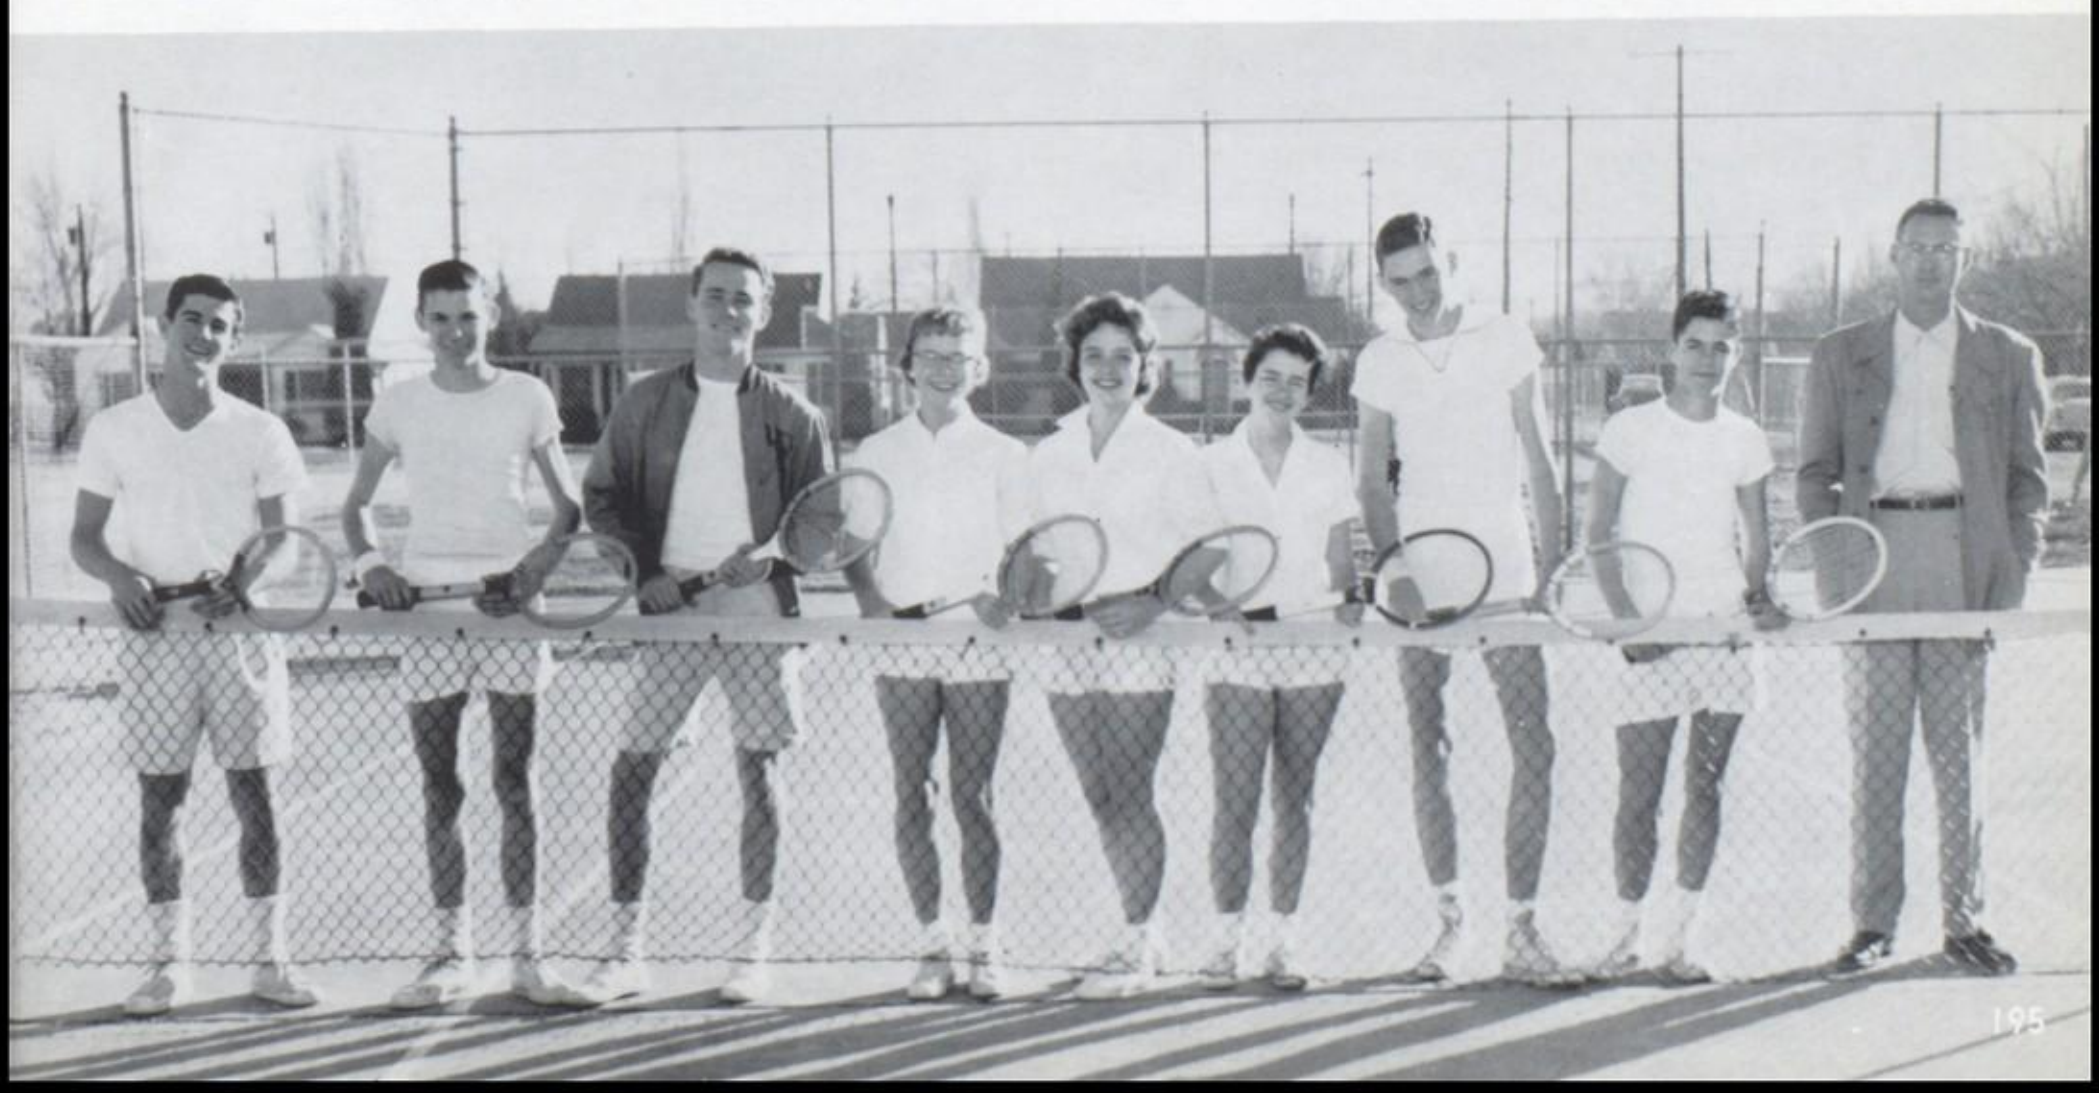
Burgess Leads for Third Year

James Burgess has been tennis coach for three years. He has taught typing, commercial arithmetic, and commercial geography two years. He played tennis on the Texas Tech team four years and while there, he helped coach the Junior Davis Cup Team from West Texas.

Tennis players on the 1956-57 tennis team are Milton McKee, John Limmer, Dick Burr, Susan Philbrick, Mary Jane Cashion, Betty Blue, Don Sledge, Martin Graves, and Coach James Burgess. Returning from last year's tennis team are Dick Burr, Milton McKee, and Mary Jane Cashion. Monterey gave Lubbock High some of its toughest district competition. The team played at Amarillo and Monterey and had tournament play in Midland and Odessa.

Members of the tennis team take special P.E. during the 7th period and usually continue their workouts until the late afternoon. Practicing with various shots and competing with each other in games, the team uses the nearby Dupre courts.



P. E. Features
Body Conditioning

Doing calisthenics during a regular class period are members of a boys' physical education class. They do different types of exercises each day to keep them in shape for other physical education activities.

Shown are several boys playing basketball in their regular physical education class. In the foreground is Coach Grant Teaff, one of the instructors of boys' physical education. The other instructor is Coach Jerry Crawford.

Sports in which the boys participate during the year are basketball, baseball, football, soccer, and volleyball. Boys are pictured practicing some of the fundamentals of volleyball.

Climbing ropes was one of the many conditioning exercises which took place in boys' physical education. Other conditioning treatments this year were chinning, conditioning relays, tumbling, and parallel bar gymnastics. All these are for the purpose of strengthening the body and speeding up reactions.

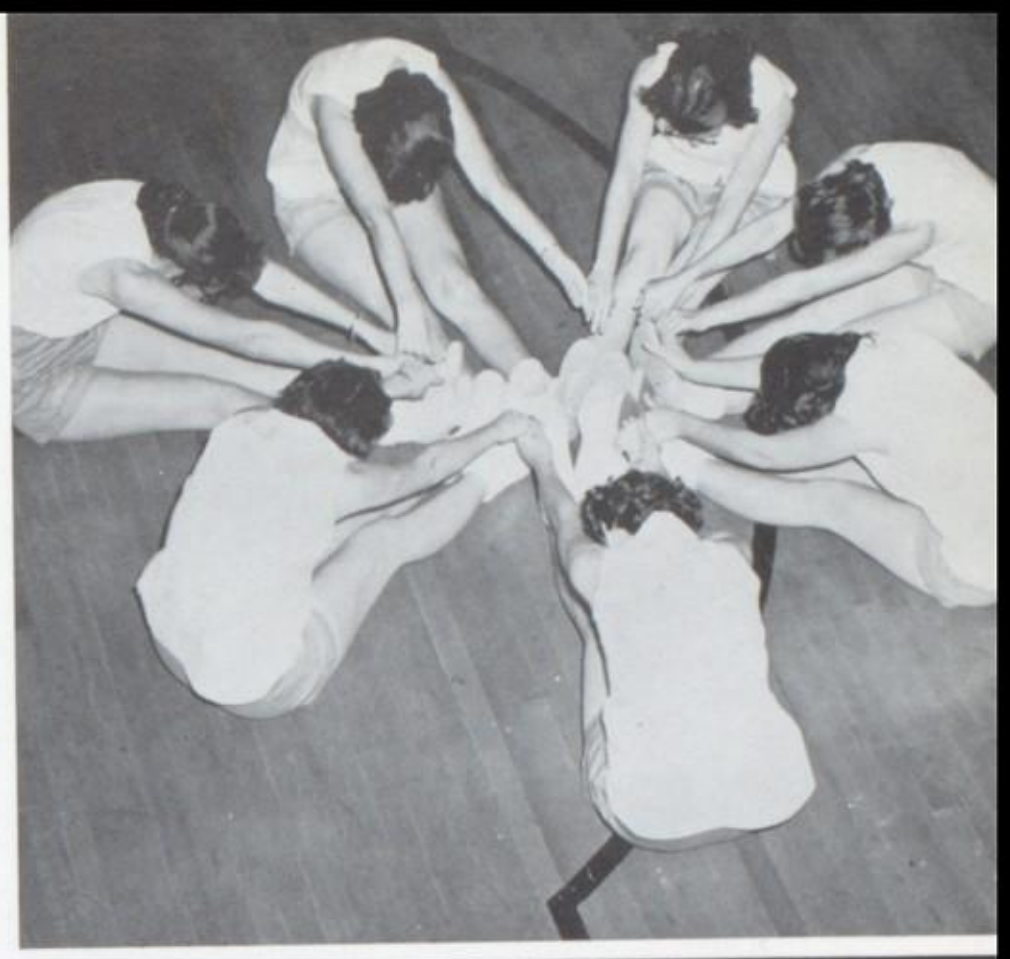
P. E. Classes Vary Program

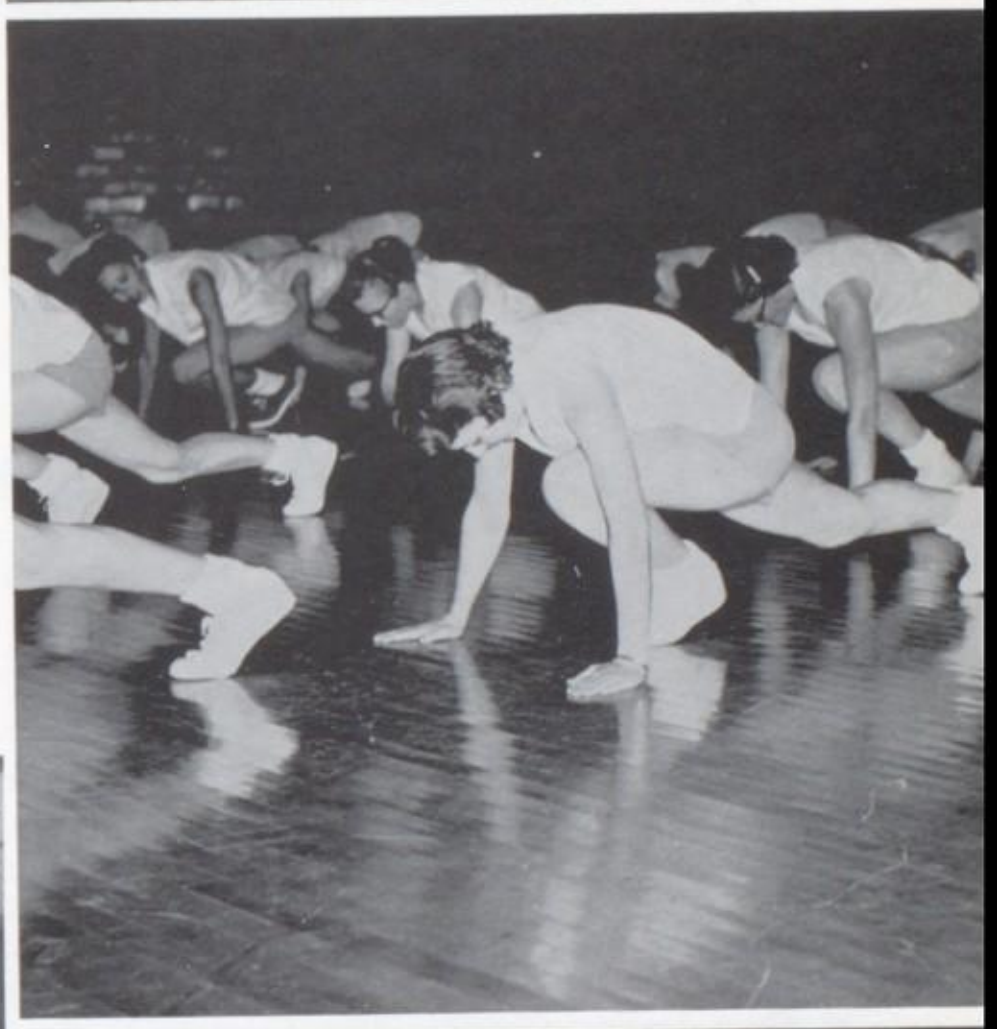
"Roses" are very interesting when they are made up of pretty girls. These third period M.W.F. physical education class girls are practicing regular exercises in a variated form.

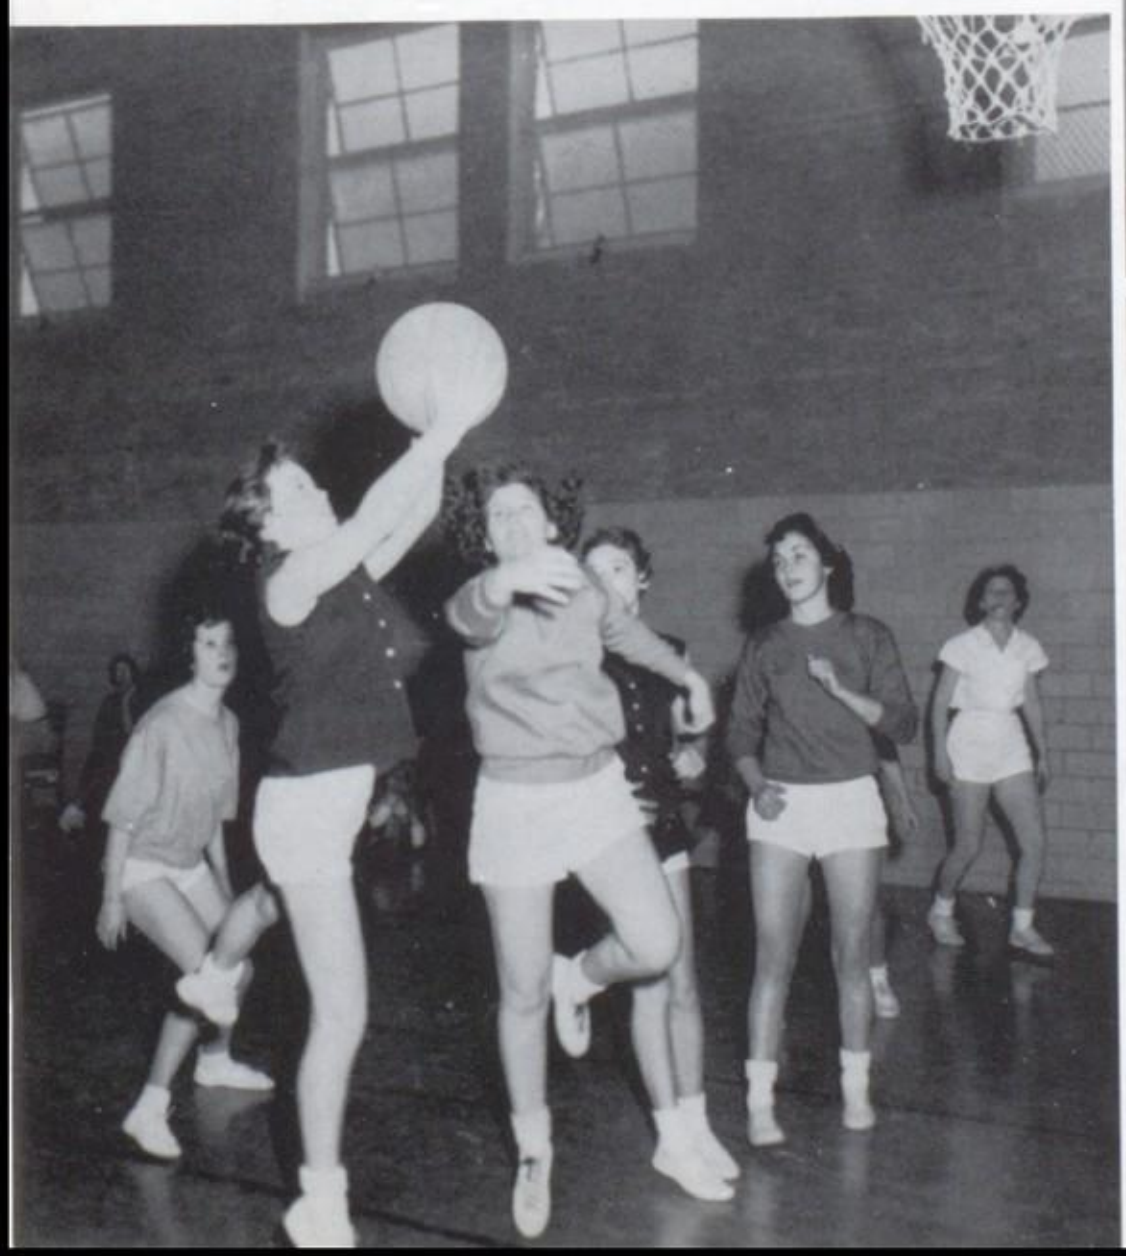
"Oh . . .! my aching back," was the expression used by the girls after they went through an hour of exercise during a physical education class. The girls in the picture seem to have had all the exercise they want for the next few weeks.

A badminton course is featured for a few weeks during the second semester. Students are taught the fundamental rules, court sizes, and the skills of the game.

A basketball tournament was one of the main activities of the girls physical education classes. Teams were chosen from each class to compete against each other for the championship. Some action in the tournament is pictured as several of the players grab for a rebound. The fourth period T.T.F. team won the tournament.







Little-played, but popular for its few days in the physical education program is shuffleboard. Sitting on the sideline are classmates waiting their turns for competition.

Track boys practice a "crossing-over" exercise. High stepping and good balance and timing are required in this drill. Coach Teaff is overseeing the group and barks out commands whenever a cinderman loses step. Some of these boys also participated in spring football training.

Little-Known Activities Are Fun

Having a lot of fun are these boys in the seventh period special P.E. They are practicing starts while Coach Teaff and others watch and give tips. At the starting line are Darwin Hilliard, Ronnie Fipps, and DeWitt Weaver. The others stand back to wait until their turn comes.

A group of future Westerner basketball players are shown running a one-hundred yard sprint. All except one boy in the picture are freshmen. Coach Max O'Banion allows freshmen to take special P.E. in order to give them an earlier start toward more scientific basketball. Jerry Parsons, in the T-shirt, is a sophomore.

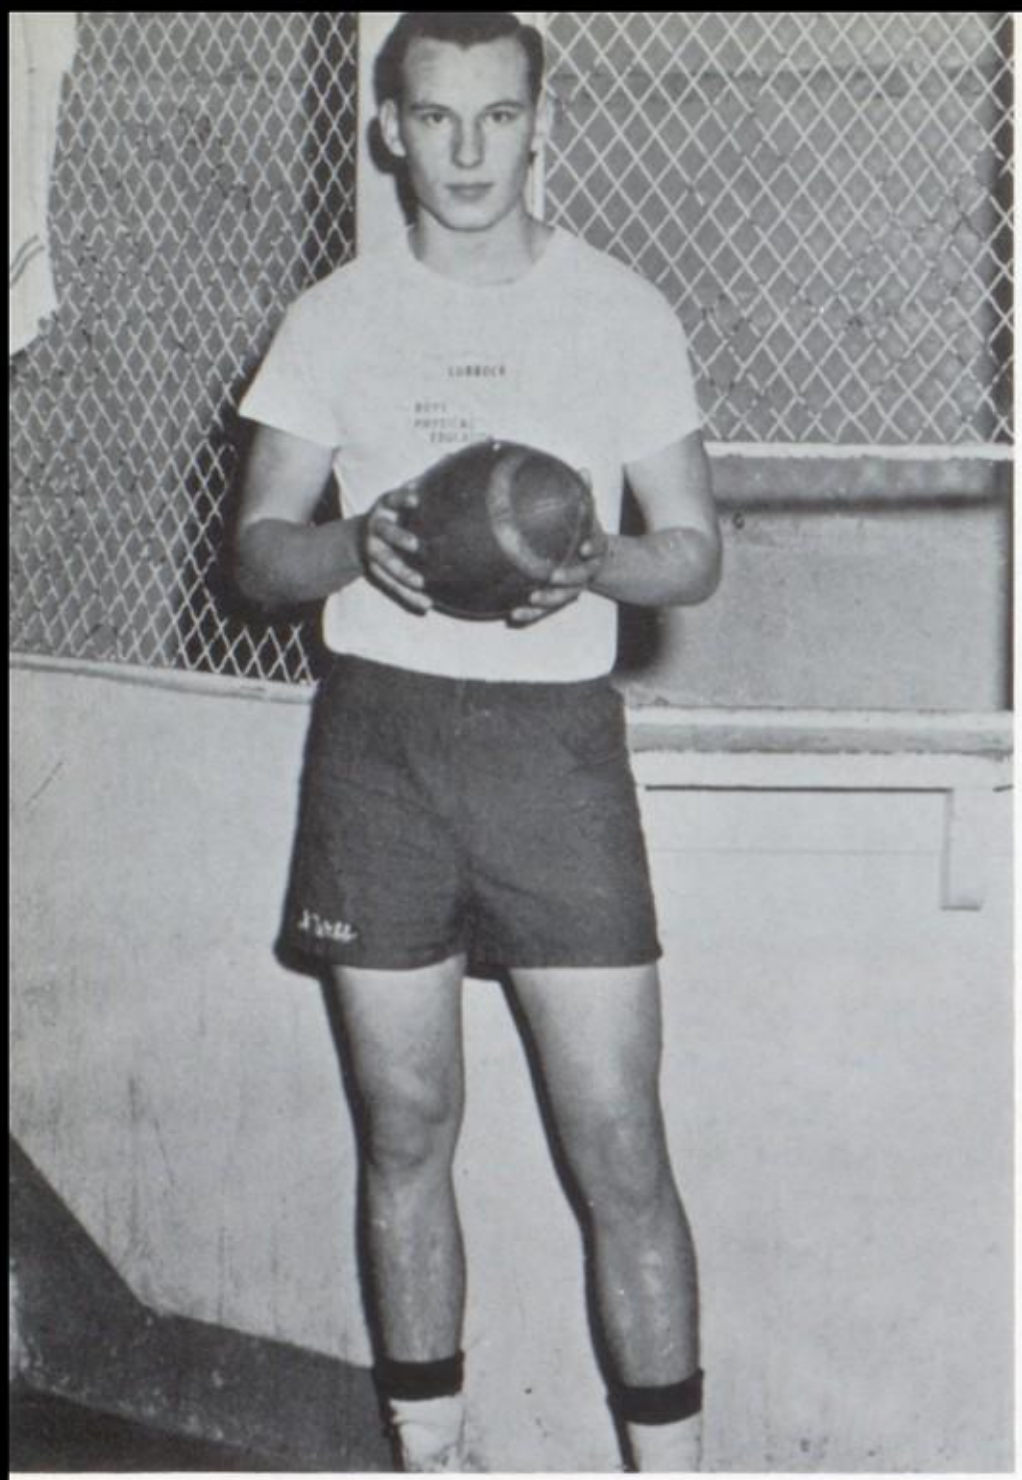
Look at this crazy bunch of kangaroos! Some may think jumping rope is easy but the two girls in the picture are jumping the same rope. This puts a different light on the subject and goes to show how amazing some girls are despite what boys say about the less athletic sex.

Boys are invited to the girls' gym for square dancing lessons, preparing for the Round-up activities. Note one girl looking at the camera—the cameraman was perched on the basketball hoop!

Girls' P. E. Prepares for Round-Up

Clara Bell, the catcher, appears to be worried as Virginia Woliver prepares to show her a homerun form. The girls divide into teams and play on the Dupre softball fields in warm weather. We might add that Virginia struck out and Clara was very relieved.

Shown are some girls serving the volleyball. Mrs. Wilson goes through this drill hundreds of times a year to show girls how to serve the ball accurately. Some girls develop their skills rapidly, but for others it takes more practice.



Webb Is Mister P. E.

Richard Webb was named outstanding boy of all the physical education classes. Richard was chosen by his physical education coaches, Teaff and Crawford, because of his outstanding ability and leadership. His cooperation and desire for improvement were also deciding factors. Richard was in close contention for this title last year as a junior. He was in the fourth period M.W.F. physical education class.

Jo Long Is Miss P. E.

Jo Long was chosen the outstanding girl physical education student. This was her third year of physical education. Through these three years, she has developed a knack of good sportsmanship and of getting along with others. She is recognized for her leadership and taking constructive criticism. She was in the sixth period M.W.F. physical education class. She was chosen by Coaches Wilson and Winn.
